CIO BLACKMAIL FOR 4TH TERM FUND CHARGED

Workers Dismissed, Says Hoffman.

BY LAURENCE BURD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 10.—The Congress of Industrial Organizations was charged by Rep. Hoffman [R., Mich.] today with practicing "despicable political blackmail" in its drive to garner factory workers' dollars for its fourth term for Roosevelt campaign chest.

The congressman, in a statement released by his office here, declared the "Communist dominated" CIO is having workers fired from their jobs for failure to contribute $1 each to its political action committee which is seeking a fourth term campaign fund of 4 million dollars.

In support of his charge, Hoffman released a letter from a Michigan constituent, who reported that his brother-in-law was discharged recently from his job in the Clark Equipment company, Buchanan, Mich., for "refusing to donate a dollar to the Roosevelt campaign fund."

Reinstated After Fine.

"He was reinstated," the letter said, "after paying a fine of $7 and the Roosevelt dollar."

Hoffman disclosed he has protested the abuse in letters to William L. Davis, chairman of the war labor board, and Sen. Ball [R., Minn.], a member of the senate committee investigating political campaign contributions.

"It is an outrage," he said, "when Republicans are forced to contribute, in order to hold their jobs, to a campaign fund distributed by Communists. It results, of course, from New Deal coddling of union racketeers and its unquestioned bid for Communist support.

"To fire a worker for being a Republican is a travesty on the democracy our boys are fighting for and political blackmail of the most despicable sort. What has the New Deal left of democracy, when its followers demand campaign dollars as the price of a worker's job?"

Charges Link to Browder.

Hoffman also charged the CIO is coöperating with the Communist political association, headed by Earl Browder, in an attempt to smear nationalist members of congress and the nationalist press in this country, who are fighting for the preservation of American sovereignty.

The congressman said he has been informed on excellent authority the CIO has distributed in a South Bend, Ind., plant a leaflet of the Browder organization, falsely assailing the nationalists as demanding a "negotiated peace" and calling them the "enemy within."

In this connection, the leaflet mentions the "Hearst, McCormick, Patterson axis" and "their counterparts in congress like the unspeakable Nyes and Wheelers"—an apparent reference to Sen. Nye [R., N. D.] and Sen. Wheeler [D. Mont.].

BUSBEY WARNS VETS

BY GEORGE TAGGE.

Republican success Nov. 7 is endangered by the devious operations of the CIO political action committee, Rep. Fred E. Busbey of the south side 3d district yesterday warned the Illinois Republican Ex-Service Men's league.

G. O. P. chances may be doomed by the expensive and intensive CIO propaganda drive unless it is unmasked and kept under a spotlight, said the congressman. A militant foe of communism, he said he is No. 1 on the purge list of the CIO political action committee [PAC].

"Work or get licked in this titanic political battle," he advised the war veterans.

Discloses Political Tricks.

Coupled with a smear blitz to wind up the CIO-PAC campaign is the earlier strategy of lulling the opposition into false security, Busbey said. This trick was worked successfully against Rep. Starnes [D., Ala.], another member of the Dies committee, he said, and is currently being used against Busbey here.

"The CIO committee was set up principally to get the fourth term," he said. "Four years ago, Roosevelt himself carried on the purge-smear campaign, aided by the Democratic organization. That function

Gain 28 Miles and Take Two Rail Centers

LONDON, July 10 (AP).—Surging westward all along the central front, soviet troops captured today two railway centers guarding the routes to Brest Litovsk and Bialystok in old Poland, Moscow announced tonight. In a 28 mile advance toward the Baltic sea, Moscow added, the Russians cut a highway to Kaunas, former capital of Lithuania.

The Russian drive was reported in British press dispatches to have reached within 60 miles of East Prussia. On most of the 350 mile front the Nazis were reported falling back in disorder.

The Swedish newspaper Morgon Tidningen reported that East Prussia had been declared a prime defense zone and that the Germans had ordered women and children to prepare for evacuation to southwest Germany.

Russian troops were said to be pouring thru the German lines on a 100 mile front around Wilno [Vilna].

Wilno Nazis Encircled.

Hand to hand fighting continued in the streets of Wilno, where the soviet bulletin said a large number of German troops were encircled in the center of the city.

The two railway centers captured on the routes to Brest Litovsk and Bialystok are Luniniec and Slonim. The highway that was cut is the one leading to Kaunas from Daugavpils [Dvinsk], southern Latvia.

Premier Stalin announced the capture of Luniniec [Luninets] and Slonim after the Germans had announced the evacuation of Luniniec, railway junction 30 miles east of Pinsk. The Nazis' position there had been made untenable by Russian thrusts thru the Pripyat marshes on both the north and the south. The Reds are reported to have pressed within 20 miles of Pinsk.

The Russian bulletin said soviet troops in the advance of 28 miles had captured Utena in Lithuania, placing them within 175 miles of the Baltic seaport of Memel, which Hitler seized in 1939.

Riga 120 Miles Ahead.

Riga, the Latvian capital and Baltic seaport, was less than 120 miles ahead of the Russians, whose spearhead at Utena might stab either in that direction or against Memel.

Almost 500 places were captured during the day.

Luniniec and Slonim were taken by the first White Russian army of Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky. Luniniec controls the crossing of the north-south railroad connecting Wilno and Rowne and the main east-west line between Brest Litovsk and Gomel.

River Push Takes Slonim.

Slonim was taken as Rokossovsky's troops fought their way across the Szczara river on a front of 37 miles. It is 85 miles east of Bialystok.

Eighty places were taken in the area of captured Lida, railway junction 90 miles west of Minsk, and to the north the soviet onslaught carried into more than 200 places around Wilno and more than 100 southwest of Daugavpils.

The Russian bulletin said 3,500 more prisoners had been rounded up east of Minsk. This haul included three more Nazi generals, bringing to 22 the number taken or killed on the Russian front since the soviet summer campaign opened June 23.

The Polish telegraph agency in London said the Polish underground army had gone into action on a large scale against German forces in the areas of Wilno and Nowogrodek.

GERMAN WAR REPORT.

The German broadcast war bulletin, as recorded yesterday by the Associated Press, said:

"Soviet attacks at Kowel, after an outstanding defensive success achieved by our troops, have lessened in intensity. West of Baranowicze, our divisions on the Szczara river and on both sides of the Slonim checked, after embittered fighting, the soviets pushing forward with strong infantry and tank forces.

"Defenders of Wilno held the city against numerous enemy attacks, supported by tanks, and inflicted heavy casualties. Northwest of Wilno the soviets were thrown back by German counter-attack.

"Heavy fighting is in progress along the road from Kaunas to Daugavpils at Utena. Our troops made a successful counter-attack.

"Northwest of Polotsk attempts to break thru made by several soviet rifle divisions were foiled by stiff resistance."

War Weapons Show Opens in Burnham Park

Brig. Gen. John F. Davis, acting commanding general of the 6th service command, cut the red, white, and blue ribbon across the entrance to the army's Weapons of War show in Burnham park last night, and opened the largest display of war materials ever assembled in the United States.

At noon today the show will be opened to the public. Show hours will be from noon to 11 p. m. daily until July 24. No admission charge is made. The showgrounds, in the parking lot south of Soldiers' field, may be reached by street car or bus.

Eight branches of the army have exhibits in the show, which is sponsored by the treasury department in the interest of the fifth war loan. Entering the main gate on 16th st., near Leif Eriksen dr., visitors will see, in turn, exhibits of the WAC, transportation corps, ordnance corps, quartermaster's corps, signal corps, corps of engineers, medical department, and chemical warfare service.

Transport Ship Is in Lagoon.

The transportation corps has a hospital car, troop kitchen car, and troop sleeper which visitors may walk thru. In the lagoon is a transport ship completed a few days ago in a Kewaunee, Wis., shipyard. The transportation corps will demonstrate the landing of supplies on a beachhead from this ship.

The transportation corps also has eight amphibious trucks, or "ducks," on the grounds. Rides in the lagoon will be given to war bond buyers.

In the ordnance exhibit are tanks, tank destroyers, and every type of field and anti-aircraft gun used by the United States army, in addition to many types captured from the Germans and Japanese. The German display runs from the Nazi version of the jeep to a 60 ton Tiger tank.

Sham Battle Conducted.

Infantry combat teams dressed in United States and German uniforms engage in a sham battle hourly at the show. Before a backdrop representing a German village is a miniature battlefield containing trenches, fox holes, and the debris of combat. Land mines, machine guns, and rifle fire give realism to the battle.

Among the other exhibits are United States uniforms designed for all climates by the quartermaster corps.

The engineers display some of their earth moving equipment, steel landing mats, and fire fighting equipment. The signal corps gives a picture of the communication systems used by the army and, in addition, comparable instruments used by the Germans and Japanese. German equipment is of excellent workmanship and shows similarity to American designs.

Demonstrate Chemical Warfare.

Demonstrations of chemical warfare are given in a tent exhibit. A mobile smoke generator shows how movements of troops are screened, and lecturers explain the use of the services' most versatile weapons, the 4.2 inch mortar.

Twelve hundred Chicagoans bought $500 war bonds last night to attend the preview, which also was seen by Gov. Green, military guests of the army, and officials of the treasury department.

GILLETTE, A FOE OF 4TH TERM, TO SKIP CONVENTION

Cherokee, Ia., July 10 (AP).—Sen. Gillette [D., Ia.] tonight said he was withdrawing as a delegate to the Democratic national convention in Chicago next week because "I couldn't conscientiously vote for the renomination of President Roosevelt."

Gillette, who opposed a third term for Mr. Roosevelt—and as a result also withdrew as a delegate to the 1940 convention—pointed out that the Iowa delegation was instructed to vote next week for the President's renomination.

The senator, veteran of 12 years in congress and opposed for reelection in November by Iowa's Republican Gov. B. B. Hickenlooper, said, however, that he would support Mr. Roosevelt after the latter's nomination but he said he didn't think the President would accept the nomination.

Curves Figure in Esquire Bid for Mail Right

Washington, D. C., July 10 [Special].—The beauteous Vargas girl, whose shapely legs and curvaceous form graced the pages of Esquire magazine, was arraigned in competition with similarly clad rivals today as a battery of New York attorneys fought for her honor in federal District court.

The attorneys asserted she had as much right as her rivals to travel thru the mails on second clash rates even tho she is a first class number. To support their point, they showed pictures of other magazine girls, more naughty than nice, who are not having any trouble with the mails.

The comparison of feminine morals in drawings featured the first court hearing on Esquire's petition for an injunction against an order of Postmaster General Walker revoking the magazine's second class mailing privileges, an edict held up by agreement to let the courts decide the matter.

Huge Mail Cost at Stake.

Walker ordered revocation of the privilege, which would boost the magazine's mail expense by an estimated $500,000 a year, on the ground that it fails to meet that rating's requirements of being published "for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, the arts, or some special industry."

Silver haired Judge T. Whitfield Davidson thumbed thru a comic book without comment while defense attorneys flipped thru confession magazines and waved in front of him such periodicals as "I Did It for Love," "I Married a Fiend," "Army and Navy Fun Parade," "Gags," "Hit," and "Hello, Buddies."

"This is the type of book we try to keep from our children, yet it goes thru the mail," Bruce Bromley, attorney for Esquire, said, as he waved a comic book in the air.

Charges Prejudice.

Terming some of the other magazines produced for comparison as "trashy," Bromley pointed out that they have second class mailing privileges. It was his claim that the postoffice department has shown prejudice against Esquire and that its order is illegal.

"To give the postmaster power to decide a publication is good or bad literature constitutes the very essence of censorship," Bromley declared. He described Walker's action against Esquire as "the most autocratic control that any public official ever assumed for himself."

Benedict Deinard, special government prosecutor in the case, said that if the order against Esquire is made to stand "no doubt many other periodicals also will get their mailing class privileges revoked."

2 DAY RAID ON ISLAND BLASTS JAP DEFENSES

Rota Also Bombed by Carrier Craft.

PACIFIC FLEET HDQ., Pearl Harbor, July 10 (AP).—With Saipan Island securely in American hands, the navy turned its attention to Guam and Rota Islands, Saipan's southern neighbors in the Marianas, and shelled and bombed Japanese positions there Saturday and Sunday.

A Pearl Harbor bulletin today announced that light cruisers and destroyers bombarded Guam Saturday while carrier planes attacked both Guam and Rota Sunday.

Anti-aircraft batteries, coastal guns, and airstrip defense positions were damaged.

Plane Lands in Sea.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz gave no indication whether he planned to seize other islands in the Marianas group or would be content to keep all except Saipan neutralized.

The damage to Guam and Rota was listed only in general terms. Rockets and bombs struck a number of military objectives on both islands. Anti-aircraft fire ranged from moderate to intense. One carrier plane made a water landing. A destroyer rescued the crew.

Liberators of the 7th army air force bombed Truk, in the Carolines, Saturday, and marine fighters and dive bombers attacked Jaluit, Malleolap, and Wotje in the Marshalls.

Mop Up on Saipan.

Two immediate tasks faced American forces on captured Saipan Island today—ferreting out enemy units lurking in caves and mountain strongholds and repairing and lengthening air fields for strikes at the heart of Japan.

Undoubtedly both tasks were well advanced. Two days had elapsed since Nipponese resistance collapsed in the toughest fighting of the Pacific war. With all forces free to turn to the cleanup, it was certain not an hour would be lost in getting Iseley and Marpi point air fields in shape. Heavy equipment for that purpose is at hand.

Ideal for Air Base.

Importance of Saipan as an air base for bombing of Japan and the Philippines was pointed out by Vice Adm. John M. Hoover, commander of the Central Pacific forward area. He said the island "offers the best possibilities for air field development" of any captured so far in the Central Pacific.

Saipan's main air strip, Iseley field, is by far the best we have taken, Hoover said. The island's 72 square miles provides space for wide dispersal.

U. S. ALONE CAN DEFEAT JAPAN, AUSSIE ASSERTS

BRISBANE, Australia, July 11 [Tuesday]—(AP).—One of Australia's leading newspaper publishers characterized the United States today as the "world's strongest naval and air power—strong enough to bring Japan to her knees without waiting for British help, and for a big army advance up the coast of China."

Keith Murdock, managing director of the Melbourne Herald, said upon his return from a tour of the United States, England, and India that his dominant impression was of the military might of the allies.

"However, defeat of Japan by American sea and air power alone is unlikely, even tho that power is almost sufficient for that task," he said. "Japan can still fight a long defensive war from her inner circle of bases and airdromes. The amazing thing about America is that she has armed her allies and herself in addition to providing her own people with an actual increase in civilian purchases."

Vatican Circles Expect No Visit by Orlemanski

VATICAN CITY, July 10 (AP).—Authoritative Vatican circles denied tonight that the Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, Springfield [Mass.] priest who recently conferred with Premier Stalin, was expected to visit here. The Vatican news service said the Vatican had had no part in the priest's visit to Moscow.

LONG AND HARD BATTLES AHEAD, GEN. IKE WARNS

ALLIED ADVANCE COMMAND POST, July 10 (AP).—Gen. Eisenhower, supreme commander of the western front invasion, warned today against too rosy optimism on the part of the allies, saying long and bitter fighting must be expected all around the European battle perimeter.

Eisenhower said the British and Canadian capture of Caen was tremendously gratifying and that the American attack down the western flank in Normandy was a part of the over-all plan and would continue, but that there was nothing spectacular in the present picture or in future prospects.

Fighting will be of the most strenuous character, and there will be heavy losses, he warned. The allies will have to fight hard for every foot of ground they gain from now on.

Cites Gestapo Control.

The general did not rule out the possibility of a crack in German morale somewhere along the line, but said in a country so completely dominated by Gestapo [secret police] methods it would be false for the allies to base hopes on any such expectation.

Comparing the present situation with the general pessimism when he came to England two years ago, Eisenhower enumerated the allied successes since then in Russia, Africa, Italy, France, and the Pacific, and said the people could not be blamed for allowing their optimism to soar. The task now, he said, is to tell the public not to get too optimistic.

Confers with Halifax.

Eisenhower had luncheon with Halifax, British ambassador to the United States, who then went on a tour of American military installations with members of the staff. Halifax, who has been in England for a week, said he had seen President Roosevelt before leaving Washington, D. C., but denied he was in England to arrange another Roosevelt-Churchill conference.

Gen. Eisenhower said that if President Roosevelt planned an early visit to the European war theater he had not been advised of it.

Rebels Seize Pres. Lopez of Colombia

BOGOTA, Colombia, July 10 (AP).—Vice President Dario Echandia announced tonight that he had assumed the acting presidency of Colombia because a rebellious group of army officers had seized President Alfonso Lopez and several cabinet members while they were witnessing army maneuvers at Pasto, in the southern part of the country.

President Alfonso Lopez.

Colonel Rebels' Leader.

Dario Echandia said the leader of the army group was Lt. Col. Diogenes Gil, who had proclaimed himself president. Dario Echandia called this "an act of individual madness," and asserted the majority of the army favored the established government, and had taken no part in the uprising.

He said he was declaring a state of emergency to prevent spread of the rebellion and that he would exercise the functions of president until the situation had been stabilized and Lopez was freed.

[A broadcast by the Colombian radio at Cartagena heard at San Jose, Costa Rica, said the Narino department, in which Pasto is located, had rebelled against the government but that loyal troops from other departments now were marching to Narino where Lopez presumably was held a prisoner.]

ELECTED IN 1934.

Lopez was first elected president in 1934, assuming office Aug. 7 of that year. Less than two months later a plot to overthrow him was discovered and put down at Pasto.

Last November he took a leave of absence to accompany his wife to the United States for an operation. Dario Echandia served as acting president during his absence.

YANKS PUSH ON ALONG 25 MILE NORMANDY LINE

British Win 4 Towns in Caen Sector.

BY JOHN THOMPSON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

U. S. 1ST ARMY HDQ. IN NORMANDY, July 10.—Against elements of 11 to 12 German divisions, Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's developing offensive drove slowly ahead today along the entire 25 mile front from the Vire river westward to the Atlantic coast west of La Haye du Puits. The Americans, fighting in fog, rain, and mud, gained up to six miles in 24 hours south of St. Jean de Daye and Carentan and knocked out a number of counter-attacking German tanks.

At the eastern end of the Normandy front the British 2d army captured four towns and gained better than 4,000 yards on a 3½ mile wide front southwest of Caen. They were within half a mile of the Orne river there.

By nightfall American forward troops at the western end of the line were about 3½ miles north of Lessay, the next important road center which the Germans may choose to defend on the high ground running in front of it in a northeasterly direction.

Fight to Pont-Hebert.

On the eastern end of their sector American tanks and infantry battered thru hedgerows along the heavily defended western Vire river bank. They captured the disputed village of Meautis [Murphy] and were fighting on the edge of Pont-Hebert, about 3½ miles from St. Lo on the main road to Carentan.

Thus our entire offensive was closing more directly upon the ruler straight main road from St. Lo thru Periers to Lessay. This has been the enemy's most important lateral road for communication between his flanks and he can be expected to fight bitterly to retain his hold.

To do it he has been trying desperately to bring up fresh reserves to bolster the divisions which have been shredded by American artillery and infantry attacks.

Repel Severe Counter-attacks.

The American advance south from La Haye came after the doughboys repelled the severe counter-attack of a crack panzer division. When that German effort failed, the enemy, it is thought, started falling back slowly to the next high ground north of Lessay. Our forward elements which kept pressing on reported much less resistance than before.

If the next row of hills is a German defensive position, the enemy will be protected by the swampy ground which lies just north of it and which we will have to cross to reach him.

That is the way we always have had to meet the Germans—the enemy on high ground looking down our throats. On his new line he also would have the advantage of artillery observation over the causeways crossing the open, marshy ground.

Fight Thru Underbrush.

While one Americain column was working its way toward Lessay, another to the east reached the west and southwest edges of the forest of Mont Castre. Other troops were fighting from tree to tree thru the thick underbrush in the central section of this forest.

Beyond other marshes east of the forest more Americans in the battle of the hedgerows found an element of the 17th SS [elite] division fighting hard on a 2,000 yard front between two marshes.

Our shells blasted the enemy out of his dugouts and then infantry came along to engage in close combat. By evening it had captured the village of Sainteny and its neighbor, Le Forges, continuing on toward Periers.

This hard won advance eliminated what had been known as the Carentan bulge. Formerly our lines curved in toward Carentan, a fact which allowed the enemy to drop a harassing fire near the town.

Now, altho still within range of the Nazis' bigger artillery, this narrowest neck of the link between the Cherbourg peninsula and mainland forces is more solidly held. The leading units have driven more than half way down the road from Carentan to Periers.

Across the next wide, marshy area another Yank force tangled headon with a German counter-attack using Mark IV. tanks. From the tangled fighting, which was impeded again by soggy ground and a steady drizzle the Americans took the village of Le Desert, two miles west of St. Jean de Daye.

Angling off southeast from there, north of the forest of Hommet, our eastern tank and infantry force made the day's greatest gain, pushing on six miles from St. Jean.

As evidence of the severity of the fighting from one end of the front to the other, only a few hundred prisoners were taken in the 24 hours ending at noon today. More and more full German units are being engaged and the Americans are finding it necessary to kill their enemies instead of taking them prisoner.

GAIN ON 3½ MILE FRONT

BY LARRY RUE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SUPREME HDQ., ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE [Tuesday], July 11 (AP).—British and Canadian troops, moving forward in a surprise blow south of captured Caen, yesterday gained up to 4,000 yards on a three and a half mile front and were within a half mile of the Orne river at several points.

Patrols reached the Orne, but had to withdraw as the Germans massed powerful opposition in a determined attempt to prevent a break in that natural defense line.

Progress was made on the whole sector. Eterville, a mile west of the Orne, and Maltot, a mile farther south, were captured, as were Baron and Tourmauville. Hill 112, northeast of Esquay, which has been bitterly fought over for days, was stormed to give the allies observation over the Orne valley up to Caen.

Smash Counter-Attacks.

Two German counter-attacks south of Maltot were smashed with heavy losses to the enemy infantry and a number of the 20 to 30 attacking tanks were destroyed. Other armored counter-attacks were broken up a dozen miles to the west, below Tilly.

Headquarters said that unspecified by-passed strong points were cleaned up during the day. One small, stubborn pocket remained at Louvigny, 1½ miles south of Caen on the west side of the Orne, and the Germans also were fighting hard to hold the woods east of Maltot.

The advance near the Orne south of Caen was viewed at headquarters last night as of "real and immediate significance," since it is expected to compel Field Marshal Rommel to fight or withdraw across the plain of Caen.

No Sign of Major Retreat.

It was emphasized, however, that the Germans were giving ground "by orderly withdrawal" and there was no indication of any major retreat. At the same time, headquarters said, there are no signs of any prepared position in the enemy rear as far as the River Seine, and it is believed they have made plans to turn every town into a strong point.

The capture of Eterville and Maltot constituted a direct threat to the Germans of Fauborg de Vaucelles, across the river from Caen. They also are threatened by the British salient across the Caen canal to the north.

Mopping up of snipers continued in Caen, which was put out of bounds for all troops except those on operational duty. Transport vehicles could not approach nearer than 500 yards of the river because of rubble choked streets.

Air Blockade Goes On.

Meanwhile the air blockade goes on despite the adverse weather. Eighteen trains were attacked Monday night, while bridges over the Seine, railways to the battle zone, and road convoys were bombed.

For two weeks no road convoy of more than three or four vehicles has been seen in daylight on the Alencon-Argentan road, one of the main supply routes to the Caen area.

Air reconnaissance pictures have shown what is taken to be evidence of activity by French partisans. They show many French freight cars blown up and railway lines cut in areas where there have been no signs of bombing.

Air Operations Limited.

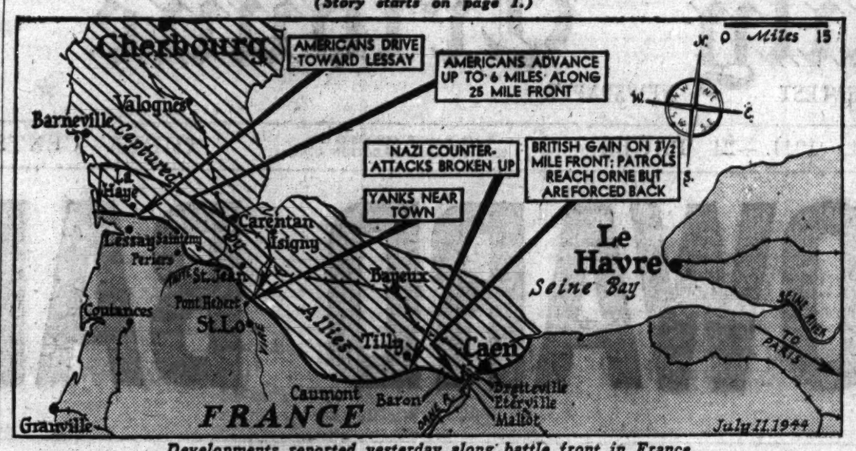

Adverse weather conditions forced the allied air force to limit operations. However, some German troops pushed into the woods southeast of Caen were smoked out by rocket firing Typhoons and bomb carrying Spitfires of the R. A. F. 2d tactical air force which set the woods afire and strafed the fleeing Nazis.

Nearly 150 Typhoons swept the battle zone on army support missions, making successful attacks on two tank concentrations and leaving a German gun site afire. Dive bombing Mustangs scored direct hits on troops transports and military buildings southwest of Caen.

American fighter bombers dive bombed German gun positions and strong points southeast and southwest of Lessay and east of St. Lo. At Laune, northeast of Lessay, they dropped anti-personnel bombs on an infantry strongpoint.

Yanks Smash Forward on 25 Mile Front; British Gain

OFFICIAL BULLETINS

SUPREME HDQ., ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, July 10 (AP).—The text of war bulletin No. 70 issued tonight said:

"In the Caen sector fighting was extended to the area south of the Odon river. From the Odon bridgehead our troops have advanced thru the villages of Eterville and Maltot. Enemy strong points which were bypassed in our advance yesterday are being systematically eliminated.

"Southwest of Carentan our troops advancing along the road toward Periers, have liberated the village of Sainteny.

"South of Tilly and south of La Haye du Puits strong German armored counter-attacks have been repulsed and a number of their tanks destroyed.

"Widespread attacks on the enemy transportation system were carried out last night by our light bombers. Seventeen trains and associated targets on the rail line leading to the battle front were damaged or set on fire.

"Our fighter bombers operated in the Lessay and St. Lo sectors this morning, attacking gun positions and strongpoints."

GERMAN WAR REPORT.

Monday's German war bulletin as broadcast by Berlin and recorded in New York by the Associated Press said:

"The big defensive battle in the Caen area reached the town itself yesterday [Sunday]. After embittered street and house fighting in which our troops inflicted the heaviest losses on the enemy, our adversary pushed back our lines toward the southern border of Caen. Enemy tank attacks at Grainville were foiled. Fighting is still in progress and at one point the enemy succeeded in achieving a dent on both sides of the Caumont-Caen road.

"Between Airel and Sainteny, the enemy gained only a little ground. South of La Haye du Puits, several enemy attacks were repulsed while west of the town enemy deployment positions were dispersed by concentrated artillery fire.

"Another 239 terrorists and saboteurs in the French area were wiped out after fighting.

"Off the Dutch and north French coast, patrol boats of the German navy on Saturday night sank two British motor torpedo boats, damaged four others, and scored numerous hits on others. One German vessel was lost. In the Gulf of St. Malo, patrol boats caused enemy destroyers to withdraw. One enemy destroyer was damaged.

"V-1 retallatory fire on London continued with short intervals."

ALLIED RAIDERS STRIKE IN NIGHT, BERLIN REPORTS

LONDON, July 11 Tuesday (AP).—R. A. F. night raiders struck Berlin early today, the Nazi radio reported. Other allied planes swept over southwestern Germany and the northwestern coast. First Berlin reports said only that "several nuisance raiders" were over the capital—usually meaning Mosquito bombers.

The German radio reported enemy planes over East Prussia for the third consecutive night, but did not say whether they were British or Russian planes.

The Paris radio said the northwestern sector of the former French capital was bombed yesterday morning, but there was no confirmation at supreme headquarters.

R. A. F. Lancasters attacked an unannounced target in northern France during the night.

Other lighter night bombers caught the Germans trying to bring reenforcements over the Seine by ferry and pontoon bridges just east of Le Havre and bombed and strafed over a 30 mile stretch from Quillebeuf to Duclair. Mosquito bombers maintained the pressure on the enemy's fuel supply by bombing a synthetic oil plant at Buer, in western Germany, north of Essen.

M. P.'S QUIZ WAR LEADERS TODAY ON ROBOT PERIL

BY LARRY RUE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 10.—Flying bombs continued to fall on London and southern England causing casualties and damage today but tonight, for the first time in 25 nights, the London area was not attacked. The attacks continued in southern England, however.

Members of parliament whose constituencies had suffered from flying bomb attacks were expected to assemble in the house of commons tomorrow for a private session with Home Secretary Herbert Morrison, Air Minister Archibald Sinclair, and Minister of Health Henry U. Willink. M. P.s said they wished to fire suggestions and criticisms at the ministers.

Bomb Hits Private School.

The robot bombs weren't so noisy today, but one tonight struck a famous private school, wrecking a wing which housed a rifle range armory.

South coast watchers said some bombs appeared to be coming on a more easterly course, suggesting that the Germans were launching the flying missiles farther east along the channel rather than from the Pas de Calais sector.

Meanwhile, Paddington station, which serves south and western England, reported its largest Monday morning crush of two way trafic this year. Trains crowded with child evacuees drew out of the station as other long distance trains arrived, packed with workers returning from their week-end holidays.

At King's Cross, crowds jammed the corridors of the north bound train long before it was due to depart. St. Pancras station, which also handles northbound traffic, was again the dispersal point for hundreds of school evacuation parties made up of children from 3 to 14 years old.

Needed on Farms.

Poor people not engaged in war work, whom Prime Minister Churchill had advised to leave the city, were being encouraged to join farm holiday camps to help gather crops.

"We hope," said a ministry of agriculture spokesman, "there will be a large response from town dwellers now going to live in the country. Up to June 26 we have only 33 per cent of the total requirement for the year."

Most of the four thousand persons, who slept last night in the first of the deep shelters opened to the public, today apparently approved the new arrangement tho many complained the shelter was too cold.

Return to Shelters.

From 7 till 9 last night and again tonight hundreds of families retired to the shelter carrying bedding and big, green entry passes. The shelter is equipped with telephones and wash basins. There are lunch counters and facilities for washing and drying bed clothing.

It was announced tonight that concerts in London's rest centers for flying bomb and other war victims had been found to have such a nerve quieting effect on audiences that more such entertainment was being planned by the board of education.

SING, CHEER AS GEN. DE GAULLE ARRIVES AT N. Y.

He Plans New Capital on French Soil.

New York, July 10 (AP). — Gen. Charles de Gaulle, head of the French committee, was acclaimed today by enthusiastic New York crowds after arriving from Washington, D. C., where he said he had "very broad and frank conversations with President Roosevelt," and announced he would move his capital from Algiers to liberated French territory as soon as possible.

Cheering men and women met the French leader and his party as he stepped from a plane at New York airport. Later, at city hall, where he was welcomed officially by Mayor La Guardia, he was greeted with thunderous applause followed by spontaneous singing of "The Marseillaise" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Cheered on 5th Avenue.

A crowd estimated by the police at 500,000 cheered him again as his party drove up 5th avenue following the placing of a wreath at the foot of the statue of Gen. Lafayette on Union square.

"New York is happy to receive you because you are a symbol of Free France today," Mayor La Guardia told De Gaulle. "From the beginning to this minute there has been no relenting on your part.

De Gaulle responded in English that this was "a great day in the magnificent history of Franco-American friendship."

Finds Better Understanding.

At a press conference held in Washington immediately before his departure for New York, De Gaulle said the principal object of his talks with the President—creation of a better understanding — had been achieved.

De Gaulle emphasized three points:

That he expects to transfer headquarters of the provisional French government to France "as soon as possible but the creation of a new capital is a very complicated matter and needs much preparation."

That France had no ambitions to acquire territories either in Europe or other parts of the world, but that the flag of the French army may well have to fly over certain territories [such as the Rhineland] as practical measures in the interest of international and of French security.

Hopes for Agreement.

That the atmosphere of friendliness and understanding achieved by himself and the President may lead to an agreement for the proper civil administration of French territories now being liberated—an agreement among the United States, Britain and the French national committee.

After a 24-hour stay in New York, De Gaulle and his party expect to go by plane to Montreal, Canada.

A reception for which the Free French group issued 2,000 invitations in Gen. De Gaulle's name, was held at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel tonight.

Cheers of "vive" greeted the general when he appeared at a Lewisohn stadium concert. Marian Anderson, Negro singer, sang The Marseillaise in his honor.

6 U. S. PLANES TAKE 10 MINUTES TO RAID GERMAN TANK COLUMN

NINTH AIR FORCE HDQ., France, July 10 (AP).—What may have been the fastest bombing mission ever executed—10 minutes from conception to landing—was carried out today by six Thunderbolts which dive-bombed a column of German tanks trying to sneak to the front. Pilots were briefed in the air by radio without ever cutting their speed.

The planes, each carrying a 1,000 pound bomb, had just taken off to blast another target when word was flashed to headquarters that other planes on patrol had spotted the tanks.

Tanks have a high priority on the bombing list, so while one officer was contacting by radio the flight leader of planes nearest the vicinity, another plotted the exact spot of the enemy and relayed the information to the pilots, each of whom was carrying a detailed, coded map of the area strapped to one knee. Three minutes later came a flash-back on the radio, "Mission accomplished."

WOMAN WRITES OF U. S. GOODS IN FIRE IN CANADA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 10.—W. B. Simpson of New Westminster, B. C., has received a letter from a daughter stating that she witnessed the burning of United States goods sent into Canada for use in constructing the Alaska military highway. Miss Simpson, who is employed at Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, wrote on June 27:

"I was out to a camp last night north of Whitehorse. I saw a place they call Salvage Post. It is a barracks between two and three city blocks long packed with winter clothes, overshoes, parkas, pure wool blankets, comforters, chairs, office desks, and almost everything you could imagine. They stacked them up, poured gasoline over them, set them on fire. Guards stood around with fixed bayonets so nobody could get anything."

United States supplies are said to have been brought into Canada under an agreement that the surplus would not be sold in the dominion but would be returned to the United States or destroyed.

CANADA VOLUNTEERS TO MEET OVERSEAS NEEDS FOR THIS YEAR

OTTAWA, Ont., July 10 [Special].—Canada will be able to meet all demands for reenforcements of her army overseas until the end of the year under her volunteer system, Col. James L. Ralston, minister of defense, told the house of commons today. If, however, it is necessary to send drafted men abroad he will send them, he said.

Since February, 1942, volunteer enlistment has averaged 6,500 a month and the numbers are being sustained, he said. He pointed out that the 73,000 home defense troops are engaged in coast defense all over the western hemisphere and in essential army work. There are 35,000 on operational duty, 13,000 on non-operational duty, 14,000 in training centers, 4,000 in depots and 7,000 doing civilian work.

Casualties in invasion operations have been considerable, but below estimates, Col. Ralston said.

SIX UNIDENTIFIED DEAD IN CIRCUS FIRE ARE BURIED

Hartford, Conn., July 10 (AP).—Officials of Hartford's public safety departments were examined today at the state fire marshal's inquiry into the cause of the circus fire last Thursday, which now has claimed 159 lives.

As the city buried six unidentified victims of the disaster, State Police Commissioner Edward J. Hickey heard sworn testimony for Fire Chief John C. King and other city officials.

He also questioned William Dunn, secretary and treasurer of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus corporation, concerning whether the circus carried public liability insurance. It has not been definitely established whether the circus is protected by this form of insurance.

Tomorrow Coroner Frank E. Healy will open a formal inquest on the tragedy in an effort to determine if there is criminal liability. The inquest, which is expected to continue for several weeks, will be closed to the public.

DEALERS EXPECT CIGARET SUPPLY TO STAY SHORT

Chicago tobacco distributors said yesterday that supplies of popular brands of cigarets will continue to be short because civilian demand is about 25 per cent higher than normal, while production has been cut as much as 40 per cent in one brand and 20 per cent in others. The dealers had worse news for cigar smokers, predicting that the stogie supply—termed the smallest in the history of the industry—has little chance of improving.

The production decline was attributed principally to labor shortages, with tobacco plants losing many workers to war industries. The distributors said that cigarets are being rationed to jobbers by the manufacturers, while retailers receive allotments based upon past sales. They advised cigaret smokers to help relieve the shortage by purchasing only one pack at a time and switching brands occasionally.

The one cheerful note in the tobacco situation is pipe tobacco. According to the dealers, there is enough for all needs despite a steady increase in pipe tobacco sales.

COUNTRY FACES RUBBER CRISIS, GOV. GREEN SAYS

The nation's tire shortage has reached such a critical point that the country faces a breakdown in national transportation unless increased rubber conservation measures are taken, Gov. Green said yesterday at a meeting of the Illinois war council in Hotel La Salle.

He urged automobile owners and commercial operators to stay within the 35 mile an hour war time speed limit to draw every usable mile out of tires.

"At the outbreak of the war, the American people responded readily to pleas for reduced highway speeds," said Gov. Green. "As news of victories reached the home front, however, there has been an increasing tendency on the part of the motoring public to drive at higher speeds than the war time limit, and at speeds unsafe with synthetic and overworn pre-war tires."

'TRANSPORT IN FRANCE' DELAYS PRISONER SWAP

IRUN, Spain, July 10 (AP).—The Germans have announced a second postponement of the arrival at this frontier of approximately 900 allied war prisoners and civilian exchanges "because of transport difficulties in France."

The Germans first said the group would arrive July 7. Spanish railway authorities assembled three trains to take them to Lisbon for the exchange of an equal number of Germans.

Then the Germans said the allied group, traveling under the protection of the International Red Cross, would not reach the Spanish frontier until today, and the second postponement followed.

2 FROM ILLINOIS NAMED TO BOARD ON PHILIPPINES

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—President Roosevelt today named three members of a Philippine rehabilitation commission to study post-war economic and financial problems of the Philippine Islands, promised their freedom as soon as possible after the war.

The three will serve with six other commissioners to be appointed by congress—three from the senate and three from the house.

Those appointed by Mr. Roosevelt are Lynn R. Edminster and Evett D. Hester, both of Illinois, and Wayne Coy, former Indianan, now assistant publisher of the Washington Post. Edminster has been vice chairman of the United States tariff commission.

FIRE DESTROYS 1,000 TONS OF SCRAP RUBBER

One thousand tons of scrap rubber burned last night when fire destroyed the two story factory of Louis Fishman & Co., scrap rubber dealer at 4415 La Salle st. Chief Fire Marshal Anthony J. Mullaney estimated the damage at $25,000. The scrap included about 200,000 motor vehicle tires.

More than 5,000 persons thronged to the fire scene. Spectators who crowded on the Rock Island railroad embankment at the rear of the factory slowed trains until police squads succeeded in clearing the tracks.

The fire was discovered after employes had quit for the day. It spread rapidly thru the factory, but firemen checked it before it reached a large stock pile of tires in a lot next door. Mullaney said he had not as yet determined the cause.

U. S. 'Duckbill Loaders' Raise Scottish Mine Issue

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 10.—The National Union of Scottish Coal Mine Workers' executive committee received a complaint today that Scottish miners using American machines known as "duckbill loaders" were receiving pay lower than miners in other British fields. The committee plans to have the issue raised in a debate on coal problems in the house of commons on Thursday.

YANKS TO TRAIN ON SAIPAN FOR JAPAN INVASION

Geography Much Like That of Nippon.

BY HAROLD SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SAIPAN ISLAND, Marianas, July 10.—Saipan's military value lies not only in its employment as an advanced base but also in its use for training our troops who will land on Jap main islands. Those who have visited the land of the rising sun say Saipan is geographically and sociologically a bit of old Japan.

Like the Jap islands, Saipan is of volcanic origin, with every available bit of soil under cultivation but with vast areas good for nothing but scenery—and defense. Lessons learned here about the enemy's terrain and how he protects it will be invaluable in the final phases of our conquest of the yellow men. Our legions yet to come to Saipan will be maneuvered repeatedly thru Saipan's craggy fastnesses until Japan itself will be familiar environment when they arrive in their fighting regalia.

The village fighting we expected on arrival here failed to materialize, mainly because the Jap buildings are flimsily built and collapse into flat rubble heaps under the hammering of our artillery, affording meager covering for the remaining enemy.

Houses Only Shacks.

The typical Jap house is fragile framework, one story high and sided with either stucco applied over bamboo lathing or thin unpainted boards. Corrugated metal roofs are universal for both commercial and residential structures.

The interior consists usually of one moderate sized room, a smaller dressing room, and a tiny kitchen. Partitions are bamboo matting plastered smooth with straw bound mud. Sliding panels separate the rooms and close off built-in shelves serving as beds.

Homes are plentifully supplied with windows. Each house, to the horror of our sanitary engineers, had an old fashioned toilet a few feet from the kitchen. Furniture is almost nonexistent, usually one dresser, a small eating table about 10 inches high, and an occasional taboret.

Floors are covered with straw matting and each kitchen has a rack for storage of Jap getas or sandals, which are removed on each entry. A few prints or pictures adorn the walls. Clothing is stored in straw hampers. Very few houses have ice boxes.

Have Electric Lights.

Cooking is done in a ramshackle shed to the rear in crude stone stoves, lacking flues and discharging fumes indiscriminately.

Each home has a single electric light on a long drop cord, but many houses are lighted with fish oil lamps. The complete interior furnishings of the average Saipan house could be duplicated in America for well under $50.

All the wells here are brackish. Drinking water comes from cisterns which catch roof water. Wash water is drawn from open wells about 12 feet deep, uninviting even to our dusty troops.

Inside the house the Japs are clean and tidy, but their back yards are strictly slumlike. Chickens, pigs, and goats run at large, roosting in coops directly under the windows. Front yards are well kept, mostly with flowering shrubs. The lots are handkerchief size, with every available inch occupied by the building's gardens and banana or papaya trees.

2 PRIVATES WITH BAZOOKA WRECK 3 GERMAN TANKS

WITH THE AMERICAN TROOPS IN NORMANDY, July 10 (AP).—Two paratroop privates who broke up an enemy attack by destroying three tanks at 30 yard range with bazooka guns stood with an assistant divisional commander today as all three received the distinguished service cross.

They were among seven members of the 82d air borne division upon whom Gen. Omar N. Bradley pinned the crosses. The bazooka team was 19 year old Pvt. Gordon Pryne, Van Nuys, Cal., and Pvt. Marcus Heim, Buffalo, N. Y.

Brig. Gen. James M. Gavin, Mount Carmel, Pa., deputy division commander, was cited for his heroic action in leading troops in a frontal attack on strong German positions. Lt. Col. Edward C. Krause, Neenah, Wis., assembled 100 parachutists and personally led a night attack on a German held town, routing the defenders.

ALLIES DROP 43 TONS OF BOMBS ON GUINEA FIELD

ALLIED HDQ., New Guinea, July 11 [Tuesday] (AP).—Liberator bombers from the South Pacific attacked airdromes in the vicinity of Sorong, on the northwestern tip of Dutch New Guinea, and also bombed Yap and Palau in the Carolines, headquarters announced today. The Liberators dropped 43 tons of bombs on Jefman airdrome at Sorong Sunday. There was no anti-aircraft fire and no interception.

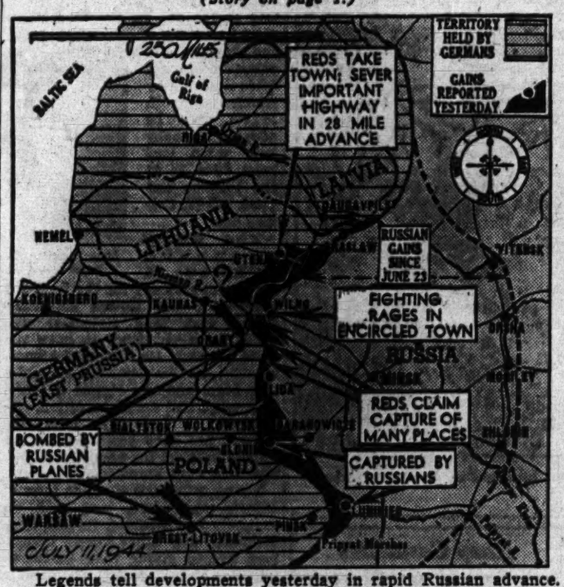

Six enemy planes bombed a fuel dump on Noemfoor Island in Geelvink bay. There were no American casualties.

Enemy casualties in the fight for airdromes in the Sarmi-Maffin bay area of Dutch New Guinea, 250 miles east of Noemfoor, were announced as 3,067. After six weeks of fighting, allied troops captured the Maffin bay airdrome June 30.

FIRST AIDER HAS NO GUN, BUT AN IDEA; 5 JAPS DIE

He Tricks Them and Squad Does Rest.

BY ARTHUR VEYSEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

AT A SOUTHWEST PACIFIC BASE, July 10.—Pvt. Dallas L. York of Omaha, Ill., is a first aid man, so while he goes on Dutch New Guinea patrols he goes unarmed. The Geneva fair war pact so demands it.

Aidman York was walking along a beach with a patrol squad. From the jungle came machine gun fire. The squad dropped. Everybody went into action except Aidman York. Nobody was hurt, so he didn't have any job. Besides, he didn't have a gun to help in their defense. He was sorely troubled.

He thought and thought. At last, he came up with a plan. He took the matter up with the corporal and after appropriate shouting won his case.

So, entirely within the Geneva pact, he waded into the surf. He made lots of noise—that isn't barred. The Japs concentrated on him. This left the rest of the squad free to sneak up on the Japs from inland. Five Japs were behind that machine gun, and they all died.

So everybody is happy. Even Geneva can't complain.

An Illinois lieutenant and two men creeping thru the jungle came across 13 Japs resting in a clearing. The trio held a conference. Should the three attack or should they send for help? A Jap heard them, so the trio didn't have to decide. They fired as fast and often as they could with one carbine and three Garands. All 13 Japs died. The lieutenant is very modest. "When you have to you have to," he said.

A patrol led by Lt. Thomas M. Keely Jr. of Washington, D. C., ran into trouble. One soldier was seriously hurt. As he slumped, his body caught on a vine. Unconscious, he hung there with the Japs using him for a target. Keely crawled thru the bush and with bullets hitting around him took the injured man's body from the vine and dragged him to safety.

The next day the patrol stopped by a pillbox. Ordering his men to cover him with rifle fire, Keely tried to creep upon the pillbox from the rear. Just when he was six feet away a Jap saw him and flipped a grenade. Keely died the next day.

Air force men look upon two Chicago doctors, Maj. John W. Guerin, 5132 W. 24th st., Cicero, and Capt. Isadore M. Isoe, as their saviors. Guerin commands an emergency hospital at advanced strips. The slights he and his fellow surgeons see are not pretty.

Lt. Jerome Kornfield, 5539 Drexel blvd., Chicago, who helps control air traffic here, finds Hollandia dull. The reason is that when he was en route to Australia last fall his ship was torpedoed and sunk. "That was getting into the war early," he said.

Of course, there is no refrigeration here. But trust the air force to find some. When they want a cold drink they decide their plane needs a high altitude test, load it with water and go up to 30,000 feet. The super subzero atmosphere is the best icemaker you ever saw.

REPORT ONE FRENCH DISTRICT PUT UNDER RULE OF NAZI ARMY

IRUN, Spain, July 10 (AP).—The German army has taken over the entire Landes department in southwestern France, where sabotage has kept Nazi communications south of Bordeaux in a tangle, it was learned here today.

The mayor of Dax and a number of Vichy officials both in Dax and Mont-de-Marsan, the capital of the department, were said to have been arrested by the Germans for helping the underground.

The Germans, according to Frenchmen who have crossed the Spanish frontier, recently decided that the only method of safeguarding rail and highway communications in southwestern France was to evacuate a considerable part of the 250,000 inhabitants in the Gascony departments.

CRESAP BEGINS VOTE WORK FOR YANKS IN AFRICA

ALGIERS, July 10 (AP).—Machinery whereby thousands of American troops in the North African theater will be able to vote in national and state elections was set in motion today.

Lt. Col. Mark W. Cresap of Winnetka, Ill., the area's soldier vote officer, said he would hold a two day meeting beginning July 12 with his assistants.

Cards will be sent to various divisional headquarters and from there will be passed to smaller units. The cards are expected to reach individual soldiers by the first week in August and on these, the troops may request ballots. The requests will be airmailed to various secretaries of state, South Carolina and New Mexico excluded, who will send ballots addressed to individual soldiers.

AXIS DIPLOMATS AT ROME MOVE INTO VATICAN

BY SEYMOUR KORMAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VATICAN CITY, July 10.—Much diplomatic shifting about took place today as enemies of the allies moved their quarters into the neutral Vatican.

The Japanese and German embassies accredited to the Holy See transferred their personnel and furnishings from Rome to the papal city. The Finnish legation came into the Vatican and the Yugoslav legation moved into Rome, each occupying the other's former quarters. The Romanian legation is expected to move to the Vatican soon and the Brazilian embassy will go from the Vatican into Rome.

Prince Bernhard of Holland had a private audience with Pope Pius XII. today.

The broadcast stated he was received by King George and conferred with Prime Minister Churchill and high military authorities.

COUNTER-BLOWS BY NAZIS CHECK ALLIES IN ITALY

ROME, July 10 (AP).—Desperate German counter-attacks and heavy use of artillery in forward positions almost called a halt to allied advances along the 150 mile fighting front in Italy.

The most important gain in the last 24 hours was by American troops who pushed to a point four miles north of the captured stronghold of Volterra, near the west coast, where they penetrated toward Arno river outposts of the Gothic line.

Blow Dealt to Nazi Plans.

The loss of Volterra was officially described as a blow to the Germans' hopes of holding the allies indefinitely on the approaches to the Arno river and the Gothic line. The allied bulletin put emphasis on the advance beyond Volterra, describing it as a "significant wedge." Volterra was the last of a series of advance strongholds against which Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's forces had been pounding for more than a week.

Fifth army headquarters also reported gains of unspecified distances along the Tyrrhenian coast, where American troops were within 10 miles of the port of Livorno [Leghorn], which was reported in flames from enemy demolitions.

Jap-Americans in Action.

Along a six mile stretch near the west coast American advance units found the Nazis had demolished 13 bridges. Spearheading the assault in this area is the 442d regimental combat team, composed of American soldiers of Japanese origin, which was officially credited with having performed brilliantly thruout the Italian campaign.

Eight miles inland, Yank forces moved slowly toward Pomaia, 14 miles southeast of Livorno, and farther to the east another doughboy column threatened the town of Laiatico.

Elsewhere along the front gains were extremely limited or nonexistent, with the 8th army making its only recorded progress in the upper Tiber valley eight miles north of Umbertide.

Positions in front of Arezzo remained unchanged.

[German forces defending Arezzo have been reënforced 500 per cent, the British radio said last night.]

There were no reports of gains in the Adriatic sector.

[Berlin's broadcast war bulletin said: "Our troops fighting along the western coastal road near Volterra, Poggibonsi, and Arezzo, and on the Adriatic coast, excelled again by special tenacity yesterday. The enemy, despite superior artillery and tank forces, as well as heavy artillery fire and incessant air attacks, failed to break thru at any point. Fighting still was in progress last night at some points where the enemy achieved local dents."]

NAZIS' POTATO CROP SMALLEST FOR 20 YEARS

[By Wireless to the New York Times and The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, July 10.—A broadcast at Berlin by Bauer Hecht, German "potato king," disclosed that the 1943-'44 potato harvest was the smallest in 20 years and 20,000,000 tons below the previous year's crop. Potatoes were placed on the German ration list two months ago. The country's pre-war production was 45 million tons a year but this was increased thru the victory years to 56 million. Germans' basic weekly ration, by ounces, now is bread, 85; meat, 9; sugar, 8, and fats, 7½. Two pints of skimmed milk also are granted, and children up to 14 and nursing and expectant mothers get some whole milk. Of the occupied lands, only Denmark is eating as well.

Medic Treats and Rescues Yanks Behind Nazi Guns

WITH THE U. S. 2D INFANTRY DIVISION, France, July 10 (AP).—Pvt. Delbert Cochran, Marionville, Pa., has done a big share of his work on the Normandy front inside the German lines. The 25 year old medic has made five trips behind enemy guns to treat and evacuate American wounded. He already holds the silver star and has been cited three times in the fighting in France.

ALLIED ATTACKS DOOMING NAZIS, SURVEY REPORTS

End This Year or Next Indicated.

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—Germany's war economy has so deteriorated under combined allied attacks that she faces "substantial certainty of defeat in 1945 if not in 1944," the foreign economic administration asserted today in making public an analysis of enemy war economy.

Prepared by William T. Stone, director of FEA's special areas branch, the report says the Germans will be in a nearly hopeless position by the end of this year with prospective expenditure of war material exceeding their rate of production.

Full scale allied bomber offensives, ground attacks, and blockade actions have shorn the Nazis of war material to the extent that they now have, in use and in reserve, only the equivalent of less than one year's production, the report asserted.

Bombings Analyzed.

The analysis credits the ever-increasing allied bomber offensive with preventing a steep rise in German war production during 1943. The enemy did succeed in effecting a "moderate" increase, the report said, but except for the allied aerial attacks the boost would have been nearly 25 per cent over 1942.

Germans gains in 1943 aircraft production now have been "more than canceled," it was added.

Thanks should go chiefly to Russia, the report says, for forcing the Germans to consume finished war supplies almost equaling total German production for the three years during which the two nations have been at war.

On Hand-to-Mouth Basis.

German raw material supplies for war are on "a bare hand-to-mouth basis," the report said, making the allies' blockade policy a strategic weapon promising immediate and substantial effects. The report cites deprival of Germany of chrome from Turkey, tungsten from Spain and Portugal, and recapture of manganese mines in Russia and says the Russian drive on Finland is now threatening German sources of nickel, cobalt, and molybdenum.

Until now, the analysis said, Nazi production has maintained the equipment and supply of Germany's armed forces at a level at least equal to that of 1941, but "it will in all probability wholly fail to maintain that position from now on."

Despite allied inroads, Germany's war machine in absolute terms today is as formidable as ever, the analysis said, because German strength has only been held down—not yet cut down or beaten. Until this year, however, Germany has fought always with margins for greater exertions if necessary. Today all margins are gone.

Hear Patriots Burn Plant Making Boxcars for Nazis

IRUN, Spain, July 10 (AP).—French partisan forces operating on Isle d'Adam, in the Paris area, burned a plant manufacturing box cars for the Germans, a dispatch to the Bordeaux Petite Gironde said today. The partisans escaped.

RADIO OPERATOR, AFRICA VETERAN, ENDS HIS LIFE

William Harriman, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royden Harriman, 7534 Cornell av., fatally shot himself yesterday with an army service revolver in the bedroom of his home. Grand Crossing police, who rushed Harriman to the Jackson Park hospital, said he was dead on arrival. Harriman was a veteran radio operator and had served with the army transport command in Africa before he received a medical discharge last December for a mastoid condition. His father said his son had been a patient at Hines hospital and had been consulting a psychiatrist.

CHINESE LAUNCH DRIVE TO RETAKE RAILWAY TOWNS

Attack Northern Flank of Jap Advance.

CHUNGKING, China, July 10 (AP).—Chinese forces have launched a big offensive in southern Hupeh province, and on the Yunnan front have fought to the walls of the big Japanese base of Tengchung, which blocks the way to a junction with allied forces in Burma, the Chinese high command announced today.

The Hupeh offensive was aimed at the upper part of the Japanese leg thrust southward from the Yangtze and Tungting lake and along the Canton-Hankow railway thru Changsha to Hengyang, where their drive stalled in a grandiose scheme to split China in half.

The objective of the Yunnan drive is to erase the enemy core of resistance at Tengchung and facilitate a union with Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's forces fighting in Myitkyina, in northern Burma, 95 miles to the northwest. Advance elements of these last two forces were reported only 26 miles apart.

Fight in Surburbs.

Sanguinary fighting was in progress in the suburbs of Hengyang, and south of Liling, 75 miles northeast. The Chinese, driving against the left flank of the enemy, killed several hundred Japanese.

American planes of the 14th air force, flying in support of the fighting in this area, bombed Japanese headquarters south of Liling.

Other bombers struck at Canton and Yochow, main enemy bases in the south and north from which the Japanese are trying to push forward along the railway to join forces at Hengyang.

A bulletin said the Chinese drove back the right wing of the Japanese column trying to advance north from Canton, but admitted the loss of Tsingyun, 40 miles northwest of Canton, to another force moving northwestward.

Fight for Burma Road.

Hengyang was a scene of confusion, with Chinese attacking from nearly all sides a Japanese force which was resisting fiercely on three sides of the city and which was attacking in turn a core of Chinese resistance inside the city.

The Japanese ring, once completely around the city, had been broken by Chinese relief columns which reached the city from the south and lifted a 12 day siege.

Fighting continued for positions commanding the Burma road west of the Salween river, while other Chinese forces were reorganizing for an assault on the Yunnan base of Lungling. The Chinese captured the town a few weeks ago but had to withdraw.

Clear Japs in India.

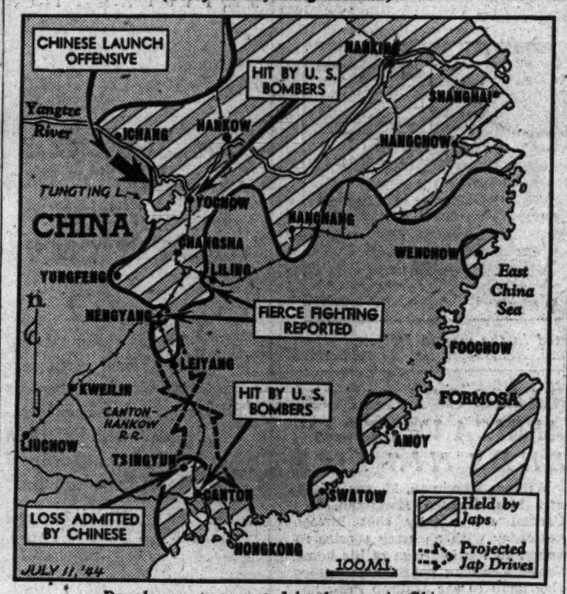

SOUTHEAST ASIA HDQ., Kandy, Ceylon, July 10 (AP).—All organized Japanese resistance has ceased in Ukhrul, advance enemy base inside the border of northeastern India, Adm. Mountbatten's headquarters announced today.

Villages cleared of the Japanese included Chepu, Sagabung, and Thawai as enemy opposition "crumbled with the isolation, dispersion, and destruction of rearguards left to cover the withdrawal of his 31st and 15th divisions," the bulletin said.

An indication that Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's American and Chinese forces had virtually completed the conquest of Myitkyina in North Burma was found in the statement that two Japanese fighters "attempting to strafe the Myitkyina area" were destroyed. Chinese made minor gains and straightened their line, killing 90 Japanese.

ASSERTS HITLER PLANNED IN '40 TO INVADE U. S.

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—Hitler in 1940 already had prepared detailed plans for invasion of the United States, "after he brought England to her knees," J. Carlton Ward Jr., president of the Fairchild Engine and Aircraft corporation, told a senate military subcommittee on war contracts today.

J. Carlton Ward.

Ward testified he was shown the plan "by diplomatic sources" while in Paris before France fell, that he reported to this government and found the state department already had complete information on Hitler's plan.

The manufacturer was head of a mission in France at the time advising on aircraft production.

A Blow Thru Mexico.

"Hitler planned to attack the United States thru Mexico with tanks and other armored equipment that we did not have," Ward testified.

The plan, he told newspapermen later, was to make a feint thru Newfoundland, and then invade thru Mexico. He said Hitler "had a complete plan for economic domination of the world."

Chairman Murray (D., Mont.) of the military subcommittee called Ward's testimony "startling."

Ward voiced a plan for military preparedness in the post-war era, saying "the only way to maintain peace is to have the force to maintain it."

The manufacturer recalled that in 1939 Gen. Arnold asked Congress for 5,500 planes but money was appropriated for only 375 military planes.

Post-War Aviation Plan.

Ward appeared as a representative of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce, outlining a program for reconversion and vast expansion of civilian and commercial flying, along with maintenance of a formidable military air force after the war.

E. E. Wilson, chamber president, said that "continued supremacy in the air will bring progress, prosperity and security in peace after it has helped win victory in the war. It will be the cheapest possible insurance against recurring wars."

Others appearing before the committee were Harry Woodhead, president of Consolidated-Vultee aircraft corporation and Joseph T. Geuting Jr., vice-president of General Air Craft corporation.

O, look! We're going to have lobster for dinner. Herbert caught a nice big one.

UNWED MOTHER ASKS COURT TO VOID ADOPTION

Miss Angeline Kolodziej, 19, of 1453 Huron st., an unwed mother, petitioned the County court yesterday to set aside a decree by which a Detroit, Mich., couple adopted her baby boy, who was born June 15 at the Peoples hospital, 255 W. Cermak rd.

Miss Angeline Kolodziej.

The petition prepared by Arthur K. Young, an attorney for the legal aid bureau of the United Charities, stated that Miss Kolodziej was urged by a physician to have the child adopted. He "thrust" a document at her the day after the child was born, and she signed it while in a weak and dazed condition, she charged. A few days later she learned her baby had been let out by the hospital for adoption to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wauldron of Detroit.

Young called the adoption laws of Illinois antiquated, and said no illegality was involved. He said Miss Kolodziej saw other young unmarried women giving their babies in adoption at the hospital. Dr. Samuel G. Seinfeld, who has an office at 561 Diversey blvd., said he gave Miss Kolodziej pre-natal and post-natal care, altho he did not deliver the child. He said she asked him to have the baby adopted.

CHINA REFUGEES CARRY BUNDLES OF MONEY ALONG

CHUNGKING, China, July 10 (AP).—Coolies with bamboo poles slung over their shoulders are carrying away heavy bundles of low denomination banknotes for some refugees fleeing war threatened zones in China, reports from Kweilin said today.

The banks, still operating but anxious to be rid of small value notes that would pose a problem if they had to move, are giving them to persons withdrawing deposits, and coolies haul them off.

Refugees still are flocking thru Kweilin, capital of Kwangsi province, and many shops in threatened zones have closed after selling goods at give-away prices.

SEDITION TRIAL DEFENDANT IS FREED ON BOND

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—Edward James Smythe, a defendant at the mass sedition trial in District court, was released from jail today after Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher agreed to reduce his bond from $10,000 to $1,000.

Smythe had been held since April 19, when he was brought here from upper New York state by FBI agents after failing to report for the opening of the sedition trial two days earlier.

Court attachés said that Smythe, accompanied by deputy marshals and his attorney, M. Edward Buckley, was permitted to make a weekend trip to New York City to obtain evidence to be used in his defense.

BRITISH TORIES ORGANIZE YOUTH GROUP IN PARTY

Act to Halt Voters' Swing to Left.

BY LARRY RUE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 10.—British Conservatives have decided to set up a new party youth organization superseding the Junior Imperial league which suspended political activity at the outbreak of the war, it was announced tonight.

The movement is to be limited to Conservatives between 15 and 30 years of age. It will have its own national executive committee and organizations in every constituency.

Conservative Vote Shrinks.

The formation of a youth movement indicates the anxiety among the Conservatives, over the swing to the left in public opinion, manifest in the by-elections of the last two years. Apart from the loss of such strongholds as West Derbyshire and Rugby, the Conservatives are seriously concerned with the fact that even in constituencies where seats have been retained their vote has shrunk sharply. This has occurred despite the fact that all three parties forming the coalition government support the official candidate.

The most recent example of the vanishing majority vote arose in Rusholme Saturday. In 1935 the Conservative candidate had won by 10,420 votes over his Laborite opponent. This time the majority of Conservative Maj. F. W. Cundiff was only 1,076 over Harold W. Blomerly, the Commonwealth party candidate. The Commonwealth program is largely Communistic. Its leader, Richard Acland, recently gave expression to his political views by turning over his valuable country estate to the nation.

Begin Enrollment.

To date the Commonwealth party has challenged only Conservative seats and it is interesting to note that contests from which Liberal opposition is absent are mainly responsible for the Conservatives' by-election headaches.

An immediate start will be made, the Conservatives disclosed in enrolling members for the new youth organization, but the chairman and other members of the executive board will not be chosen until the inaugural conference is held. Young Conservatives were promised a voice in the selection of parliamentary candidates and the running of the party and that they will be represented at all Conservative conferences.

The youth movement also will have all the other rights and privileges of present party organizations and will enjoy a wide measure of independence both at headquarters and regionally.

To attract recruits, the new organization will have a social as well as a political side. In addition to a lending library, lecture and discussion groups, conferences, speaking competitions, week-end schools and camps, and a national journal published from headquarters, there will be organized sports and other recreational activities.

PICKET LIQUOR STORE WHOSE CO-OWNER IS ILL IN army HOSPITAL

Lt. George Barnes of the police labor detail yesterday was investigating a dispute which threw a picket line around a liquor store at 950½ W. 79th st. and prevented deliveries to the store.

The store is owned jointly by Abe Retskoff of 1150 W. 80th st., and his son-in-law, Rollie Bernhart, 1142 W. 78th st., who is in the post hospital at Camp Barkeley, Tex., following an operation. He has been in the army for three months. Retskoff runs the store himself, he said, with the aid of two friends who relieve him for dinner on alternate nights.

John Hayes, business agent for the Liquor Workers' union, local No. 3, 216 S. Ashland av., said there is no union man in the store which he claimed employed two clerks.

ARMY TO OCCUPY 3 BIG HOTELS AT SANTA BARBARA

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10 [Special].—Santa Barbara's trio of exclusive hotels—the Biltmore, Mar Monte and Miramar—will be taken over by the army next Saturday under condemnation proceedings filed in federal court here today by the war department.

The hotels will be utilized as redistribution stations and for other military purposes. The leases will run for one year, with the privilege of renewal.

Permanent and temporary guests will be required to move by noon next Saturday. The hotels reported they have been booked solid thru October.

WALLACE TELLS F. D. R. CHINESE STATUS IS GRAVE

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—The political future of Vice President Wallace remained as much of an enigma as ever tonight after he conferred with President Roosevelt for two hours.

Wallace, just back from a trip to China, told reporters that the conference dealt solely with that country.

"Can we take it from that that you mean the 1944 political situation was not mentioned?" a reporter asked.

"That is right," the Vice President replied.

He asserted the military situation in China is "very grave," and added, "I think there is nothing else to be said."

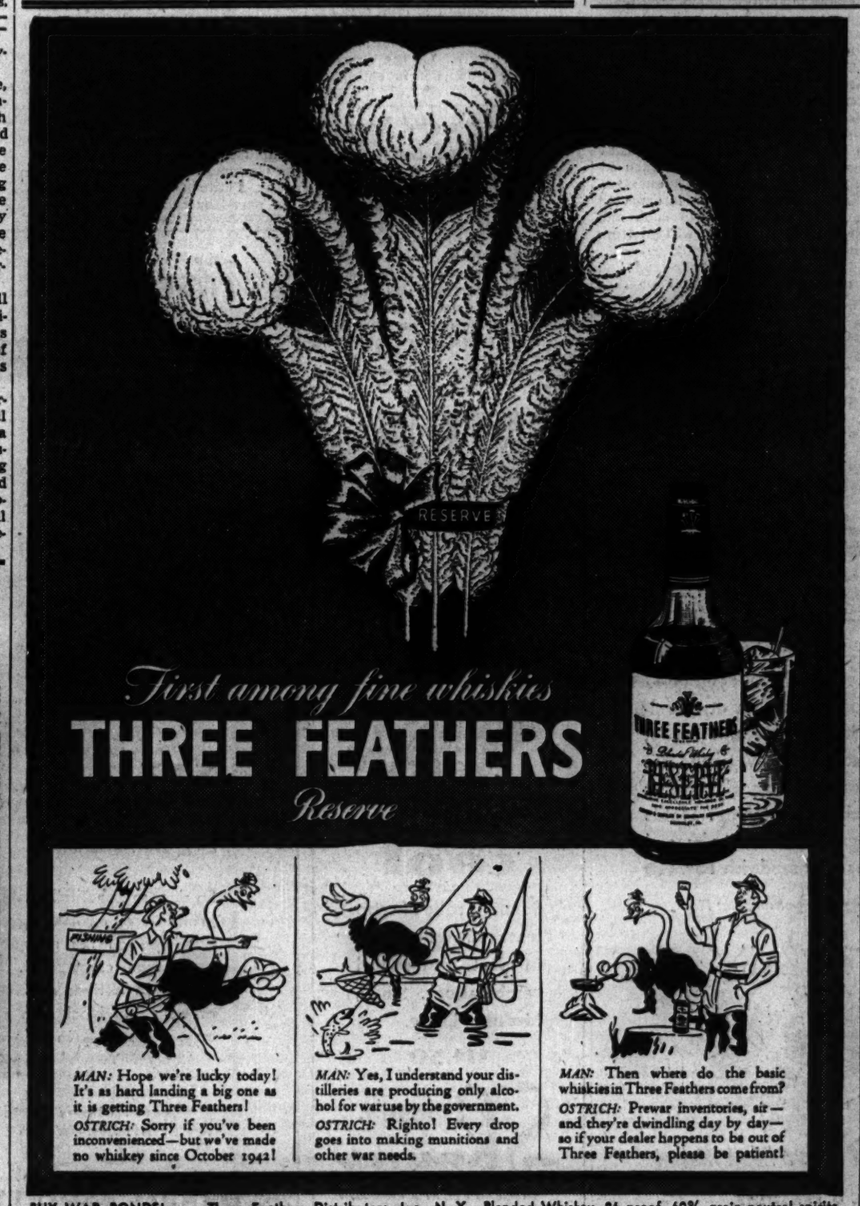

During the day word had spread in Democratic circles that Mr. Roosevelt might let Wallace stand or fall on his own record, and leave entirely to the Democratic national convention next week the question whether he should be renominated for the Vice Presidency.

Chilean Red Paper Sees Argentine War Threat

SANTIAGO, Chile, July 10 (AP).—The Communist paper Siglo expressed alarm today at Sunday's Argentine military parade in Buenos Aires, saying the new Alpine troops who participated had been organized "precisely to attack Chile," which has a mountainous frontier with Argentina. The paper said the parade "publicly threatens Chile," and demanded that the Chilean government sever relations with Argentina.

STATE HINTS NO DEATH PENALTY IN QUIRK KILLING

Three Go on Trial; Jury Being Selected.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

Questioning of men and women called yesterday as jurors in the trial of three men accused of participating in the gambling war murder last Sept. 18 of Martin [Sonny Boy] Quirk indicated that the state will not ask the death penalty for the three. The men on trial are James Fawcett, Robert Bock, and Ray Deskovitz.

When the death penalty is to be demanded, the prosecutors usually ask the prospective jurors if they have any conscientious scruples against it. Those with scruples are Francis McCurrie asked only a few excused for cause. Asst. State's Atty. questions; then he tentatively accepted the first four members of the venire.

Separate Trial Asked.

At the opening of the trial, Asst. State's Attys. Alex Napoli and McCurrie told Judge Harold G. Ward they wished a separate trial for Jerry De Jonckheere, one of the men indicted for the Quirk murder. Defense Attorneys James Burke and George Crane objected; they said the state should be required to put in writing its reasons for wanting to try this defendant alone.

Judge Ward denied the motion when the prosecutors refused to explain. The state dismissed the indictment as to De Jonckheere but arranged to have him rearrested on a charge of being an accessory after the fact to murder, an offense punishable by imprisonment of from one to two years.

Jury Selection Begins.

Then the selection of a jury began.

Atty. Burke questioned the men and women on their views as to the "presumption of innocence," asked them how they would regard the testimony of an accomplice, and what they thought of an alibi defense. It was presumed Fawcett would offer an alibi.

At the conclusion of the court session, 13 veniremen had been presented. Seven were excused by the state and three by the defense. The only ones excused for cause were three of the seven rejected by the state. The first panel is expected to be selected today.

Judge Ward presided at the trial last January of three other men indicted in the Quirk murder. The three—John J. Williams, gambling house keeper, Anthony De Lordo, and John Enright—were found not guilty. At their trial James Egan, an employe of Williams, testified that at his signal Fawcett and De Lordo fired at Quirk. He charged De Jonckheere disposed of the guns used in the murder.

5 FROM CHICAGO AMONG 11 HURT IN TRAIN ACCIDENT

Salem, Ill., July 10 [Special].—Eleven persons, including five from Chicago, were injured this afternoon when the Illinois Central railroad's Chicago to New Orleans train, the Creole, was derailed at Odin, five miles west of here.

Six cars in the 14 car train were derailed and one of the coaches was turned on its side. Ambulances were summoned to the scene from Centralia, Salem, Flora, Effingham, Farina, and Edgewood.

Most seriously hurt were the train flagman, A. P. Lilly, 8214 Drexel av., Chicago, who incurred a fractured skull and internal injuries, and the colored porter, Henry Robertson, 3744 Indiana av., Chicago.

With them in the Salem hospital were Pvt. Elbert Fluckiger, Chicago and Pvt. Fred Sherman, Tulsa, Okla. Taken to the Central hospital were Pvt. John Waterloo, Camp McCain, Miss.; a sailor, Clarence La Plount, Waterloo, Ia.; William De Mars, St. Paul Minn., and Augustus Sanford and Mrs. Muriel Humphrey, both colored and of Chicago.

$75,000 DEMANDED FOR WIDOW IN DRAM SHOP SUIT

Suit for $75,000 was filed in Superior court under the Illinois dram shop act yesterday in behalf of Mrs. Mary King MacNamara, whose husband, Percy, 53, died Sept. 11, 1943, after he was said to have been struck by an intoxicated sailor on the sidewalk outside the Corner House restaurant, at 100 E. Ohio st.

The suit, filed by the law firm of Kirkland, Fleming, Green, Martin and Ellis, named the Alliance Life Insurance company and Gust, George, and Irene Drake as defendants. The insurance company owns a building at 11 E. Ohio st., where the sailor allegedly had been served drinks, and the Drakes are owners of the Corner House, where he also reportedly bought drinks.

MacNamara, who lived at 211 E. Delaware pl., was the owner and manager of a correspondence business school. His death was attributed to shock. Police were told that he had been given a beating by the sailor.

V. F. W. CHARGES ILL TREATMENT OF FIGHTING MEN

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—The Veterans of Foreign Wars said tonight it had relayed to the war and navy departments complaints that men returning from combat duty overseas are being "discriminated against" in the matter of furloughs, liberty, and physical examinations.

Omar B. Ketchum.

Omar B. Ketchum, national legislative representative of the VFW, released correspondence indicating that Navy Secretary Forrestal had ordered an investigation of one specific complaint involving approximately 200 enlisted personnel at Camp Parks, Livermore Valley, Cal.

"Complain Bitterly."

These men, Ketchum wrote Forrestal, have seen service in the Aleutian Islands and in the southwest Pacific and "are complaining bitterly of the treatment being accorded them."

"The charge is made," he wrote, "that these men are being immediately shipped out for overseas duty, without the benefit of physical examination and many of them are in bad physical and mental condition. It is further charged that these men have been practically confined to this camp since their return from foreign service, and their liberty has been limited to short passes, rather than extended furloughs."

Given Undesirable Jobs.

In an earlier letter, dated May 8 and addressed to both Forrestal and Secretary of War Stimson, Ketchum said the VFW had received complaints from widely separated parts of the country that men returning for recuperation from battle fatigue are "placed on undesirable details of every description while men who have had no overseas service are excused.

"Some, returning from overseas duty wounded and ill," he said, "claim that they are not given proper physical examinations, that they are placed in combat training when they are physically unable to stand it."

Forrestal invited specific instances, declaring he would be "pleased to undertake a thoro inquiry."

Stimson replied that "mistakes and abuses of the nature you mentioned are inevitable in an organization as large as the army," but he said the war department was preparing a "very comprehensive plan" for improving conditions.

14 BIDS TURNED IN FOR BUILDINGS AT FILTER PLANT

Public Works Commissioner Hewitt yesterday opened 14 bids received from contractors for the construction of the filtration and administration buildings of the city's $23,000,000 filtration plant at 79th st. and the lake.

Because of the complications arising from the arrangements made for using substitute materials in many phases of the work, the city engineering staff will have to tabulate each bid by sections. It may be several days before the lowest bidder is known, Hewitt said.

W. W. De Berard, city engineer, has estimated the cost of the construction at $1,500,000. Priorities for the necessary materials were approved last week by the war production board. The plant is expected to be two-thirds completed by fall, removing 70 per cent of impurities from the south side water supply by coagulation and sedimentation processes.

NAVY OPENS CITY OFFICE TO HELP VETS FIND JOBS

Lt. Comdr. Brick Is Put in Charge.

A nation-wide program to help discharged veterans adjust themselves to civilian life was announced yesterday by the navy. Rear Adm. A. S. Carpender, commandant, said that a 9th naval district civil readjustment office has been established at 844 Rush st. and will be headed by Lt. Comdr. Carl R. Brick.

The primary function of the readjustment service will be to give counsel, assistance, and information to discharged service men and women which will help them to rehabilitate themselves and select occupational pursuits.

Problems Small Now.

Altho the readjustment problem is relatively small today, Comdr. Brick said, it is necessary that the machinery be established before the load becomes heavy.

"Exit" interviews will be given by the offices to every individual discharged from the service. No attempt will be made to influence veterans in choosing their future course, Comdr. Brick explained.

The service will answer questions about pensions, rights, education, rehabilitation, and hospitalization and advise veterans on how to obtain assistance from the veteran's administration, Red Cross, United States employment service, and other agencies.

Some Fitted for Better Jobs.

Comdr. Brick pointed out that specialized training in the service will have fitted some veterans for better positions than they had before the war. In other cases, individuals may have to turn to new means of livelihood because of injuries suffered in the service. Civil readjustment officers are being designated to deal with such cases. They will be under supervision of the district civil office.

FIRM IS DENIED 'FREE SPEECH' IN UNION ELECTION

Washington, D. C., July 10 [Special].—The 7th Circuit Court of Appeals has rejected the plea of "free speech" offered by the Reliance Manufacturing company of Huntington, W. V., in extenuation of its acts in a case involving the International Ladies Garment Workers union. The court ruled the company guilty of contempt of a decree holding it in violation of the national labor relations act.

A copy of the ruling, received today by the NLRB, said the company had no right to publish newspaper advertisments on the eve of and on the day of an employes' election urging the employes to "rely on Reliance."

The court said similar wording appeared on signs worn by 28 of the 80 foremen and forewomen in the plant, and that in two cases the signs bore the additional words, "vote no."

The advertisments and the action of the supervisors, led the court to hold there was unjustifiable interference with the right of the employes to vote for a union of their own choice.

Company Reports B-29 Strikers Back at Work

All the 23 second shift machine repair men who went on strike at the Dodge Chicago plant of the Chrysler corporation last Friday have returned to work, the company announced yesterday. Engines for the B-29 Super Fortress bombers are manufactured at the plant. The strikers, members of the CIO United Automobile Workers' union, walked out because a man from the first shift had been made foreman of the second shift. Sixteen returned to work the next day and the rest yesterday.

[ADVERTISMENT]

STUBBORN CASE OF CONSTIPATION GONE

"No more salts, oils, every day," writes ex-sufferer

Want to stop dosing—and yet keep regular? Then read this unsolicited letter from Mr. Lowe.

"I am 71 years old. Today I'm in the best of health. But, for 15 years I had a stubborn case of constipation—had to rely on salts or castor oil every day. Got so weak I could hardly walk. Five months ago I read one of your ads and my wife advised me to try your ALL-BRAN. After first week my passage was normal. For 5 months I have been eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly and haven't taken a laxative. Thanks for ALL-BRAN'S grand relief." Frank Lowe, 4303 S. W. 9th St., Des Moines, Iowa.

You'll be interested in knowing exactly how KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN helps so many people—how this wholesome cereal gets at a common cause of constipation—lack of certain dietary cellulosic elements. You see ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of these elements—which help the friendly colonic flora to fluff up and prepare wastes for easy elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative, it is a "regulating" food.

If your constipation is this kind, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly—and drink plenty of water. See if it doesn't help. Insist on genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

SAILORS LEARN TO FIGHT FIRES AT GREAT LAKES

Training to fight fire, one of the most terrifying experiences encountered by sailors in the cramped spaces aboard ships in action, now is being given to every apprentice seaman who passes thru the Great Lakes naval training center.

Designed to provide conditions under which men at sea may have to battle oil and gasoline flames, the fire fighting school, located in the northwest corner of the Great Lakes reservation, gives a varied experience to 720 men every day.

Simulate All Conditions.

Within the area are four brick and steel buildings which simulate the deck structures of aircraft carriers, six open oil tanks 15 feet in diameter and six small buildings in which 48-jet gasoline sprays are burned under 50 pounds pressure.

Heavy fuel oil is burned in the simulated deck structures into which low grade gasoline is poured to start the oil. When the pools of oil are in full flame 10-man crews on the ground and atop the structures fight the flame with fog nozzles attached to long pipes. The seamen learn from experienced fire fighters how to blanket the flames and at the same time avoid inhaling smoke and gas from the burning oil.

Burning oil in the circular tanks provides the same training, except that it gives trainees a better chance to observe effects of the fog spray.

Fires fed from the gasoline jets teach what may be encountered aboard an aircraft carrier if a fuel line from the supply tanks to the flight deck is ruptured and set afire.

In addition to quenching flames with water, the sailors learn the use of carbon dioxide hand extinguishers which blanket flames with below zero fog, and two types of foam extinguishers.

Commanded by Veteran.

The Great Lakes fire fighting school, one of a score in the United States, is commanded by Lt. W. L. Mayer, a veteran sailor who was recalled to duty from his civilian job as a district fire chief in St. Paul, Minn. His executive officer is Lt. J. D. Milne, former captain of the Pasadena, Cal., fire department.

These veteran fire fighters have a staff of 163 enlisted instructors, virtually all of whom are experienced firemen.

DODGES JURY FOR BUSINESS, GETS $100 FINE

Louis Berwald, 39, of 1326 4th st., Northbrook, a commercial photographer, was fined $100 and costs for contempt of court yesterday by Chief Justice Benjamin P. Epstein of Criminal court for failure to report for jury duty.

Berwald's request to be excused was denied last Monday. Thursday Berwald failed to appear. By telephone Berwald explained he was "too busy."

Justice Epstein issued a capias that produced him. Berwald explained he had gone to South Bend to take photographs at Notre Dame university. The court halted him with: "Taking snapshots is not helping win the war. This is the most flagrant example of contempt that I have ever seen."

REVOKE CHARTER OF BODY BRANDED AS ANTI-SEMITIC

Madison, Wis., July 10 [Special].—Circuit Judge Alvin C. Reis today issued a summary judgment revoking the charter of the Gentile league of Watertown, Wis., on the grounds the organization was a "conspiracy under corporate cloak to injure members of the Jewish faith." The motion was granted at the request of the state's attorney general.

The league filed incorporation papers in the secretary of state's office here Jan. 18, 1944. Purpose of the group, incorporation articles said, was to "promote the American way of life."

Incorporated by Three.

Incorporators were G. C. Wolf, William Patterson, and Arthur W. Friede, all of Watertown.

[Wolf, listed as vice president, is an auctioneer and real estate operator; Patterson, secretary treasurer, is a defense plant worker and barber, while Friede, president of the league, is a tourist camp operator. In 1941 Friede served 6 months in the Jefferson county jail for operating a house of ill fame.]

The attorney general's office instituted court action to dissolve the league's charter at the request of acting Gov. Goodland, who had requested an investigation to determine whether the league was anti-Semitic. Goodland today hailed the court's decision, asserting that "There is no place in our society for such organizations built on hate."

"Name Indicts Jews."

"The Gentile league, by its very name," Judge Reis held, "is an indictment of the Jews. It is a conspiracy under corporate cloak to injure members of Jewish faith. It may well be that in this free America an individual has the personal liberty to hate and harm and seek to break the Jew by any peaceful means.

"But no combinations or persons can invoke the power of a sovereign state to grant them a corporate charter for such a purpose. This is entirely beyond the scope of lawful purposes for which a corporation may be organized."

LAGOON VICTIM IDENTIFIED.

The body of the man who plunged into thte Lincoln park lagoon from the Fullerton av. bridge Sunday night was identified yesterday as Sam Finkel, 55, of 5028 Winthrop av. His son-in-law, Meyer Rubin, of the same address, said Finkel had been ill for several years.

OFFICER GUILTY IN PLANE MISHAP KILLING AUTOIST

Williams Field, Ariz., July 10 (AP).—A court martial board today handed down a verdict of guilty against 2d Lt. Dean C. Fundingsland, 23, Grand Forks, N. D., tried on two charges as a passenger in a low flying army plane which struck an automobile and decapitated its driver June 22.

Fundingsland, who pleaded innocent, was accused of permitting willful neglect and damage to government property and violation of flying regulations as the senior officer of 2d Lt. Howard E. Stittsworth, 21, Wakefield, Kas., identified in separate charges as pilot of the plane.

The court ordered Fundingsland grounded and recommended his dismissal from the service. Stittsworth will face charges of murder and violation of flying regulations when he appears Thursday before a military tribunal at Marana field, near Tucson.

Earl W. Nepple of Los Angeles, driver of the car, was killed instantly when the plane's wing allegedly sheared thru the windshield, then continued in flight.

VERMONT G. O. P. LEADER VOICES DEWEY SUPPORT

Austin Says He'll Back N. Y. Governor.

Kansas City Parley

Boise, Idaho, July 10 (AP).—Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen today said he will attend a meeting of Republican governors from 26 states in Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 2 and 3 to discuss campaign strategy with Gov. Dewey of New York, Republican Presidential nominee. Bottolfsen said the conference was called by Dewey.

[At Albany, Gov. Dewey's office declined comment until a press conference tomorrow.]

BY HAL FOUST.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Albany, N. Y., July 10.—Three groups of leaders within the Republican party held separate conferences with Gov. Dewey today, and all of the visitors departed apparently satisfied with their conversations with the Presidential nominee.

Dewey seemingly has not been swayed from the foreign policy plank adopted by the Chicago convention and indorsed in his acceptance speech—international coöperation but no world state.

Harrison E. Spangler of Iowa, Republican national chairman and now counsel to the national committee, after his talk with Dewey, assured reporters that the corn belt philosophy of Republicanism will be well represented in the forthcoming campaign.

Spangler reported to Dewey that the party is more united than it has been in years. He said a midwestern wave of Republicans, which started seven years ago, is still growing.

Austin Voices Satisfaction.

Sen. Austin of Vermont, long a spokesman for the internationalists, after his session with the governor, told reporters that the Republican party will advocate "all it takes to prevent a repetition of piratical trespass—military forces, economic sanctions, and political decisions by an authorized international organization."

"Does Gov. Dewey agree with you?" a New York reporter asked.

"I'd rather not speak for the governor," Austin replied, "but I can say that I'll support him enthusiastically in view of the national and international policies he expressed in our conversations."

"The Republican party hasn't abandoned the 'no world state' provision of its platform, has it?" another reporter asked. "Or the 'no foreign treaty' except by two-thirds vote of the senate as provided by the Constitution?"

"No," Austin replied, "we're sticking to the Republican policy adopted by the Mackinac conference of governors and by the Chicago convention."

Connecticut Group Next.

In keeping with his policy of pre-campaign consultations with Republican legislators, Dewey tonight met in the mansion with a Massachusetts party of 11, including Gov. Saltonstall, who is a candidate for the senate; Sen. Weeks, Rep. Martin, house minority leader, seven other congressmen, and one candidate for congress.

In a press conference following the dinner session, the Bay state representatives said they found themselves in agreement with Dewey's thoughts on domestic and foreign policies.

These conferences will be continued tomorrow with a Connecticut delegation, including Sen. Danaher and Rep. Clare Luce.

Sen. Aiken and Rep. Plumley, who accompanied Sen. Austin from Vermont, commended Dewey for consulting the legislators upon whom he must depend to carry out domestic and foreign policies if he is elected.

Accompanying Spangler was James S. Kemper, Chicago insurance executive, who has been a Republican organization worker since 1928.

COUNTY BLAMES MAN SHORTAGE FOR TAX DELAY

Chicagoans who paid their taxes by mail in June need not worry yet about not getting their receipts from County Treasurer Victor L. Schlaeger. The delay is caused by the man power shortage, Schlaeger said yesterday.

"We started last week with 350,000 unopened envelopes containing tax remittances," he said. "We are taking them up in order and are just thru with those postmarked June 6. At the present rate all tax receipts will be mailed by Aug. 1."

William Lake, chief clerk in the treasurer's office, said that the office work was being done with 140 fewer employes than last year. He estimated that the unopened mail contained 35 million dollars.

$25,000 BLAZE IN CAFE HALTS TRAFFIC 2 HOURS

Early morning traffic was tied up for two hours yesterday when fire broke out in the basement of Wagner's restaurant, 2372 Lincoln av., at the intersection of Halsted st. and Lincoln and Fullerton avs. Damage was estimated at $25,000.

Other firemen late yesterday were still patroling the scene of the $150,000 fire that destroyed the Boynton & Co. factory at 1725 Bosworth av. Sunday.

Early reports that the fire started in the adjoining Ashland Lumber company yards proved erroneous.

CIO 'BLACKMAIL' TO GET 4TH TERM FUNDS CHARGED

has been shouldered now by the CIO committee and the Communist Political Education association."

Charges Bogus Label Used.

Seldom will the activities of the CIO-PAC be carried on under this label, he said, showing his audience in the Hotel Sherman examples of newspaper advertising, handbills, and radio scripts used in other states in recent months.

Leaders of the CIO-PAC realize their weakness in public opinion and hence mask their operations under names of "independent" and "joint labor" appellations, Busbey asserted.

Altho Busbey was a union member himself in open shop days, and has the indorsement of the American Federation of Labor and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the CIO seeks to picture him as anti-labor.

Busbey Assures McKeough.

"I have nothing but praise for the rank and file of the CIO, whose battle I am fighting," Busbey said. "My mail from them shows they have no more use than I have for their communistic leadership. They were forced into line and alone have no way of freeing themselves."

Raymond S. McKeough, former Democratic nominee for United States senator and now paid regional director of the CIO-PAC, is "nothing but a stooge" for Herbert March, president of the Chicago Industrial Union council [CIO], Busbey said. The Dies committee reported: "Herbert March is a Communist, not one of the secret variety, but one who has openly paraded his allegiance to the doctrines of Lenin and the destruction of American free institutions."

CHARGES PARTY 'SOLD' HIM FOR LABOR SUPPORT

Frankfort, Ky., July 10 (AP).—Formally withdrawing from the race for renomination and reëlection to congress, Rep. Vincent [D., Ky.] charged today he was "traded off" at the Democratic state convention for the support of organized labor.

In a written statement, the 2d district representative declared William Green, American Federation of Labor president, and John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers of America president, "conspired to defeat me because I would not take orders." He termed Lewis "an inveterate enemy of the farmer," and declared, "I believe the boys overseas hate him as badly as they do Hitler."

"I could defeat this crowd in a fair primary on this issue," the statement added, "but when the machine joined them, that gave them too much power."

In Louisville, Ed H. Weyler, secretary of the state federation of labor, affirmed that he and Ed Morgan, president of district 23, UMWA, had urged labor unions to support State Sen. Earle C. Clements and that they had advised Republican labor men to register as Democrats in order to vote against Vincent in the Aug. 5 primary. Weyler said Vincent had voted against labor bills "all down the line."

FIREMEN FIGHT BLAZE IN DOME OF LOOP MOVIE

Fifteen minutes after a late show audience filed out of the Apollo theater at 74 W. Randolph st., early today, a fire broke out between the dome of the auditorium and the roof of the five story building.

The fire burned thru the roof and smoke filled the building. Firemen encountered some difficulty and a 2-11 alarm was sounded. Outside thousands of persons swarmed in the street, disrupting traffic.

Harry J. Potter, manager, said he discovered the fire at 12:15 a. m., after all patrons had left. Film was removed from the projection booth when it was feared that the fire would spread.

SUPERMAN RULE DEVOURS RIGHTS, HAWKES WARNS

Senator Asks Return to Lincoln's Idea.

Sen. Hawkes [R., N. J.] warned last night that perpetuation in office can build an army of payrollers large enough to control elections and keep the majority from electing their governmental representatives. He spoke at a meeting of manufacturers and retailers in the American Furniture Mart.

Sen. Hawkes.

The speaker asserted that people in their own communities and states are better able to govern themselves than professional politicians hundreds or thousands of miles away.

Respect for Law Urged.

After making an earnest plea for all to exercise their duty as citizens in the coming election, Sen. Hawkes declared the judgment of an informed common people better than any so-called superman. He urged that the nation should not take a "high dive off the precipice into the unknown waters of internationalism without sitting down and talking it over."

The nation must rebuild a respect for law and order, Sen. Hawkes said, and go back to the Constitution of the United States. He told the audience that the death of his son, a major in the medical corps, and thousands of others' sons will be for nothing if the voters stand by and see the Constitution destroyed in spirit.

"You are the only ones who can prevent such a catastrophe in the United States," Sen. Hawkes said. "You are the only ones who can stop this nation from going straight into state socialism.

"Perpetuation in office involves the building up of a vast burocracy and excess administrative bureaus. It involves the establishment of a government payroll which destroys the possibility of economy in administration of government.

Throttles Majority Rule.

"Perpetuation in office feeds upon the people's rights and can go to the extent where those who seek sustenance at the public trough are in sufficient numbers to control the elections, and thereby take away from the majority of the people the right of free choice of the representatives they should have to administer successfully the affairs of government.

"I am one citizen who believes that we should go back to the Constitution—back . . . to Lincoln's idea that the government should only do those things for its people which the people cannot do at all or cannot do so well for themselves."

NEW DEAL PAPER ASKS DEMOCRATS TO NAME WILLKIE

New York, July 10 [Special].—The New York Post, arch New Deal and internationalist newspaper, recommended today in its lead editorial that the Democrats name Wendell Willkie as their Vice Presidential nominee. The Post was one of the internationalist publications accused, before Willkie's repudiation in the primaries, of playing the New Deal game of trying to get him nominated by the Republicans so he would be an easy loser to President Roosevelt's fourth term effort. This pro-Roosevelt paper has the lowest daily circulation in New York.

DEMOCRAT SET TO FORCE ISSUE ON WORLD STATE

Annapolis, Md., July 10 (AP).—Gov. Herbert R. O'Conor of Maryland said today that his statement calling upon the Democrats to reject American participation in a world state or a world police force would be submitted to the party's platform committee at the national convention opening July 19 in Chicago. O'Conor in a statement Saturday asked the Democrats to pledge American coöperation in international affairs but said that the idea of this country's becoming a "unit in a world state is repugnant to the American people."

DEMOCRATS' P. A., TICKETS ARRIVE FOR CONVENTION

BY THOMAS MORROW.

Preparations for the Democratic national convention in the Chicago Stadium July 19 began to take shape yesterday as Paul Porter, chief Democratic press agent, and the tickets arrived at the Stevens hotel.

Porter was accompanied by the boys and girls of his staff bearing their stock of adjectives and other equipment. The tickets arrived at the loading platform and their appearance, as well as Porter's, was recorded by a swarm of newsreel and newspaper photographers.

Party Dignitaries on Way.

With this start, party dignitaries are expected to assemble gradually thruout the balance of the week. Among those already on the scene are Edwin W. Pauley, party treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Vredenburgh of Alabama, in charge of women's affairs; Sen. Lucas, and, of course, Steadham Acker, convention manager, and Claude Boswell, ticket custodian.

Besides the main show of the Democratic convention, two other attractions are scheduled for the meeting period. Gerald L. K. Smith, Detroit organizer, who took over the grand ball room of the Stevens hotel for a meeting while the Republican convention was on, has announced that he will gather his followers for a meeting July 17.

Another Convention Threatened.

He will urge the Democrats to nominate Sen. Wheeler of Montana for the Presidency. If President Roosevelt is nominated, he said, he will call a national convention of his group and nominate a candidate for President — possibly Charles A. Lindbergh.

The second side attraction is a meeting of the executive committee of the American Democratic National committee, anti-fourth term organization, on July 20. Unofficially, this group has spoken highly of Sen. Byrd of Virginia as a possible Presidential candidate.

This executive committee, apparently having little hope of halting the President's nomination, plans to call a national convention in New Orleans. The call is expected to ask that all anti-fourth term and anti-New Deal groups join in the convention to discuss plans for a candidate of their own or a possible coalition with the Republicans.

Mayor to Oppose Amendment.

As national forces began to gather, Mayor Kelly announced that he will oppose in the fall election any Constitutional amendment that would permit Illinois sheriffs and county treasurers to succeed themselves.

"I am against lengthening the term of these offices," said the mayor, "because it will perpetuate the political machine that has grown up downstate. There is no one crying for reëlection of these fellows, or wanting them to succeed themselves. I am against it and so is Sheriff Mulcahy."

N. Y. DEMOCRATS PICK F. D. R. MAN FOR FARLEY JOB

New York, July 10 [Special].—State Democratic leaders today selected Paul E. Fitzpatrick of Buffalo, described as "100 per cent for Roosevelt," to succeed James A. Farley as chairman of the New York Democratic state committee.

A delegate at large to the Democratic national convention at Chicago next week, Farley has not disclosed yet whether he will permit his name to be placed in nomination for the Presidency.

National Committeeman Edward J. [Paving Blocks] Flynn, Bronx leader, said that Fitzpatrick, long active in political affairs in Erie county, will be presented to the state committee tomorrow.

Fitzpatrick, 47, a contractor and radio station owner, is the son of the late William H. Fitzpatrick, Democratic boss of Erie county for more than 20 years.

THYE AND ALLEN TOP MINNESOTA PRIMARY RACES

Minneapolis, Minn., July 11 (AP).—Gov. Edward J. Thye, who became governor 15 months ago when Gov. Harold Stassen joined the navy, swept into a strong lead for the Republican nomination for governor tonight on the basis of early returns from today's primary election.

Returns from 123 of 3,703 precincts in the state gave Thye 9,374 to 1,112 for John C. Peterson of Minneapolis and 310 for James D. Scarsdale of Minneapolis.

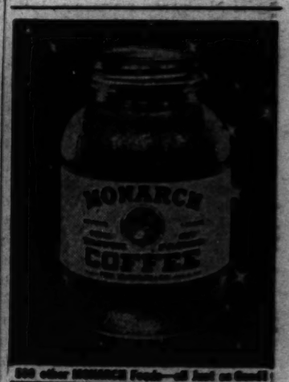

At the same time Byron G. Allen of Detroit Lakes, indorsed by the state convention which last April combined the Farmer-Labor and Democratic parties into the Democratic-Farmer-Labor party, held a nearly two to one lead over his nearest opponent.

His vote, from 123 precincts, was 4,034 to 2,163 for Emil Holmes of Minneapolis, who filed as a Democrat before the fusion; and 464 for Mabel Caroline Wiesner of Minneapolis.

The returns were being scanned for a possible indication whether President Roosevelt, if he is a candidate, could carry the state four times in a row. Democratic-Farmer-Labor candidates urged reëlection of Roosevelt. The voting was reported as comparatively light. Today's was the first Minnesota primary in 25 years in which only two parties' candidates appeared on the consolidated ballots.

5TH WAR LOAN

PEOPLE ARE ASKING:

"What can I do to help my block reach its 5th War Loan Quota?"

The answer is:

1. Buy extra bonds from your Block Bond Warden.
2. Tell your Block Bond Warden of any bonds you buy elsewhere. This includes bonds you buy through the payroll savings plan during June and July.
3. If you cannot reach your Block Bond Warden call Central 8760 and tell the operator that you want to report a bond purchase for your block.

Your purchases—wherever made—count toward your block's quota

BECAUSE

The block is the unit where all bond purchases are scored and credited

THEREFORE

If you don't report ALL your bond purchases to your Bond Warden, your block's showing in the War Loan Drive will suffer.

YOU HAVE UNTIL JULY 31 TO

MR. ROOSEVELT'S CAMPAIGN ORATORY.

Mr. Roosevelt's campaign habit is to deny his intentions. Each time he runs for office he says he is not going to do what he does as soon as he is elected. He started out that way. Against Mr. Hoover he viewed that President's comparatively moderate deficits with a lyric alarm. Unbalanced budgets were what caused grass to grow in the streets of industrial cities and workmen to prowl the roads of the countryside eating roots. Against Mr. Landon he said there was nothing in the Roosevelt blood or breeding which could tolerate having truck with Communists. Four years ago his campaign note was the "again, and again, and again," spoken to the parents of soldier-age boys. This year he has discarded the New Deal and seaboard internationalism.

We have the answers to three of these "it ain't so" political theses. One you can find in Algiers, Italy, and Normandy, in Burma, China, and the islands of the Pacific. Another you can find in the dominance of the collectivists in the Roosevelt economic policy, with Earl Browder and Sidney Hillman as the hatchet men. The other you have in a money policy which regards deficits and debts as means to national prosperity and individual happiness. So we come to the fourth "it ain't so" in the arrangements for the 4th term. Is "Dr. New Deal" dismissed from the case with his fees paid and is Mr. Roosevelt a midwestern nationalist? Experience would say no to each question.

Mr. Roosevelt does not submit the issue to the voters. The first time he ran it is possible that he didn't know what he was talking about. He didn't know the fun and gain of taxing and spending. He didn't know anything of earning money, but he may have had a reasonable idea that outgo above income was a bad thing anywhere for anybody. He did have political sense enough to guess that Mr. Hoover's plan of reviving private industry by aid to banks wasn't a vote getter. When Mr. Roosevelt, getting hold of the purse strings, could create deficits and debts, he put the money in the precincts. He didn't revive anything except the hope which springs eternal of getting something for nothing out of the government.

The second time he ran he did know what he was talking about. He knew why John Lewis had put $600,000 in his campaign fund and what the reward was to be. He knew that revolutionaries were about to begin the attack on private enterprise which is now, under Mr. Roosevelt's sanctions, reaching its crest. Mr. Lewis, curiously enough, has changed his mind. Mr. Roosevelt has not. His campaign statement that he has done so may be tested for truth by the other campaign statements he has made. The 4th term candidate relies on his plausibility, not his truthfulness. He distrusts the political soundness of his intentions. They would scare votes away. He trusts the political effect of his promises. They are to attract the voters.

Apologists say that when Mr. Roosevelt promised Americans they were not going into foreign wars in his 3d term he was in a difficult position. He could not fully share his information with the people; he could not get out too far ahead of them; he must be patient and allow the inevitability of the situation to gather its force and its persuasiveness. All of which is not true. The war actually was on before he was nominated for the 3d term and the country knew it. He denied it because he was afraid that it would cost him votes if he admitted it. The deceit had no statesmanship. It was political deception and historically it will be damaging to the man who keeps his eye on his place in history.

If Mr. Roosevelt were qualified for his responsibilities he would have been incapable of such a vote-getting falsification of the facts. He knew where the country was going in his 3d term. A statesman would have gone soberly to the voters. The politician did not dare risk it. A difficult situation, let it be admitted. Few administrations in the history of the United States have accepted war as unescapable. Mr. Roosevelt chose his policy, and that being his judgment as to the thing the American people must face, he owed them a declaration of the causes and the consequences. If he believed in himself and his judgment he could do no less.

The White House candidate flinched the task. Conformably to precedents established by himself, he gave promises he knew could not be kept, and gave them to gain votes. Can he be believed now as a 4th term candidate when he was not trustworthy in three other campaigns?

NOW IS THE TIME FOR CONVERSION.

Sen. Truman, chairman of the senate's national defense committee, says that the army and navy are resisting the return to production of civilian necessities because they want to create a man power surplus. He has called upon the New Deal administration to allow the resumption of civilian goods manufacture. Sen. Truman blames the war production board for holding back, saying that the orders to go ahead with conversion are ready if somebody would take the responsibility for issuing them.

Donald Nelson, chairman of WPB, is ill, but only a couple of weeks ago he made a speech in which he said that when "restrictions are no longer essential for the welfare of the war economy, we have no warrant for retaining them." He said that WPB should not and would not be used to preserve the industrial competitive situation that existed before the war or "to reshape the American economy, either in the pattern of the past or according to any theory of the future."

Mr. Nelson, in those words, set the pattern for a quick return to civilian manufacture by concerns freed from war work. There ought to be somebody in his office with sufficient intelligence and fortitude to carry his idea forward now. The army and navy may want to keep our economy on a total war footing beyond any reasonable need and for selfish purposes; but WPB is a civilian agency and it should not be run by any tight little clique of West Point or Annapolis professionals. The army and navy have first call upon all production, but when their needs are met, as many of them are today, there is no benefit to be gained from keeping civilian plants and workmen idle.

Every American has a direct interest in a quick conversion of industry to civilian production. It is our greatest weapon against inflation; the prompt manufacture and speedy distribution of civilian essentials will discourage rising prices and black markets. It is also our greatest weapon against post-war unemployment and a boondoggling public works program that will add to the tax debt. If the factories are rolling at full tilt in civilian production when the soldiers return, and are expanding to meet the demands of people here and all over the world starved of necessities by a long war, there will be jobs for all and no need for made work.

Sen. Truman is a Democrat and a New Dealer, but he can see that civilian production has to begin right now if the disasters of inflation and unemployment are to be averted.

SAIPAN CONQUERED.

Adm. Nimitz announced that organized Japanese resistance on Saipan ended on Saturday, two days after a desperate Jap counterattack was smashed by killing 1,500 of the assailants.

The 25 day campaign was the costliest yet fought in the central or western Pacific. The Japanese lost a garrison of 20,000 men, most of them already killed. Our casualties in the first 16 days amounted to 9,752, to which some thousands must have been added since. A very high proportion of our wounded, however, will not only live but live to fight again.

The attack on Saipan was an obvious challenge to the Japanese fleet. It attacked and suffered tremendous losses in the air, but managed to avoid the surface action for which our task force 58 yearned. We are in the Marianas to stay, and the Jap navy can have battle whenever it wants it. The pressure of our establishments there should force it out to sea eventually.

The softening up operations that our bombers and fighter-bombers have been carrying out while the infantry slugged its way across Saipan suggest two immediate objectives. One is the other large islands in the Marianas, including American Guam. The second is the Bonin Islands, half way between the Marianas and Tokyo.

From Saipan, B-29 bombers can strike Tokyo at will. The distance, 1,260 miles, is not too great for Liberators, altho they would have to lighten their bomb loads. Possession of the Bonins might make it possible to give our bomber fleets long range fighter protection over Japan itself. At the least, fighters based there would free the bombers from attack by home based Japanese fighters for most of their trip.

Even with all of these bases, however, we shall be unable to hurl against Japan the 1,000 bomber fleets that we regularly send against Germany. One air field can accommodate comparatively few big bombers, and the number of fields we can build in the Marianas is limited. Rural England has been turned into one vast airport to accommodate our and the British air fleets.

In taking this foothold more than a 1,000 miles from Japan our troops suffered casualties far higher, in proportion to the men engaged, than were exacted of the American divisions in establishing the bridgehead in France. The closer we get to Japan the more frantic and fanatic the Japanese resistance will become. There was nothing at Saipan to indicate that the Japanese war will be terminated swiftly, or at slight cost. There are 90,000,000 Japanese to beat. Beating them is a task, because of the distances involved, as great as beating Hitler. It is a task that we have carried on virtually singlehanded until now, and it is not at all certain that we may not have to finish the job by ourselves.

MILITARY JUSTICE.

Maj. Louis Lefkoff was convicted by a court martial at Camp Van Dorn, Miss., of "cruel, inhuman, and unusual punishment" of army prisoners and was sentenced to a year at hard labor and dismissal from the service. Six white and three Negro soldiers held in the Camp Van Dorn stockade, in charge of the major, were flogged because, he said, the prisoners were "uncontrollable."

The sentence given the officer was inadequate, even in view of the court martial's finding that the offense was the result of "malassignment and incompetence rather than any inherent viciousness." If Lefkoff was incompetent, the army should have found it out during the three and a half years in which he was promoted in rank from a reserve second lieutenant to major.

Military discipline makes it necessary that officers be given great power over the lives and conduct of the men assigned to their command. The power carries with it a correspondingly great obligation not to abuse the men in the ranks, an obligation which is faithfully discharged by the vast majority of officers. Because of the vast power vested in an officer, any abuse of it ought to be most sternly punished. It was not in the Lefkoff case. For a heinous offense against army regulations and the dignity of soldiers placed under his control he received a far lighter sentence than many of those prisoners undoubtedly have received or will receive for comparatively minor crimes.

The disparity between sentences imposed on enlisted men and on officers by army court martials has been the occasion of public comment and disapprobation before. The current case gives no indication that it has been fully impressed on all officers that this nation cannot and will not tolerate a caste system in its army.

A HOME IN NAZARETH.

A nine-line news item from Rome caught this column's attention, so we refreshed our memory on the shrine of Loreto, celebrated as an objective of religious pilgrimages. The handsome cathedral of the Holy House is reported as damaged in the allied advance toward Ancona, on the west coast of Italy, but the Casa Santa itself, a small stone structure within the church, was not harmed.

This little house is said to have been the home of the Virgin Mary in Nazareth. According to its legend, it was moved by angels to Illyria in 1291, and to Loreto in 1294. "A Catholic Dictionary" says on this point: "The most recent research tends to show that the tradition is mistaken, and rests on some unexplained misunderstanding. . . . There is a nice appropriateness in the fact that our Lady of Loreto is the patron saint of airmen."

The Casa Santa is 13½ feet high, and 28 by 12½ feet in ground plan, and has two windows. It is enclosed by a lofty marble screen, depicting subjects associated with the legend, which was designed by Bramante, Renaissance architect and painter, and rebuilder of St. Peter's. His name appears in the roster of world renowned artists which forms the frieze of the Art Institute of Chicago.

Many religious edifices and institutions have been dedicated to Our Lady of Loreto, all over the Christian world. In Chicago the telephone directory lists a convent, an academy, a hospital, and a high school. In these cases the name is spelled with a double "t"—Loretto. This seems to be the general American usage.

Among the notable churches of Paris is Notre Dame de Lorette, often mentioned in French literature, especially in the period of Balzac. It is situated north of the central boulevards, midway between the Opera and the basilica of Sacré Coeur, in a district of night life reputation. Young women of the neighborhood, nicknamed lorettes, were favorite subjects of the noted French caricaturist, Gavarni.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS.

O, think you 'tis alone the censor's hand
That makes him whom so much you love forbear
To tell you of that torn and tortured land
Bereft of hope and mastered by despair?
Not there do all his hopes repose, but here—
Here in this land he loves, that gave him birth.
Here found he faith and all things men hold dear;
There finds he war and violated earth.

Above the roar of guns he hears the speech
Of loved ones from across wide wastes of foam,
And, like a paradise beyond his reach,
He sees the hills and friendly fields of home.
Grim thunders shake the earth, towns fiercely blaze,
And in the night war's firebrand redly gleams,
Yet does he roam green slopes where cattle graze,
And rest on banks of shade by summer streams.

With deep, dull ache, with gnawing, fierce desire,
He turns in thought to this his native shore,
And all his love for home burns with a fire
Far brighter than it ever burned before.
And he would think it heaven come, to stand
Again with loved ones on this precious sod,
To kneel with them and bless this holy land—
This land above all others blessed of God!

A Story from Barcelona.

Alfonsito was a pupil in a primary school. His teacher asked the class: "Who was the most famous painter produced by Spain?"

Alfonsito raised his hand. "Franco," he said.

"No, no, Alfonsito," the teacher corrected. "It was Goya. Now, then, tell me who was the most widely known author. Who wrote 'Don Quixote de la Mancha'?"

Alfonsito again, with assurance: "Franco."

"No, no, no, Alfonsito. It was Cervantes. You should know that. I'll give you one more chance. Who discovered America?"

Alfonsito screwed up his face in thought. "It was Franco," he insisted.

"Every one knows," explained the teacher, "that it was Christopher Columbus."

"My professor," Alfonsito returned, "it seems to me that you are a Red." Dan Steele.

Girdles, panties, slips, brassières,

Permeating wardrobes, rooms;

First Choice in Views?

My idea of the best view in Chicago is from the roof of the Stevens hotel on a summer evening. The lake and sky, the Tribune Tower to the north, Grant park in the foreground, the planetarium, aquarium, and museum of natural history, the opera house to the northwest, and the old town to the south and west—well, it's something to talk about and dream about.

SUMMER EATING HABITS.

DURING the warmer months we are privileged to eat less. Our systems are spared the necessity of making up for the heat which is lost by radiation. This means that the total calories consumed per day may be reduced, with safety and comfort, by 25 to 30 per cent or even more. Why not give our vital organs a seasonal respite thru the use of spare repasts?

The exception to the rule is the developing child, who will demand his normal quota. Furthermore, play is vigorous and a goodly amount of energy is dissipated. Thus we must make sure that the meals will provide for new muscle and bone.

Between June and October, the average exercise load of the adult will be less. One reason is that exertion brings exhaustion more quickly because we are unable to rid ourselves of the calories produced by the working "pulleys." Since fuel is not called for, why oblige the digestive tract to store fat and animal starch?

But the need for balanced menus is always present. As at any other time of the year, we must maintain the protein intake at a level that will not be less than the quantity required to restore muscle waste. We can gauge our starches and sugars so that they will not add to our burdens when they are burned [oxidized]. But we can well limit our fat consumption, shunning rich pastries and oily dishes.

Summer is the period in which we can reinforce our depots of vitamins and minerals. We can do this best with salads, fruits, and fresh vegetables. The housewife may become a creative artist in preparing and serving these foods in attractive and unusual ways.

I have no patience with the no-breakfast habit. After a 12 or 14 hour fast, reinforcement with good nutriment is essential. The midday meal may be the lightest of the day. Dinner may be reasonably heavy because the days are longer and we can take plenty of time and still be able to get out of doors for an hour or more.

Let's not forget the value of fresh air. We have been cooped up for months and the chemical rays of light are energy builders, even tho the direct beams of the sun do not strike the cuticle.

Fluids are essential. Two to five times the normal amount will be called for to satisfy thirst because evaporation is taking place from the skin at a high rate of speed. We may indulge in liquids copiously and, in this connection, we may prefer milk, buttermilk, orange juice, lemonade, limeade, etc.—in addition to Adam's ale.

Perspiration is a curious mixture. It contains salts, cells, and a certain amount of oily matter. It forms an excellent medium for the growth of plant fungi. Frequent baths will be necessary in order to keep the pores open and to wash away the saline accumulations from the surface. Some will require extra minerals, such as salt tablets.

SHOES.

I. M. writes: Are unlined kid slippers harmful to the feet, especially in summer?

REPLY.

Not at all, unless you are sensitive to some chemical used in the tanning process. The American Indians, our greatest walkers, did not line their moccasins; neither did they wear hose. Profuse perspiration, however, may damage the leather.

BE YOUR AGE.

E. S. writes: I am 13 years old and want to have a permanent. My mother says it will make me bald in time. Is this true?

REPLY.

Probably not bald but bold. Remain 13 as long as you can.

BABY WON'T DRINK.

Mrs. T. writes: My 6 month old infant will not take water from the bottle. If it is added to the formula is that enough?

REPLY.

If he is happy and gaining in weight, all is well.

WINEBIBBING.

Mrs. A. L. writes: Is it true that wine makes blood?

REPLY.

Would that it could or would. Unfortunately, red wine in and of itself will not manufacture blood.

OUT OF THE FRYING PAN

Front Views & Profiles

By MARCIA WINN

Gismo in the Pacific.

This is a wonderful war. Now comes word that the first issue of Gismo, an arty little publication that would be shunted aside on the home front as a "little magazine," is off the press in the South Pacific under Red Cross sponsorship.

Gismo is an all-purpose word coined by the marines. It means the same as thingamajig, but is easier to spell. Made into magazine form under the editorship of Lucy Crockett, a Virginia lady who formerly wrote children's stories, it combines selections of literary merit with "ungrammatical but impassioned" essays that ring with sincerity.

Sgt. George E. McMillan, a marine corps combat correspondent, has made a thoro study of the first issue of Gismo. He finds that rank is little noted in its contents. A lead article by Adm. Halsey is bylined, simply, William F. Halsey, U. S. N. Writer Halsey, after saying that the battle of the South Pacific is just about washed up, concludes: "We'll continue right into the Japs' front yard, up the steps, thru the door, and into his parlor—without ringing any bells or removing our shoes."

What Sgt. McMillan describes as one of the better poems follows Halsey's summary. It is by Hubert Creekmore, U. S. N. R., otherwise unidentified, and is called "Conducted All-Expense Tour." It is a bitter piece of realism in which the poet recalls with scorn souvenir-hunting Americans "committed to a worship of change, we travel only to buy the picturesque . . ." and describes America today with:

"Now on a Cook's tour far more grim
Than ever travel bureau planned, men
In vain search out the pregnant trinket
Holding the heart of this bewildered trip.
There's no curio of the Coral sea
But waves washing the light from a sailor's eyes.
There's no Lover's Leap in the Solomons:
It is a flaming, falling airman.
What souvenirs we now collect:
String of shells that burst the throat to blood.
Bullets that scorn our raucous pride,
Last sight of a world turned smoke and roar—
Line the mocking whatnot where
Our true relation to man parades its test.
This blasted leg, this blackened brain,
This blotted sight, this bric-a-brac of a dead
Bombed soldier . . . we picked these up in New Guinea."

Elswhere in Gismo a soldier, pleading for an extension of democracy after the war, searches his soul and history to find what he is fighting for. A Coast Guardman in a sketch, "Butterfly Wings," tries to tell the kind of fear one private felt immediately before he killed his first Jap. Several love stories [all bad, Sgt. McMillan says], a sketch on a commuter in civilian life, a sketch of Carlson the Raider by a marine who served under him, and a sketch of Lt. Paul Redmond, chaplain of a marine raider battalion, complete the prose selections. The little magazine also contains two amusing poems. "Lines" by Ralph Fontana, U. S. A., ends:—

"Army lines aren't lines, they are hydras.
In the army you wait three hours in a line finally to discover that the line you've been in is waiting
another line."

One, far removed from war, is anonymous and called "Hay Making":

"You made hay
while the sun was bright.
I sowed wild oats
by the moon at night.
Your hay is stacked in bundles neat,
but the lingering taste
of oats is sweet."

Two hundred manuscripts were submitted for the first issue. The most popular theme was: Let's finish the war and get back home. Runners-up: Nuts to the "beautiful tropics"; We'll win the war but what of the peace; The Stars and Stripes; Is my girl back home being true to me?

NO SURRENDER OF SOVEREIGNTY.

Lake Mills, Wis., July 6.—We can never surrender any part of our national sovereignty to any world governing body or group of nations. That sovereignty is inalienable and inviolable and belongs to all generations of Americans, past, present, and future. It is not the sole property of the generation now living.

The American Civil war was fought to prove that the Confederacy did not have the right to secede. The land occupied by the 48 states of our Union belongs to the United States of America, which is indissoluble and inseparable. And in the same manner and for the same purpose our citizen rights are indissoluble and inseparable. Those facts are sealed and confirmed in the blood of our fathers and the destiny of ourselves.

There are men today who seek with the assistance of foreign guile and for a foreign purpose to connive with empires to destroy our national independence. The ostensible purpose of these imperial men is to preserve peace, but their real purpose is to preserve themselves. The liberty of our people and the freedom of our nation is the greatest force for peace and freedom that exists on earth today. And if other nations would have peace, let them be like us—not we like them. Let them give to the suppressed their liberty. Let them guard the rights of freedom everywhere, and peace will reign in every land on earth.

World government is not designed for peace. It is designed to guard the safety of empires who have denied the rights of freedom to their fellow men and to prevent other empires from encroaching on themselves.

DEAN E. SMITH.

THE SILLY STRIKE.

Gowen field, Idaho, July 4.—I picked up the Idaho Statesman, Boise, Idaho, newspaper and found staring me in the face an article about the employes of the Greyhound Bus company going on strike, due to the fact that ties will have to be worn on the job.

If a commanding officer in the army puts out a memorandum stating that ties will be worn at all times and if a soldier is caught without one in the proper place—acute and drastic disciplinary action is taken. Why can't the civilians of this country realize the fact that there is no room for childish minds and thoughts at this time? The soldiers can't go on strike—why should civilians be able to? It is just as much their war as ours. It is about time things came to a focus. These men and women who think they always have something coming should be made to put forth some effort to reap such rewards that our American form of government affords us. TECH. SGT. J. H.

ONE-WAY DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY.

Norwood, O., July 5.—Tyler Kent, employe of the United States embassy at London is sentenced to seven years imprisonment by a British court. A page boy of the British embassy is brought before a Washington court for a misdemeanor, but is released upon presentation of an immunity plea by the British embassy.

United nations? Indeed! What is wrong with the doting Mr. Hull? What are we citizens going to do about Tyler Kent, American? F. MARIN.

VOICE OF THE MIDWEST.

Chicago, July 7.—The correspondent of the London Daily Express, after his visit to Chicago, hit the nail right on the head in certain respects.

Midwesterners as a whole consider the United States their motherland and have absolutely no loyalty to England, its empire, or any other foreign land, ideologically or otherwise.

Unlike the loyalist Tory social climbers of the east, midwesterners customarily do not buy English titles for their daughters, pay for presentations at court or go to Scotland each August for the grouse shooting. They do not affect an English accent and do not regard the king's court as the hub of the universe, neither do they think of Washington as a rebel, his army as an uncouth, rascally rabble or the Declaration of Independence a terrible error.

The fact is, the people in this part of the world look upon our eastern bootlickers and all titled individuals from bart. to king with poorly concealed contempt.

The theory that THE TRIBUNE has sold us on these ideas is sheer nonsense. People do not buy a newspaper they dislike, then continue to buy it until they accept its views. It's the other way around, people regularly buy and read those newspapers with which they agree.

This explains why THE TRIBUNE has overwhelmed in circulation the New Deal—commie—internationalist press of Chicago. If it chose, THE TRIBUNE could honestly carry at its masthead Voice of the Midwest. Indications are that after November, this could be altered to Voice of the Nation.

H. D. BENNETT.

FROM A TRIBUNITE OVERSEAS.

Somewhere in France, June 22.—In the first mail to arrive on the beachhead was your letter telling of THE TRIBUNE'S plan for dependents of its employes in uniform. It's hard to describe the nice warm feeling that announcement gave me. It isn't the monetary benefit, but a feeling some one behind you is taking a personal interest in you—The Tribune family. It certainly will give noncommissioned personnel a sense of security and relieve them of many home worries.

For the first three or four nights after D-day, Jack Thompson and I slept in the same hedgerow. What a tradition The Tribune reporters are making in this war.

The more I see of this world and this war, the more I believe in THE TRIBUNE'S policies. It's an honor to be considered a member of an organization that has the determination and power to fight for what they believe right in the face of violent opposition—a real soldier! WILLIAM R. DENSLOW.

DISINHERITED.

Chicago, July 10.—After my mother's death my father remarried and five years ago he died. There was no will but he had deeded all of his property to his second wife. As he had no other children, was I not entitled to a part of the property? G. P.

In general a parent has the power to give away his property during his lifetime and thus disinherit his children. We understand from your letter that your father did this.

PROBE BIG BLACK MARKET; OUST 6 OFFICIALS IN OPA

Illegal Trade in Sugar, Gas, Shoes Charged.

Scranton, Pa., July 10 [Special].—A huge black market in gasoline, sugar certificates and shoe coupons has been traced directly to the Scranton district office of the office of price administration, government officials announced here today after disclosing the suspension of six key district OPA officials.

Criminal charges against some of these officials will be filed tomorrow in the federal court here, it was stated by Paul L. Ross, regional litigation attorney for the OPA, who came here from New York to take charge of the inquiry.

Charge Big Shortages.

Ross said that auditors from the New York office have been at work in Scranton since May and that evidence obtained by them indicates a shortage of at least 300,000 gallons in gasoline coupons, several thousand shoe certificates and 1,000 food ration books. Ross added he has evidence of the issuance of more than 7,000 shoe certificates to merchants and an illegal traffic in sugar certificates in carload lots.

The officials suspended are W. Frank Snyder, $6,224 a year district OPA director; Arthur A. Maskery, $5,224 a year district rationing chief; Paul F. Gibbons, $4,400 a year district enforcement attorney; Henry C. Walsh, $4,400 a year district mileage representative; Joseph A. McNulty, $5,224 a year operations executive, and Raymond Heppelwhite, $3,200 a year shoe rationing representative.

Ross said that Snyder, who was reported out of the city today on sick leave, was suspended on charges of malfeasance and misfeasance, and that charges of malfeasance and gross misfeasance were brought against Maskery and Gibbons.

Permits for New Cars.

Walsh was accused in the suspension order of trafficking in stolen gasoline coupons, and McNulty and Heppelwhite were charged with making false affidavits to obtain permits to buy new cars for themselves.

Walter C. Young, OPA director for the Harrisburg district, arrived here to take temporary charge of the Scranton OPA office. Federal officials said the probe of conditions in Scranton was carried on under orders from Daniel P. Woolley, regional OPA administrator in New York, who was quoted in dispatches as "particularly aroused over the lavishness and irregular manner in which these office holders violated public trust."

Gas Coupons Traced.

Appearance of gasoline coupons from the Scranton district in the hands of dealers in Philadelphia and eastern Pennsylvania caused the first suspicions by regional officers that irregularities were taking place, it was said. Several gasoline dealers in Allentown, Pa., were cited for illegal possession of coupons and a hearing conducted there produced testimony pointing toward Scranton rationing officials as their source.

Ross said regional investigators have interviewed more than 100 gasoline dealers and food and shoe merchants and that many more will be questioned before the probe is completed.

Calls for Sugar Records.

He went before Federal Judge Albert L. Watson here today and obtained subpoenas directing two merchants in Wilkes Barre, Pa., to turn over to the OPA their books and records dealing with sugar transactions.

Names of those against whom criminal informations will be filed tomorrow were not revealed by Ross, who said he now intends to prefer criminal charges against five persons. He said the suspended officials have six days to answer the charges involving their suspension. The Scranton district comprises 10 counties.

Day by Day on the FARM

The FARM by Gail Compton

July 10, 1944.

THE first round of haying is virtually completed, and the farm now could use one or two good soaking rains. It has been almost two weeks since the farm got a supply of moisture and the hot sun is opening large cracks in the ground.

The workers were glad for the dry spell, however, for it enabled haying to go forward with little interruption. More than 75 acres of forage have been cut and stored. The silo and hay keeper at the dairy are full, and the bales have been moving into the barns. The farm should have a record tonnage of hay this year.

Boys Learn Farm Woes.

Two young boys have been working at the farm for several weeks now, and they have gotten a good dose of what living on a farm involves. From the gentle labor of hoeing in the garden, they suddenly found themselves transported to the inside of the silo. Here, in the murky heat, they tramped silage as it blew down upon their heads from the pipe at the top. The juicy grass was sprayed with molasses and the sticky forage matted their hair and clogged their ears and noses.

The boys breathed a sigh of relief when the silo was filled and they returned to outdoor work. The relief didn't last very long, for they found themselves working on the hay baler. The hay was dusty, dried out, and as light as hazel brush. It wouldn't feed into the machine properly and when compressed sent vast clouds of irritating dust into the boys' faces.

Pleasures Offset Troubles.

Altho they have decided that farm work is not as idyllic as painted, it does have its compensations. There is that fine golden tan, for example. There is the pride in growing muscles and another inch chest expansion. There is a ravenous appetite, the satisfying of which is a very enjoyable job. There are fresh air, sunshine, wild raspberries in the woods, and, best of all, the knowledge that the job being done is of vital importance to a nation at war.

Constant companions of the hay making crew these days are the crows. They will follow closely behind each machine as it works thru the forage, taking advantage of the countless insects that are scared into flight. Grasshoppers are one of the main delicacies, and the big black birds can be seen hopping about in an ungainly fashion running down the hoppers as they are stirred up.

The GARDEN by Ben Morkland

ONE of the common fables of gardening is that connected with picking or cutting off the first flower buds of such vegetables as peppers, eggplants, cucumbers, and squashes. Some gardeners believe that by eliminating these flower buds they are strengthening the plant stems and foliage, thereby insuring a heavier yield later in the season.

The gardener of the sample plots on the Wheaton farm says there is no basis for this belief, and that gardeners who do eliminate the first blossoms reduce rather than increase plant yields. The earliest crop of tomatoes, for example, almost always is the heaviest and most flavorful, and gardeners eliminate this early harvest by picking off the flower clusters. A general rule to follow in the vegetable garden is to pick off no flowers or fruit buds.

"The Gardener's Diary," a 58 page booklet published by THE TRIBUNE, contains detailed information on the care of tomatoes. The booklet is available from The Tribune Public Service offices, 1 S. Dearborn st., and 435 N. Michigan av., for 15 cents over the counter, 18 cents by mail.

SHOWDOWN NEAR ON ORDERS FOR CIVILIAN GOODS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 10.—The controversy between the joint army and navy chiefs and WPB Chairman Nelson over Nelson's plans to start civilian goods reconversion in at least a small way, tonight appeared headed for a showdown settlement by War Mobilization Director Byrnes.

Asked about reports that the controversy had reached such a point that it is headed for the White House, Byrnes declined to comment, but told reporters at his White House office that he would settle any disputes stemming from Nelson's reconversion plans.

"The war production board is drafting reconversion orders which carry out the policies recently announced by Chairman Nelson," Byrnes said. "If any objection to these orders is raised by any government department or agency the issue will be submitted to me as director of war mobilization and I will promptly decide the issues."

Objections by War Chiefs.

Byrnes was reminded that the joint chiefs of staff already had objected vigorously to Nelson's proposals, but he refused to discuss that fact. He said he had not seen the orders drafted by Nelson. However, it is understood that he was consulted by Nelson before the orders were drawn and he approved, in substance, the general policies outlined. The orders now are before the WPB clearance committee, the last stage before they are signed and made effective.

Nelson, convalescing at his home from pneumonia, is represented as thoroly determined to see the initial reconversion steps taken despite opposition of the army and navy departments and some of his own vice chairmen.

He has contended for months that when plant space, materials and man power are available and their use will not affect war production, more civilian production should be allowed.

Started Over Aluminum.

It was his announcement last month that he would revoke wartime restrictions on civilian use of aluminum and magnesium and allow factories to acquire equipment needed in post-war planning that started the controversy. He has insisted that nothing will be done that will interfere with war production, but this has not satisfied the military leaders.

In their statement Saturday, issued over the signature of Adm. Leahy, they asserted that "issuance of orders at this time which will affect our ability to produce war materials is not consistent with the all-out prosecution of the war."

Nelson has argued that all civilian production cannot be held up until every one is ready to start production.

Possibly because President Roosevelt a year ago warned that public officials who air their disagreements publicly will be retired to private life, Nelson and his WPB associates have kept quiet about the dispute.

Sen. Truman [D., Mo.] chairman of the senate war investigating committee, carried on the fight for Nelson when he asserted the army and navy representatives wanted to create a man power surplus.

REGIONAL OPA OPENS COUPON SORTING OFFICE

After two months' delay, due largely to inability to hire workers, the office of price administration yesterday opened a regional verification center at which ration coupons received from stores and gasoline dealers will be sorted, counted and destroyed.

The center, at 569 E. Illinois st., has 11 employes of 29 who eventually will be hired, Rae E. Walters, regional administrator, said. Equipment to detect counterfeits has been installed, and a shredding machine has been purchased, he said.

The national office of defense transportation yesterday upheld its regional and Chicago offices by denying an appeal by the Coca-Cola Bottling company, 7 E. 73d st., to be allowed to make deliveries to coin operated dispensing machines in war plants oftener than the twice a week schedule permitted by ODT regulations.

The ruling suggested to plant managers that they name certain employes to keep the machines filled and provide storage space for larger quantities of beverages.

Shoe dealers who played odd lot lines on sale yesterday ration free at reduced prices said response of buyers was somewhat heavier than usual at semi-annual sales. The OPA has permitted limited numbers of shoes to be sold at 25 per cent reduction without coupons.

War man power commission officials yesterday held what they said was the first of a series of "pep talks" to war plant workers. William H. Spencer, regional director; Charles P. Casey, state chief, and Lester Brown, metropolitan area director, told 1,000 employes of the Pheowl Manufacturing company, 5700 Roosevelt rd., they were vitally needed in war industry and that they should "work for victory this summer" by maintaining 100 per cent attendance.

DETROIT'S MILK SUPPLIES CUT BY WALKOUT OF 600

Detroit, Mich., July 10 (AP).—A walkout of approximately 600 drivers and inside employes of five Detroit creameries today left an estimated 80,000 families in the area without milk service.

R. A. Campbell, treasurer of the Ira Wilson & Sons Dairy Co., one of the concerns affected, said the strike followed an arbitration committee's report which rejected demands of the AFL teamsters union local No. 155 for a "swing shift."

The five companies now operate six days a week. Company officials said the union demanded a seven day operating schedule with the employes continuing on a six day week but with additional help hired to maintain the extra operation.

Aircraft Parts Held Up.

Cleveland, O., July 10 [Special].—A strike of 48 men at the Cleveland Graphite Bronze company today stopped production of vital aircraft parts in the plant's casting department. The walkout occured when the company sought to transfer men temporarily used for work on a new process to other departments.

NAVAL CADET ACCUSED IN DUAL RAPE CASE

Air Cadet Joseph Daniel Harrington, 20, of Revere, Mass., stationed at the Glenview naval air training station, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of two women who accused him of attacking them Sunday night.

Asst. State's Atty. Theodore Kucewicz ordered Harrington booked on two charges of rape, and to appear for arraignment today in Boy's court.

Kucewicz said one woman told him she accompanied Harrington to the beach after meeting him in a Howard st. bar, that he attacked her, then sent her home in a cab.

The second woman said she met Harrington after the first had been sent home, and also accompanied him to the beach, where she was raped.

SENATE GROUP APPROVES OLDS FOR FPC POST

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—Leland P. Olds, whose political views were the subject of extensive questioning by a special senate subcommittee, has won indorsement of the group by a three to two vote for another five year term on the federal power commission.

Chairman Tunnell [D., Del.] said the vote late Saturday was along party lines; also that the recommendation would be acted on later by the senate interstate and foreign commerce committee.

In closing subcommittee hearings, Olds testified he was neither a Communist nor a member of the American Labor party, and had never written articles for the Communist Daily Worker. These points had come up in questioning.

11 Workers Become Ill After Eating Sandwiches

Eleven employes of the Admiral Radio company plant at 4150 Knox av. became ill last night after eating corned beef sandwiches delivered to the plant by a catering company. They were taken to St. Anne's hospital, 4900 Thomas st., where it was reported that all 11 probably would be released today. Samples of the sandwiches were taken to the city health department laboratory for analysis.

STATE STUDYING SHARP DROP IN WATER SUPPLIES

Emergency at Maywood to Be Ended Tonight.

Bring Own Water

Cleveland, O., July 10 (AP).—Officials of the Fisher Body Aircraft plant No. 2 today requested 10,000 employes on late afternoon and night shifts to bring their own drinking water as pressure in company mains has decreased and the Cleveland water department shut off some west side service in the city's 17th day of drouth. Spokesmen for the plant, which manufactures subassemblies for the B-29 Super Fortress, said pressure in company mains had decreased to two pounds, with 30 pounds considered a safe minimum. Other war plants in the area reported slight changes in water supply.

The rapid lowering of water supplies in Illinois has become a serious problem that may become worse unless conservation measures are adopted and new sources are tapped, J. J. Woltmann, acting chief of the state water survey division, disclosed yesterday.

Altho the situation is not considered alarming by water experts, Woltmann said, the water survey division is concerned and has been studying the problem for the last four years. He said the drop in underground well levels since the war has not resulted from natural causes, but "is simply a matter of pumping the water away more rapidly than it is replenished."

Maywood Emergency Met.

Woltmann's disclosure was made in connection with the water shortage in Maywood last week when the level of wells supplying the community of 30,000 dropped and caused the breakdown of two pumps. The emergency has been met by obtaining water from neighboring towns and by prohibiting lawn sprinkling and unnecessary use of water.

Maywood officials said yesterday that by tonight the last pump will be repaired and the water supply will return to normal. They added, however, that Maywood is planning to obtain all its water from Chicago and use the wells only as reserves.

Earle K. Broberg, Maywood president, announced after a conference with Public Works Commissioner Hewitt that he had completed negotiations for obtaining water from Chicago. He said that contracts for constructing a $142,000 water main will be let today and work will begin at once.

The new main will be connected to the main at 9th av. and Iowa st. in Melrose Park which was built recently to supply the suburb and the Buick aviation engine plant.

Million Gallons Daily.

The 20 inch Maywood pipe line will be 8,300 feet long and will supply the village with an estimated one million gallons daily. The line is expected to be completed within 60 days. Maywood will pay Chicago 7.36 cents a thousand gallons and, it is expected, a rental of 1½ cents a thousand to Melrose Park for the use of its section of main. Broberg said that at present Melrose Park is charging Maywood 20 cents a thousand for the 400,000 gallons daily being supplied during the emergency.

Woltmann said that the underground water supplies of the northeastern section of Illinois, which includes Maywood and several towns near Chicago, are being lowered rapidly. The cause of this, he explained, is the increased use of water by war plants and communities whose populations have expanded.

Points to Other Areas.

Woltmann said similar problems exist in such areas as East St. Louis and Peoria, where war plants and distilleries have disrupted the normal supply. He added that for the state as a whole the water supply situation is satisfactory.

The most feasible solution of the problem, Woltmann asserted, lies in conservation of water by both industry and individuals. He urged war plants to reuse water as much as possible and said some plants and communities near Chicago might find it practicable to obtain lake water.

FLEMING PICKED FOR 10TH TERM AS LIBRARY HEAD

Anton Vanek was reëlected vice president for his seventh consecutive term. Librarian Carl Roden told the board that library employes have subscribed for $75,276.25 worth of war bonds in the fifth war loan drive in which the library quota was $50,194.

WORK CERTIFICATES DOUBLED FOR SCHOOL STUDENTS 14 TO 16

Most of the available school pupils 16 years old and over have jobs and business and industry are dipping deeper into the supply of children 14 to 16 years old, according to figures released yesterday by the board of education. In June, the month of heaviest demand, approximately 10,500 work certificates were issued both this year and last, but permits to pupils 14 to 16 years old more than doubled this June, rising from 2,705 to 5,950.

Since Jan. 1, 39,453 permits have been issued. The 16,350 total for June alone indicated that the record of 32,000 permits issued in June, and August last year will be surpassed this year, a spokesman said.

A sharp rise in student employment since the United States entered the war was shown by the following figures for June: Certificates to applicants 16 years and over: 1941—2,284; 1942—2,541; 1943—10,415; 1944—10,500. For applicants under 16: 1941—287; 1942—323; 1943—2,705, and 1944—5,950.

Sheriff Reports 16 Dog Bite Cases Listed in June

Sixteen dog bite cases were reported to the sheriff's highway police in June, Sheriff Michael F. Mulcahey announced yesterday. No human rabies cases have been found in Chicago this year, but the city health department has found rabies in 13 dog heads, he said.

ATTORNEY AND 4 INDICTED FOR FRAUD BY MAIL

Atty. Jay I. Rosenberg and four other persons were indicted by the federal grand jury yesterday on charges of using the mails in an alleged scheme to defraud stockholders of the La Vergne Building corporation.

Others named in the indictment are Milton Robert Schachtman, a certified public accountant at 201 N. Wells st.; Nathan Futterman, also a C. P. A., living at the Victoria hotel, 334 S. Clark st.; Joseph Springer of 521 N. Homan av., and Harry Marans of 406 S. Hamlin av. Springer and Marans are said to be real estate speculators.

Schachtman and Futterman were named June 1 with Rosenberg in a federal indictment charging them with using the mails to defraud to acquire stock of the Keystone Apartment building, a 52 apartment structure at 4026-34 N. Keystone av.

22 Convicts Are Denied Writs of Habeas Corpus

Petitions of 22 convicts in state penal institutions for writs of habeas corpus were dismissed yesterday by Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan. He ruled that the court lacked jurisdiction to act upon the petitions. The convicts all had sought freedom on grounds that their constitutional rights had been violated. Asst. Atty. Gen. Hector Broullet said that hundreds of similar cases are pending before federal courts in Chicago.

LOBBYIST TELLS COURT HE BRIBED 17 LEGISLATORS

Mason, Mich., July 10 [Special].—Maj. Charles F. Hemans, former Democratic regent of the University of Michigan, today testified in the legislative graft conspiracy trial that as a paid lobbyist he bribed 17 of the 22 defendants with money supplied by the other five.

The defense then began its cross-examination, attacking his credibility as a witness. Five of the defendants are officials of finance companies charged with hiring Hemans to corrupt legislators during the 1939 session. The other defendants are past and present members of the legislature.

Hemans testified under questioning by Special Prosecutor Kim Sigler that the bribes he paid to the 17 men totaled $3,150.

He named former Rep. John F. Hamilton as one of his assistants and said he was "worth" the $500 paid to him for distributing the bribes to influence legislators' votes on bills affecting finance companies.

Hemans said he paid "$2,000 or $3,000" to and thru Hamilton, who, after leaving the legislature, served a prison sentence on a charge of accepting bribes as a member of the Detroit common council. Hamilton has been granted immunity from prosecution, but has not been certified as a prosecution witness in this case.

French Groups Here Will Join in Bastille Fete

BY JUDITH CASS.

THE patriotic red, white, and blue brochures announcing a celebration of Bastille day Friday at Pilsen park, 3100 W. 26th st., herald the first joint gathering in several years of all the French groups in Chicago. Robert Valeur, who heads the French information and press services in New York, is coming west for the gala "fete champetre, jeux, pique-nique, diner, bal et vente de bons de la victoire," starting at 4 p. m. at the park.

Preceding the 7 p. m. banquet at which M. Valeur will speak there will be a reception for him and for Henri de Lageneste, agent in Chicago for the provisional government of France, and Mme. de Lageneste. Dinner reservations must be made by tomorrow, but there also will be "bar et sandwiches à des prix populaires."

Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, president of France Forever, will be on hand for the celebration, as difficult travel conditions caused her to give up her idea of going east to share in the excitement over Gen. Charles de Gaulle's arrival in this country and a reception which France Forever gave for him in New York. The Brewsters' Lake Forest home is enlivened these days by the presence of their grandchildren, Kate Hodges, here for the summer with her mother, Mrs. Duncan Hodges, and Edward L. Brewster Jr., who remained in Lake Forest when his mother returned to Baltimore, Md., to put the young Brewsters' new house in order. Young Edward's father, who is stationed with the navy on an atoll in the Pacific, recently became a lieutenant commander.

Proceeds from the Bastille day celebration will go toward French war work. Also striking a hopeful note among friends of France is the announcement that at 11 a. m. Friday M. de Lageneste will revive the custom of receiving the French people of the city at the consulate, suite 618 in the Palmolive building.

Wedding News.

A party which Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Greenfield of Evanston had planned last Saturday to announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie, to Ensign Samuel A. L. Season Shaping Up.

According to the Max Gordon office, Ruth [no relation] Gordon will be coming along in her comedy, "Over Twenty-One," to open at the Harris about the middle of September. Contingent, of course, on what "Kiss and Tell" decides to do by that time. Miss Gordon is taking seven weeks off, re-opening in Detroit Aug. 28, but she isn't necessarily resting. Having started to write plays, she can't stop, and Mr. Gordon thinks the first act of her new one, "Journey to a Star," is fine.

Ruth Gordon.

Meanwhile, Hugh Marlowe, who has been a rumor for the Elliott Nugent role in our company of "The Voice of the Turtle," is a fact. He will play opposite K. T. Stevens, and it would be interesting casting, as well as a friendly gesture toward the Marlowe family, if the Audrey Christie role went to his wife, Edith Atwater, often mentioned for that very part. Miss Atwater is now in California with "Tomorrow the World" but plans to withdraw in time for the new season's casting. Mr. Marlowe was last here as leading man to Gertrude Lawrence in "Lady in the Dark," playing the tamer of the boss lady. Now under contract to M-G-M, he will appear with Lana Turner in "Marriage Is a Private Affair" and with Greer Garson in "Mrs. Parkington."

First of the Theater Guild plays to arrive probably will be Chekhov's "The Cherry Orchard," in the revival by Eva Le Gallienne and Margaret Webster which co-stars Miss Le Gallienne and Joseph Schildkraut. Just before Luther Adler left town with the all too early closing of "Uncle Harry," they asked him to join the cast as Lopahin, the part played in New York last season by Stefan Schnabel, son of the pianist, Artur Schnabel. Before he left for California to visit his wife, Sylvia Sidney, and their small son, Mr. Adler said he didn't know the role [which would be right for him], but if "Uncle Harry" doesn't reopen, the chances are good that he will investigate it. "The Cherry Orchard" is penciled into the Blackstone, but you understand that penciled means easily erased.

"Merry Widow" Next.

A sudden change of operetta schedule at the Civic Opera house puts "The Merry Widow" on deck for July 21, replacing "Countess Maritza" as the successor to "Wildflower." The cast will be announced later. This may dispose of the rumored booking of the Jan Kiepura production, which reopened last night in San Francisco and was expected to arrive here about September. Marta Eggerth returns to the title role July 31 in Los Angeles.

Odds and Ends.

"School for Brides" will close at the Civic theater July 29 and reopen at the Royale in New York Aug. 1. . . . Mary Bartholmess, daughter of Richard Bartholmess and Mary Hay, will be the ingenue with Zasu Pitts in "Ramshackle Inn." . . . Eleanor Steber, who sings at Grant park July 19, has been invited by Mayor Kelly to sing "The Star Spangled Banner" at the opening of the Democratic convention. . . . During the convention its keynoter, Gov. Kerr of Oklahoma, will be honored when the flag of his state hangs in the Erlanger theater lobby in tribute from "Oklahoma!"

Need of Useful Furnishings for Homes Is Told

BY EDITH WEIGLE.

Home furnishings merchandise that is designed to give better service, that offers greater usefulness, will be most sought after in post-war America, Elizabeth Gordon, editor of House Beautiful magazine, predicted yesterday in a luncheon talk before members of the Fashion Group and visitors to the summer markets at the Merchandise Mart.

Miss Gordon, introduced by Margot Schuyler of Montgomery Ward, said that the actual style of a piece of furniture would not be so important as its practical qualities. If a chest of drawers, for example, is built with an outer surface that is impervious to spilled perfumes, nail polish, and other liquids, and if it is equipped with drawers specially divided into sections correctly sized for belts, costume jewelry, handkerchiefs, and scarfs, as well as with shallow, sliding trays for delicate blouses, and moreover, if those drawers are guaranteed never to stick, always to slide easily in and out, that unit of furniture will be popular whether it is made in the traditional or modern style, she said.

An object should be designed from the inside out, not from the outside in, Miss Gordon said. Any good designer will see that beauty and grace are incorporated, and that takes care of its style. But first of all, it must be functionally superior to competing models if it is to sell well.

Miss Gordon asserted that our age is one of conflict between technological advancement and "the status quo," between change and the attitude of let's-keep-things-as-they-are. Sound, evolutionary [not revolutionary] change should be the aim of designers and manufacturers in our post-war world if "they don't want to be left at the post," she declared.

The mere addition of a few new materials, such as plastics, to the manufacture of home furnishings is not going to be enough to put merchandise in great demand, Miss Gordon said. Each piece must be fundamentally better than it was before, and must give better performance if it is to sell in volume.

More than 200 teachers and school officers attended.

Women in War Work

By Dorothy Johnson

Miss Ruth Steel, a recent graduate of flight training at Avenger field, Sweetwater, Tex., with the WASPs [women air force service pilot] is at home in Chicago on a 10 day leave visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David A. Steel, 8019 Kimbark av.

Miss Ruth Steel.

Miss Steel became a full-fledged WASP more than a week ago and will report soon to Minter field, Bakersfield, Cal., for an assignment which she hopes will be in engineering test piloting.

Before entering the WASP program last December, she had flown for three years. A graduate of the University of Chicago and of St. Louis university's army air forces' radio engineering school, she also had been a radio mechanics instructor at the air forces' technical training command activity in the Stevens hotel.

The WASP is accepting no new enlistments. Trainees now undergoing the seven month instruction will continue to be graduated, a class each month, until January.

Thirteen young women of junior high school age have come to the rescue of the nursing staff of Passavant hospital. They are devoting many hours of their summer vacations to making beds, arranging flowers, running errands, and doing numerous other routine duties, thus enabling both nurses and Red Cross nurses' aids to devote themselves more directly to the needs of patients.

One of the 13 volunteers, Nancy Green, daughter of Gov. and Mrs. Green, is spending the summer in Chicago but will return to her studies in the Springfield, Ill., High school in September. Eight of the white-uniformed workers are freshmen in the Girl's Latin school: Sally Howell, Helen Troy, Susan Vogel, Janet Silber, Susan Hill, Joan Dunham, Joy Blossom, and Gwen Ellis.

Nancy and Aria McMillen represent the Foxcroft school in Virginia in the volunteer contingent. Sally Hennessey and Phyllis Pierce are the other aids, most of whom work at Passavant from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. every day. Nancy Green is on the job until 3 p. m.

Understaffed St. Luke's hospital also is getting substantial assistance from women volunteers. Women war workers of the International Harvester company and Carnegie-Illinois Steel company are giving the humblest kind of service, but the type for which St. Luke's is grateful.

Seventy-five women from the two companies work evenings, about six of them each day of the week, washing dishes in the kitchen. Several women employes of the Northern Trust company also are pitching in with the suds and towels to keep the supply of white crockery available on cabinet shelves. These volunteers receive their suppers and carfare from St. Luke's and work from 5:15 p. m. to 7:30 p. m.

Dress Institute Parades Smart Fall Ensembles

BY REA SEEGER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, July 10.—The third annual press week for American designers, sponsored by the New York Dress institute, opened today with a display of new fall and winter fashions presented by Spectator Sports—incidently a most misleading name for such clothes, which clicked at once with all the assembled fashion editors of the nation.

Bruno, the designer back stage, sent out some of the smartest and typically American figure clothes imaginable. His most amusing idea was the ensemble in soft heather checks, with the amusement provided not by the checks or material or color but by the walking sticks, each meticulously covered with the same patterned and colored fabric as the suit. He also included gloves and hat to match stick and suit.

One such country ensemble, ideal for strolling down leafy lanes or country roads or dashing into town for a shopping trip, was a most irrelevant combination of smooth racetrack checks with a Daniel Boone fringe along the collar, pocket flaps, and cuffs of the matching gloves, and the swank of a Beau Brummel walking stick, also sheathed in the checked wool.

Stunning fall colors were highlighted, such as zinnia gold and zinnia purple and red, good lusty colors right from a bed of glorious fall zinnias. A clover green tone was another triumphantly strong shade. But the most flattering colors were the heather tones in many fascinating combinations.

Coats that fitted to define the normal waistline were breath-taking because of high, strong color and the dash of the back flared silhouette, and the sharply outlined beauty of the lapels and the cuffs of the long sleeves. Bows at the back below the belt are something to think about, even on the long fitted coats.

Cocktail dresses, afternoon dresses, and some very exciting new evening gowns completed this diverting Spectator Sports collection by Bruno. The last two on parade literally stole the show. Both were made of awning stripe, two-color taffeta. Both had very wide, full skirts.

One of these, of two shades of blue, was a strapless wonder, with a big petaled flower of the taffeta on each side of the deep decolletage. The other, of gray and black alternate stripes, had a very sophisticated square-cut neckline that fitted more tightly than skin, making a bodice top to dramatize the exceedingly wide swirl of the floor-length skirt.

A Normal Youngster Is Active

(Story in adjoining column.)

There's seldom a dull moment for this little fellow, or for his parents. But a child needs to be active, Mrs. Bevans emphasizes in her article today. [Pennebaker & Ryan Photo.]

Unlike Adult, a Child Just Can't Sit Still

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

[Copyright: 1944: By News Syndicate Co., Inc.]

Let me give you some extracts from letters typical of those I receive from many mothers of young children.

"Billy, my small son, is never still for a moment when he's awake. He goes from one activity to another with a speed and an endurance that simply wear me out. He is never quiet and when I try to make him sit really still in his high chair, because I think it's for his good, within two seconds he is either squirming and endeavoring to stand up, or he is yelling lustily to be lifted out . . ." writes one mother.

"Never having had anything to do with children before," says another mother, "I wonder if the ceaseless activity of my little daughter is normal. She is curious about everything and investigates, as far as she is able, anything that catches her fancy without giving me an opportunity to get my housework done. When I scold or spank her, she seems bewildered, but I must do something to curb her. . . ."

When you expect your child to be quiet and do nothing, on order, do you realize how great is the small child's need for activity?

He can't be quiet, if by being quiet you mean sitting immovable, doing nothing, when you request it. He may, of his own accord, sit still when watching something indoors or outdoors which catches his fancy. He may play quietly sometimes, if he is absorbed in the plaything at hand. He may sit more or less motionless as you read or tell him a story. And he may learn to be fairly quiet during a rest period.

But he can't, actually can't, just sit still and do nothing, when you request it or think he should. He is not like a grownup. We who have stopped growing physically can scarcely realize the state of mind and body of a child. It is only after watching them sympathetically that it dawns on us that their muscles and their minds need constant activity. In fact, neither growth nor development can go on without it.

It is our cue then to see that our young children have a chance to satisfy this need for climbing, running, and investigating the world close at hand. Everything is new and wonderfully attractive to them—not prosaic and commonplace, as it may sometimes seem to us. If we feel that for their own good, or our practical convenience, they should be quiet, it is up to us to provide quiet play, or actual rest or sleep periods.

"You and Your Young Child" is a booklet to help you understand a child's need for activity. It is 15 cents by mail. Address Mrs. Gladys Huntington Bevans, Chicago Tribune, or pick up a copy for 15 cents at one of the Tribune public service offices.

Thru the Looking Glass

More about the frankly fat woman—and please understand we sometimes think there ought to be more like her. The woman who is fat just because she is lazy and continues to be lazy after she gets fat is pretty ghastly, we'll admit, and we have seen cases where it ought to be ground for divorce.

But in all fairness, we must say that the stout woman who ISN'T lazy, but is stout because that's what life has done to her and who, in turn, has made the best of it, is very often a most agreeable woman—preferable, many times, to the brittle critter who is discontented, nervous, half starved, and so concerned with her waistline that you wonder what in heaven has happened to the sense of values a woman of maturity should develop.

If you're over 40 and fat, there are some rules you should follow just because you are fat. The first, as we said yesterday, is to be clean, every minute and in every phase of grooming. Coming after that first, all important precept are these suggestions:

Dress with dignity, not coyness. Avoid the ruffle and the picture hat.

Keep your makeup to the minimum. Powder and lipstick are probably all you need in addition to the sheerest of makeup bases. Think twice before you apply cheek rouge or eye makeup generously.

Your physical outline is effulgent; keep your coiffure line severe and put shine on your hair, which should be clean and crisp all the time.

Don't use heavy perfumes. Light, clean scents are your dish.

Plump hands shouldn't be overly adorned, not even with conspicuous nail lacquer. Rings should be unobtrusive and nails should be groomed, but not so startlingly that they call attention to overplump fingers.

Bathe, and bathe, and bathe again in the course of the day. You'll perspire far more than the slim woman and your battle against the odor of perspiration about your person is a real one. Your deodorant is a staunch secret weapon.

Keep your shoes shined, the heels even.

Wear dark colors, with white touches. But be sure they're very white.

It's the crispness of detail that counts for the frankly fat woman. Fat ceases to be a structural defect if you offset bulk with meticulous, crisp embroidery in the way of grooming. ELEANOR NANGLE.

Russian Movie Has Little to Recommend It

"TAXI TO HEAVEN."

By Mae Tinee.

Good Morning!

"Taxi to Heaven," announces a press notice, "is musical comedy with an operatic flavor."

Well, yes. If you don't lay too much stress on the "comedy."

The story, told and sung, is that of a pretty singer, Natasha, who loves and is loved by a middle aged transport flyer, Baranov, and is herself the heart's desire of a young operatic star, Svetlovidov, who's a Sinatra of sorts, in that he's the idol of adolescent maidens who attend his performances in hordes, lunge shrieking at him when he makes his curtain bows and so consistently camp on his doorstep that to escape them he has to exit by fire escapes and the like. This young fellow, while he covets Natasha, is really in love only with his pampered, hypochondriacal self which he guards with care, omitting vigilance as to draughts, etc., only long enough to render "Pagliacci" and the like.

Natasha's parents are on his side, but the lady knows her own mind and the quiet, diffident — and, I thought, mighty good-looking Baranov gets his innings . . . War is introduced at the end to bring the plot up to date . . . You'll like Natasha.

This picture will never make history, for it is unexcitingly developed and at times both photography and the players' makeup are terrible . . . English titles are few. There are, however, some charming musical numbers which you are apt to enjoy if you can overlook S's gaucheries.

See you soon.

Looking at Hollywood

By Hedda Hopper

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., July 10.—It couldn't happen to a nicer man—the ovation given Bill Farnum at the ball park on his birthday. When Bill was introduced, the crowd cheered. And as he reached the mike, a great hush settled over that crowd, just as it did in that famous poem "Casey at the Bat." Some day one of our producers will come along and realize that Bill Farnum, who's done so much for our business, is the male counter-part of the late Marie Dressler and worth millions, just as she was. Everybody said she had passed her prime, yet look what happened to her. One of the nicest things ever said to Farnum came from Dr. Willsie Martin of the Wilshire Methodist church: "You are in my garden of memories—it's the only garden in the world where the flowers never die." . . . Fay Holden had a request from the boys up in the Aleutians: "Please send us a picture. Our walls are completely covered with pinup girls. They need a chaperone."

Gravel Throat Goes Glamorous.

Andy Devine is mortified at the way he looked in "Queen of the Nile." They practically had to set fire to his dressing room to get him out. He wore a Buster Brown wig, curly beard, and a dress above his knees. After he'd taken the ribbing of the company, he turned to Maria Montez and said, "They just had to get sex appeal in this picture some way, and I'm furnishing it." . . . Wherever Clifton Webb goes, people point a finger at him and say, "You're just the fellow to do Somerset Maugham's 'Razor Edge.' When are you going to begin it?" Clifton would like nothing better. I asked how he liked himself in "Laura." He replied, "Frankly, I'm pleased." Scotching all those rumors that Otto Preminger was difficult to work with, Webb says he's the one person who knows exactly what he wants and never stops until he gets it.

Time Will Tell About Cooper.

Gary Cooper didn't make the picture with Sam Wood because his wife's stepfather, Paul Shields, persuaded him to form an independent company with Bill Goetz, and Cooper listened. For seven and a half years, Cooper has been guided by Charles Ledcraft, and in all that time they had but one argument, which ended when Coop said, "I did not say that, Charlie." It's well known that Gary never wants to make the pictures that are best for him. That included "Sergeant York." But Ledcraft has always been able to persuade him to go ahead and do them. I wonder if Paul Shields will have the same kind of judgment and influence. . . . Macoco leads the stage door Johnnies for Pat Paree, who replaced Christine Ayres in "The Ziegfeld Follies." . . . Who said gentlemen prefer blondes? Only Lucille Casey, a brunette, got a long term contract from the "Ziegfeld Follies" picture.

Grounded in Valley of the Moon.

Michael O'Shea was thrown at the Valley of the Moon rodeo last week, so Hunt Stromberg has requested him to stay off horses. Hunt has had lots of trouble with his horse lovers. He gave a beautiful horse to Ketti Frings. She was promptly thrown and broke three ribs. . . . Larry Adler teaching Lauritz Melchior how to play the harmonica, with June Allyson horning in. . . . Got a description of the Douglas plane built for F. D. R. It's supposed to have cost a million dollars. Wait until you see pictures of it. It's dilly-dally super-duper. . . . Dean Murphy, who can even imitate the bray of a donkey, got himself a new contract at Metro, and goes into "Frankie from Frisco." I don't know why we're continually antagonizing San Franciscans, but we are. . . . Xavier Cugat and his orchestra were the first to be signed by Walter Bachelor and Monte Proser for their new "Copacabana" film.

Sing Praises of Dewey and Warren.

Tom Dewey and Earl Warren would have been tickled to hear the nice things said about them at the Cheever Cowdins. It was a good G. O. P. get-together, with the Preston Davies, Harris Hammonds, Mrs. Frank Shields, Walter Van Pelt, and other loyal Republicans. The consensus was that with proper organization, Dewey is on his way to the White House. . . . Marjorie Reynolds' husband, Capt. Jack, is head of a combat crew of motion picture photographers in Normandy. . . . Ben Blue, before leaving for his overseas U. S. O. tour, received a parachute from a fan with this note: "It hasn't been tested, but I think it's reliable. It should be—I made it myself."

'One Is Missing' . . . . By H. Vernor Dixon

(Copyright: 1944: By H. Vernor Dixon.)

SYNOPSIS: Camouflaged for jungle warfare, Capt. Jed Reed calls to his companion, Bart, a giant clad in loin cloth. Hugh Wescott St. John, engineer, London, Manila, and Hong Kong, takes them to a smashed airplane where they meet Tom Riddell and Richard Cary, pilots; Scott Banning, his wife, Ellen, and Mae Nolan, whose dancing partner, Jimmy Taylor, was killed in the crash. Jed is unsympathetic and curious as to how they shall die. Supposedly on their way to China, they crashed. Banning expects to buy his way out of the jungle. Jed assures him there is no escape, as they are surrounded by the Japanese. Jed, son of a missionary, whose life has been spent in the South Seas, received his commission in the United States. As a demolitions expert, most of his fighting was done behind the lines, blowing up bridges, roads, storage, and munitions dumps. Jed offers to share the wrecked schooner he and Bart occupy. Banning, an American financier, manufactures airplanes—some used by the Japs. Riddell is his chief test pilot. The party was searching for a small island in the gulf where a French submarine was to meet them, but a storm blew them off their course. Aware of Ellen's femininity, Mae warns her to keep hands off Jed. Ellen piques Jed's interest. Banning wonders if the schooner can be repaired. Bart shows Mae how impossible escape is and tells her Jed had disposed of a large estate to various missionary schools and societies to continue his life in the South Seas, that he is not cold blooded, but became a killing machine by the circumstance of war. Eleven miles up the coast is a Japanese base for patrol boats. A huge tiger kills Richard Cary and carries off his body. Jed is not affected and Mae, hysterical, accuses him of being hard.

INSTALMENT XIV.
NON-CONFORMIST.

Ellen said huskily, "Two people, a man and a woman—they are always important, anywhere. Perhaps more so—in a jungle. Everything changes. All of the artificialities are stripped from people and they stand before you naked. You see them as they are and not as they try to be. Frankly, I have never seen a real person before."

"Meaning me?" Jed smiled.

"Yes. Perhaps I am being utterly shameless, captain, but I—I can't help it. This is the first time we have been alone. And I have wanted to talk to you—so much. The others almost drive me mad. Scheming, plotting, scheming. As if they could do anything to help themselves, without you."

"There isn't much any of us can do, including me."

She said, "I doubt that. I believe you can do something. But, you know—" She paused, to better accent her next words. "It may seem odd to say, but I really don't know if I want to escape, Jed." She looked at him with half veiled eyes, waiting.

He stared fixedly at her for a long moment, then nodded his head toward the stream. The rhino's head was in the air, sniffing the wind. She turned suddenly and disappeared into the jungle with the young calf at her heels. Jed pointed toward the sky at the far edge of the jungle. A flock of birds of all kinds was circling over the trees. Jed remarked casually, "Someone is coming down that trail."

Her heart started to pound as he took her arm and stepped over the fallen tree trunk. They moved back into the ferns and closed the great leaves before them. The whole clearing was open to their view, but they could not be seen.

He said, "You may talk if you wish. It will take some time for them to reach the clearing, whoever it is."

She looked at his hand upon her arm and then into his eyes, at the cool light shining in their depths. The fear melted from her and she laughed, a tinkling little laugh. He smiled at her, obviously admiring her courage. They were facing each other, close, and Ellen's hands slid up his broad chest to rest upon his shoulders. His arms went about her waist, crushing her to him, lifting her from her feet, his hard mouth pressing upon hers.

When his arms finally released her she held to him for a moment and then stepped back. Her eyes were shining and, tho she tried to hide it, there was a triumphant smile tugging at her lips.

"O, Jed——"

His left hand grabbed her shoulder and his right closed over her mouth. "Shut up." He twisted his head about to look across the clearing, then released her and picked up his rifle. In a second he had vanished into the jungle. Ellen knew better than to move.

At first she felt like laughing. It had been so easy, almost too easy. She had been so sure that he would be no different from other men. Now it was proven.

Now he would be infatuated with her; perhaps, or better still, probably in love with her. She would lead him on with an occasional caress, or hint at familiarity, then her favors would become fewer and far between. When his impatience and anxiety reached their peak, then she could become demanding and force him to do as she wished.

Keeping Tom Riddell in a state of perpetual anxiety for the past two years had not been difficult. It would be just as simple with Jed Reed. Only, now, time was important. The French submarine would not remain at that island forever. The affair would have to be condensed into a matter of days.

It was up to Jed to get them out of Malaya. He doubtlessly could do it, if he wanted to try. It was up to her to see that he did want to try.

Ellen had never doubted her power over a man, any man. She smiled, now, as she thought of it. Then slowly that smile faded and disappeared. Something was missing in the familiar pattern, something vital and important. For one thing the look in his eyes just before he had kissed her. His gaze had been flat and hard and thru the narrowed lids had appeared twin lights of momentary amusement.

Ellen gasped. It was unbelievable, but it was nevertheless true. The man had actually been amused. Then when he left her he had simply slipped away without the slightest indication of any concern for her safety. The blunt, inescapable fact that she, the beauty of Ellen Banning, had occupied only a very small part of his mind and then but for a fraction of time. That could never be fitted into the familiar pattern, or anything closely approaching it.

Ellen frowned and viciously bit at her lower lip. What sort of man was he? It was abnormal for a man to act like that. It broke all the rules. No man had the right to be amused with Ellen Banning in his arms.

Then she was afraid. Could the jungle already have taken toll of her beauty? Her hand flew to her face, caressing the skin with cool fingertips. It was as smooth as ever.

She remembered when she had last looked in a mirror, a few hours before, and was reassured.

Ellen was puzzled and strangely excited. Nothing like this had ever happened to her before. Men had always followed a certain predictable pattern. Now it was shattered by a grim jungle killer, a renegade; a man whom she could never possibly have associated with in the civilized world.

Why, she gasped, the whole thing is incredible, preposterous. Then she thought of that kiss and the excitement within her became stronger.

It was perhaps 20 minutes later when she heard a high pitched cry and, seconds later, a scream. She shuddered and pressed her hands to her eyes. When she again looked across the clearing Jed was emerging from the jungle trail. He beckoned to her and she stepped out of the ferns and joined him.

She looked back the way he had come and asked, "What was it?"

"A two man patrol; Japanese. They were coming this way. One of them talked before he was—uh—liquidated."

She stared at him, the hot blood pounding at her temples, and silently walked at his side as they made their way back toward the cove. Then the scenes of the past few moments returned to her mind and she stole a glance at Jed. He had kissed her one moment and killed two men the next. It was not real. It was too fantastic to be real. The man, himself, was unreal. Then she looked at the sharp parang hanging at his side, the pouch of grenades, the hair rope about his waist, the green streaks of paint on his bronzed face and the deadly Springfield held in the crook of his arm.

She stumbled and he caught her arm. The palm of his hand was dry and hot. Ellen frowned and bit her lip. She wondered what it would be like, just the two of them in the jungle, without the others. Suddenly she was frightened.

Woman Offers a Woman for Wallace Job

If the Democrats want to retire Henry A. Wallace from the Vice Presidency, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Conkey, the party national convention's official hostess, won't be caught without a candidate. The veteran Cook county commissioner and national Democratic committeewoman from Illinois yesterday said that she was set to boost Rep. Mary Norton of Jersey City, N. J., for the post.

Mrs. Elizabeth Conkey.

"I'm not trying to replace Mr. Wallace," she said. "But if there should be a change, there are many women who would like to see Mrs. Norton get the post." As one of her duties as convention hostess, Mrs. Conkey has completed arrangements for a breakfast to honor Mrs. Norton on her 20th year as a member of congress. It will be held July 20 in the Stevens hotel. Mrs. Henry Wallace, Mrs. Stephen Early, Mrs. Paul V. McNutt, Mrs. Rexford Guy Tugwell of Puerto Rico will be among the women Democratic leaders to be guests.

Smartly turned out in black and beige, the convention hostess said yesterday at the Morrison hotel that it was too bad women weren't more prominent in government service. She said she'd like to see women like Harriett Elliott, dean of the Woman's college of North Carolina, as secretary of the interior; some one like Mrs. Nellie Tayloe Ross, who was governor of Wyoming and has been directer of the mint for 10 years, as secretary of the treasury; some one like Mrs. Ruth Bryan Rohde, former minister to Denmark, as secretary of state.

When some one pointed out that she hadn't mentioned a job for Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Mrs. Conkey explained: "I'm saving her. She's my candidate for the peace table. She's the best qualified woman in the country." Mrs. Conkey also said she was "very enthusiastic" about the fine job Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins had done.

She had a word for Clare Booth Luce, Republican congresswoman from Connecticut. "She had the greatest opportunity any woman ever had, and failed," Mrs. Conkey said. "Even the Republican women tell me they were disheartened by her talk."

Women aren't nearly as politically prominent as they should be, she said. She lamented that job selection was so often on the basis of sex, rather than on ability. In this, her second consecutive convention as official hostess, Mrs. Conkey said expected more than 500 women delegates and alternates. "This will be the largest representation of women ever to participate in a national Democratic convention," she said.

A dinner for national Democratic committeewomen is planned for July 19 at the Palmer House. A tea and fashion show will be held July 20 at Marshall Field & Co.'s store. Two days of activities are planned, Mrs. Conkey said, because the national committee is hopeful of winding up the convention in that time.

The Inquiring Camera Girl

[The Tribune will pay $5 for each interesting question submitted by a reader and used by The Tribune. Today's question was submitted by Dorothy L. Butler of Los Angeles, Cal.]

THE QUESTION.

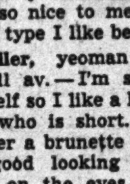

What type of U. S. O. hostess do you like the best?

WHERE ASKED.

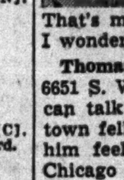

U. S. O. center at 131 S. Wabash av.

THE ANSWERS.

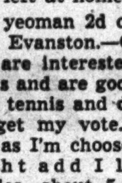

Floyd Swink, yeoman 2d class, 6030 N. Oakley av.—There's a hostess here at the U. S. O. who always answers every question courteously and promptly and has a genuine smile to go with it. She does favors for me as if it were a pleasure and not a duty. They've all been so nice to me it's hard to say which type I like best.

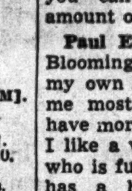

Louis Kahnweiler, yeoman 2d class, 5326 Cornell av.—I'm short myself so I like a hostess who is short. I'd prefer a brunette who is good looking and soft on the eyes. Of course, she must be a good dancer and conversationalist, with personality plus. That's my idea of an ideal hostess. I wonder if I'm asking too much.

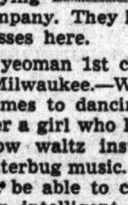

Thomas Lorden, specialist 2d class, 6651 S. Whipple st.—A hostess who can talk to an out of town fellow and make him feel at home in Chicago is first choice with me. When a fellow is away from home and doesn't know any one, it's nice to find a girl who'll treat you like a long lost brother. I prefer a girl like the one I left at home.

Harold Thomas, yeoman 2d class, 311 Elmwood av., Evanston.—Girls who are interested in sports and are good at table tennis and dancing get my vote. As long as I'm choosey, I might add I like blondes—about 5 feet 2, with eyes of blue—with a personality that you can't forget and a sizable amount of brains.

Paul E. Kelly, yeoman 1st class, Bloomington, Ill.—Some one near my own age interests me most because we have more in common. I like a vivacious girl who is full of pep and has a happy, interested look about her, and who makes you think she's enjoying herself in your company. They have some lovely hostesses here.

Stanley Olszyk, yeoman 1st class, 2540 S. 15th pl., Milwaukee.—When it comes to dancing I prefer a girl who likes a slow waltz instead of jitterbug music. She must be able to carry on an intelligent conversation and know what's going on in the world. Then, too, if it isn't expecting too much, I like good looking girls.

Bandmaster in Chicago Schools 30 Years Retires

After 30 years as bandmaster in seven elementary and high schools in Chicago, Harry Dowse, 911 N. Lombard av., Oak Park, has retired. The Instrumental Music Instructors club has presented a trophy to him. Mr. Dowse's last assignment was at Steinmetz High school.

Household Forum

Mrs. Ted S., Chicago—Now that I have been sewing on snap fasteners with buttonhole stitch I find they stay on a lot longer.

Kitty H., Elgin, Ill.—If you want to shorten an electric cord, take a lead pencil and wrap cord tightly around the pencil until you have shortened it so it will at least clear floor. I have found the "curl" holds its shape very well.

Mrs. T. W. Carter, Charleston, W. Va.—Summer bouquets stay fresh longer if flowers are gathered while the morning dew still is on them, and if they are held under water while stems are cut with a sharp, slanting stroke. A slanting cut absorbs more water than a straight one.

White Collar GIRL

BY RUTH MAC KAY

Ye White Collar Girl.

Hear the ringing of the bell—
Lovely bell!
Why she harks so anxiously I cannot tell.
Is she thinking of her dinner
In the crowded pharmacy?
Will her horse come out a winner?
Is her figure getting thinner?
I'm a fellow—don't ask me!
She drinks cokes and cokes and cokes,
And she smokes, and smokes, and smokes!
She will eat a skimpy salad and then say that she feels swell!
When we know darn well, well, well,
She eats sweets from bell to bell!

Does it seem possible that a twelve column comptometer, giving an answer of 13 places, would take 69,185 years to give the answer, 9,999,999,999,999, or all the nines registered in the machine, by striking the number one key in the right hand corner at the rate of 275 strokes per minute? I'd like comments from other comptometer operators.

Homecoming.

The trip home was uneventful except that the train wasn't crowded and roast beef [absent from New York menus] miraculously appeared on the New York Central table d'hote . . . Three girls were bidding the same man good-by at the Grand Central station, but maybe that's what we wimmin folk are coming to . . . A lad, new to the colors, ambled thru the car, grinned amiably and hinted: "You might as well talk to me or I'll get train sick" . . . After that every one talked.

The voices of three passengers carried thru the diner, but died out, exasperatingly, in the midst of tantalizing tales. "The trouble with being a script writer is you work all the time—can't even read the comics without hunting for a gag!" one voice was complaining. "I said to Fred Allen, 'Look, Fred, there aren't any new jokes!' and I gave him Joe Miller's joke book" . . . The three voices tussled with the trials of a gag man, then launched into stories of Allen's famous, lengthy, single-spaced letters . . . stories of Dorothy Parker . . . of George Murphy . . . Frank Fay and how he never got over Barbara Stanwyck . . . "Funny," said one voice, "when your own brother tells you 'Get out—I don't want to see you any more' you believe him, but when a dame tells you—you don't believe her—and you go back till she throws you out!"

A New Yorker with a Hollywood hairdo gazed out of the window at breakfast as we passed thru Gary. "My goodness," she observed brightly, "They have manufacturing here—it must be quite a city!" Her companion yawned. Those at adjacent tables smiled. The train pulled in. "Quite a city"—Chicago—yes—and home.

Sales of Bonds to Individuals 117 Million Shy

Individual sales are shy $117,500,000 of their quota of 277 millions in the fifth war loan drive in Chicago and Cook county, Philip R. Clarke, general chairman of the campaign, said yesterday. He said sales in this group totaled $159,403,000 or 56.46 per cent of the quota.

Clarke added that total sales in all divisions were $810,042,000 or 90.06 per cent of the overall quota of $894,014,000. This included $650,638,000 or 105.52 per cent of the quota in the corporate sales division.

The drive for individual sales will continue thru July 31. Corporate sales were closed Saturday night. Clarke said the figures do not include sales not yet processed.

The city and county figures compared with $1,047,300,000 or 94.6 per cent of the overall quota of $1,107,000,000 for the state of Illinois, according to figures released by Renslow P. Sherer, chairman of the state war finance committee. Individual sales in the state were $251,900,000 or 62.1 per cent of the quota, while corporate sales were $795,400,000 or 113.3 per cent of the quota, Sherer said.

In the block where Hans Haupt, executed Nazi spy formerly lived, residents, who are still "burned up," went over the top by purchasing bonds totaling $10,500 against a $10,000 quota. The block is bounded by Webster av. and Bissell st., and Belden av. and Fremont st. Subscribers celebrated the occasion by burning a picture of Hitler.

Two other blocks reported quotas exceeded. They included the area between 40th pl., 41st st., and Kedzie and Albany avs., and the section bounded by Archer, Trumbull, and St. Louis avs. and 45th st.

Sales totaling $105,590 or 184 per cent of its quota were announced by the City National Bank and Trust company under the payroll savings plan, with 93 per cent of employe participation.

More than 50,000 persons witnessed a bond rally and parade last night in State st. staged by the State Street council and the Medinah temple of the Shrine, featuring drill formations by the Medinah patrol. Gov. Green introduced William G. Stratton, state treasurer, who turned over a check for 5 million dollars, representing part of Illinois' investment in war bonds.

The Western Electric company reported that war workers at its Hawthorne plant are within $32,000 of their goal of $1,400,000. It is the highest goal ever set at the plant. J. N. Cost is head of the war bond committee comprising 500 minute men.

Bobbie Eckardt, 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Eckardt, 6646 N. Trumbull av. turned in his savings of 8,500 pennies yesterday against a $100 bond and "all the extra stamps it will buy."

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 heart	2 diamonds	2 hearts	2 spades
3 clubs	Pass	3 hearts	Pass
6 hearts	Pass	Pass	Pass

West opened the diamond king. Declarer ruffed, toyed with the idea of knocking out the spade ace immediately so that a club could be discarded from dummy, gave up that idea because he was afraid that West might ruff the second or third lead of spades, and finally decided to draw two rounds of trumps. It was a fatal decision. South found it easy to knock out the spade ace, ruff East's diamond return, discard a club from dummy on the third spade, then to cash the club ace and ruff a club—but all this was worth exactly nothing! South now had only one trump; when he used it to reënter his hand so that he could ruff another club and establish the suit, he could not get back finally to cash in the established clubs.

It was all very well to fear that West would ruff one of declarer's spade tricks if he were given the chance, but that was a danger that simply had to be faced. Declarer could not afford to draw more than one round of trumps before knocking out the spade ace and discarding the club from dummy. He needed all the rest of his own trumps for indispensable entries.

BARRETT RULES BOARD WRONG IN TAVERN SURVEY

100 Feet Must Separate Property Lines.

Atty. Gen. Barrett yesterday ruled that the Illinois liquor commission's interpretation of the provision in the dram shop act requiring taverns to be at least 100 feet from any church or school is invalid.

He said the law means it must be at least 100 feet between the property lines of the church and tavern. The liquor control commission had held the proper measurement was from building to building.

"Public officials cannot by rule or regulation change or alter substantive law," the attorney general held.

Applies in Highwood.

He gave his opinion at the request of Lan Haney, state's attorney of Williamson county; but it is directly applicable to the dispute between the Highwood Methodist church and Harold Snavely, proprietor of a tavern at 53 Highwood av., near the church.

At a hearing before the liquor control commission June 29, Max Loeb, chief investigator for the commission, said it was slightly more than 100 feet from entrance to entrance of the two buildings, but slightly less than 100 feet from building line to building line. He termed the law vague, and the commission refused to act, contending the dispute first should be submitted to Mayor Charles Portilla of Highwood.

Church Plans Survey.

Mrs. Lelia Smith, 616 Skokie rd., Highland Park, who represented the church in the hearing before the commission, said yesterday, when advised of Barrett's ruling, that the church plans to have a surveyor determine the distance between the property lines of the church and the tavern and then ask Mayor Portilla to revoke the tavern's license.

She asserted the distance between the property lines will be found to be considerably less than 100 feet.

Snavely has been operating the tavern since May 6, when his brother-in-law, Ald. Fidel Ghini, serving as acting mayor, granted him a license.

Snavely has indicated that in the event of an adverse ruling he will appeal to the courts for an interpretation of the law.

SUBPENA ISSUED FOR LINDHEIMER AS TAX WITNESS

Horace G. Lindheimer, former county treasurer, yesterday was ordered subpenaed to appear before County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki tomorrow as a witness in an action brought by Joseph M. Burke, an assistant state's attorney, to collect $12,000 back taxes on an apartment building at 4301-11 Evans av.

Judge Jarecki said he would order Lindheimer to show cause why he should not be cited for contempt if he fails to appear tomorrow. For several weeks Lindheimer has been evading deputy sheriffs who have been ordered to serve him with a writ to appear before Judge John Prystalski in Circuit court in connection with a debt he allegedly owes a soldier, Sgt. Herbert G. Frehling, a former Chicago realtor. Lindheimer is reported to have visited the County building twice in the last two weeks, but was not seen by the deputies.

Burke is seeking in Judge Jarecki's court to invalidate a lease which he said prevents County Treasurer Schlaeger from collecting more than $200 a month in back taxes from the Metropolitan Trust company, trustees for the building.

CARNIVAL WAIF KILLS BOY, 17, IN CLASH OVER GIRL

Evansville, Ind., July 10 [Special].—After a night in jail, Guy Snellen, 15, a homeless waif who has been traveling with a carnival company, learned today that a boy he stabbed yesterday in a quarrel over a girl had died from his wound.

The news was brought to Snellen by Coroner Edward Dauble, who said the boy was previously unaware that he had inflicted a serious injury on his opponent. The victim was George Allen Oskins, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Oskins of Evansville.

Snellen was arraigned before Judge F. Wendell Lensing of Juvenile court.

Coroner Dauble said the girl over whom the boys fought is Ruth Lang, 15, who lives with her grandmother. She had made the acquaintance of Snellen during the last few days and yesterday afternoon the two went for a bicycle ride.

They stopped at a store to buy popcorn, and Oskins, seated in a parked car across the street, whistled at the girl, according to the coroner. When Snellen came out with the popcorn, Oskins accused him of "calling a name," the coroner said, and a scuffle developed. The stabbing followed.

Capt. Mark Boyle Moved from East Side Station

Police Commissioner Allman disclosed yesterday that he had transferred Capt. Mark Boyle last Saturday from the command of the East Side station to the office of Capt. John Prendergast, chief of the uniformed police. The transfer, he said, was "for the good of the service." Capt. Boyle's new duties will be clerical. Lt. John McGarvey, formerly assigned to the Cottage Grove av. station, has been placed in charge of East Side.

SHERIFFS OPEN FIGHT ON THEIR ONE TERM LIMIT

A state-wide campaign for the adoption of a constitutional amendment to be submitted to Illinois voters next November to permit sheriffs and county treasurers to hold office for more than one term was launched at a meeting of sheriffs and treasurers from eight counties yesterday in the Baker hotel at St. Charles.

Officials from Kane, Boone, McHenry, Lake, De Kalb, Du Page, Kendall, and Will counties attended. Sheriff George E. Powell and County Treasurer Marcus W. Damisch of Kane county served as hosts. Elmer J. Hoffman, former Du Page county sheriff and secretary of the Illinois Sheriffs' association, presided. Frank J. Trapp Jr. of Taylorville, president of the Sheriffs' association, attended.

The campaign is in charge of the sheriffs' association and the County Treasurers' association.

FLORIST SHOOTS BROTHER DURING QUARREL IN SHOP

Frank Van Ess, 44, proprietor of a florist shop at 7072 Belmont av., was held by Jefferson Park police last night after he shot and seriously wounded his brother, Albert, 29, of 3915 Schubert av., during a quarrel in the shop. Albert was taken to Chicago State hospital with a chest wound. Frank told police that Albert came to the shop to demand some wages he claimed to be due him for work performed earlier this year, and that a revolver with which he tried to frighten Albert away was accidentally discharged.

THE BIG IDEA

Sales Up 63%

Recently, when sales of an old drug product began to slip after 20 years of profitable business, we were consulted. We suggested a new approach which captured the public imagination over night with the result that sales increased 63%—a volume far beyond the advertiser's most optimistic expectations. If you have a product whose sales could be increased through a new approach, or a new method of merchandising, your inquiry is cordially invited.

Generations of babies, yet unborn, were to benefit from the great discoveries which Pasteur's reading led to

What he READ he never forgot... so babies are safe today!

THE YEAR is 1842 . . . The man is a shy, quiet, unknown young student at the Sorbonne—by name Louis Pasteur.

He spends most of his leisure hours in the library. He pores tirelessly over books of science and lives of great men. One day he comes upon a single passage . . . a few words in a book which posed a question that tormented him forever after.

What is it that causes plagues, fevers, pestilence? Why do men fall sick and die?

Suddenly young Pasteur felt a burning desire to find the key to this puzzle which, through all the centuries of human history, no man had solved.

He set off on the quest which led to one startling discovery after another . . . and in the end he found the answer.

Louis Pasteur was the first to detect the nature of germs—the first to trace the role of microbes in sowing sickness and death among mankind.

He was a pioneer in vaccines. He perfected the sterilization process used today in the pasteurization of milk, and so, played a profound part in reducing infant mortality. Because, long ago, Louis Pasteur loved books, millions of babies are safe today!

AS A STUDENT Pasteur never lost his belief in the value of reading. As a teacher, he strove to make scientific problems interesting in words that were few and simple.

So, too, The American Weekly has sought ways to make all subjects—history, science, religion, or human relations—simple, vivid and understandable for all.

Because it has succeeded—because it appeals to so many—this great magazine now goes each week into more than 7,750,000 homes through twenty great Sunday newspapers, where its fascinating pages stimulate the priceless habit of reading in old and young.

In words and pictures that stir the deepest springs of human thought and emotion . . . in terms NOT of fiction but of actual people . . . it tells its fascinating tales of love and romance, of mystery and adventure. Its stories are true—living, breathing, human documents—they grip the imagination of millions every week.

Often it has been the first publication of large circulation to bring before the people the great hope-giving discoveries of medicine and science.

Who can measure the impact of such a magazine . . . exerted week after week . . . upon so large a segment of the American population?

The manufacturer who presents his products or his company to this enormous reading audience is using the greatest force known in advertising.

WALTERS TO START FOR N. L. STARS TONIGHT

RUTH MORE HAS 78 TO LEAD IN WOMEN'S GOLF

Takes State Medal Honors by Stroke.

Bloomington, Ill., July 10 [Special].—Ruth More, long driving golfer from Mount Hawley Country club, Peoria, and a semi-finalist in the tournament a year ago, captured medalist honors in the qualifying round of the 11th Illinois Women's Golf association tourney at the Bloomington Country club today with a 78. One stroke behind were Jeanne Cline of Bloomington and Jane Nelson, a 16 year old Hinsdale High school senior who has been playing golf only three years.

Virginia Ingram of the Rob Roy Country club, Chicago, and Mrs. F. K. Krauss of Tam o' Shanter were among the oustanding women golfers who did not qualify for the championship bracket.

Five Out of Bounds.

Miss Ingram was in trouble early, driving out of bounds five times on No. 3 on her first round and she later withdrew from the tournament. Miss Ingram won the I. W. G. A. title in 1942 at Peoria when she defeated Dorothy Foster of Springfield.

Mrs. Krauss, runner-up in 1943 at Olympia Fields, lost her chance to compete in the title round when she was eliminated in a special playoff to decide the last four places in the bracket. Others tied with her with 86s were Marjorie Lindsay, defending champion from Decatur; Gladys Sines of Olympia Fields, Chicago; Marion Schuester of La Grange, and Betty Ann Ohnemus of Quincy. These four all qualified.

Pairings Are Made.

Pairings for the first round of championship play tomorrow are:

Ruth More vs. Mrs. Earl Miller; Anne Lewis vs. Betty Ann Ohnemus; Jane Nelson vs. Virginia Nilles; Mrs. Harold Sims vs. Gladys Sines; Mrs. Laurence Seis vs. Marjorie Lindsay; Dorothy Foster vs. Mrs. Paul Schollenberg; Mrs. F. W. Zimmerman vs. Marian Schuester; Mrs. McLean Funk vs. Jeanne Cline.

WHITE SOX BEAT FORT DIX, 4 TO 0, IN EXHIBITION

Fort Dix, N. Y., July 10 [Special]—The Chicago White Sox defeated a Fort Dix all-star team, 4 to 0, tonight before a capacity crowd of 8,000 soldiers. Buck Ross pitched all the way for the White Sox, yielding seven hits.

Wally Moses and LeRoy Schalk led the offense of the victors and the White Sox clinched the proceedings in the third inning when two walks, two singles and an error resulted in three runs.

SHRINE GAME IN COOPERSTOWN IS HALTED BY RAIN

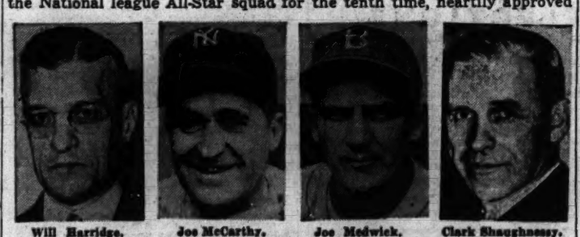

Cooperstown, N. Y., July 10 (AP).—Thundershowers washed out the annual baseball Shrine game, scheduled to be played today between the New York Giants of the National league and the Detroit Tigers of the American league, after one pitch had been delivered.

More than 7,000 were in the stands as Johnny Rucker of the Giants teed off on Frank Overmire's first pitch for a single to left. The game was halted at this point and called off 40 minutes later.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

BY ARCH WARD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 10.—It is apparent that the All-Star game is the top event of the baseball season, no matter whether the locale is New York, St. Louis, Chicago, or what have you. . . . Sam Watters, vice president of the Pirates, says there would be 200,000 customers in Forbes field tomorrow night, if they could be accommodated. . . . And the tariff this year is double the regular prices, you know. . . . A group of hot sports from San Bernardino, Cal., capital of the orange empire, where the Pirates train in peace time, rolled into town this morning, bringing a carload of oranges with them. . . . They planned to distribute the fruit among the 40,000 patrons of the 12th annual All-Star game tomorrow night, but those in charge of the contest, perhaps remembering the citrus element in the shower given Joe Medwick at Detroit in the 1934 world series, nixed the idea. . . . Medwick, who is on the National league All-Star squad for the tenth time, heartily approved the ruling, it is reported from sources that usually are reliable. . . . One of the sentimental notes of the big show was the appointment of Honus Wagner, good old patriarch of the Pirates, as honorary manager of the National team. . . . Putting on a baseball shindig in Pittsburgh without Honus in the limelight would be like the Pirates playing a league game with only five men. . . . The only player in tomorrow's cast who was in the original game at Comiskey park in 1933 will be Rick Ferrell of the Washington Senators. . . . Rick caught the whole game in 1933 with Lefty Grove, Alvin Crowder, and Lefty Gomez throwing at him.

Will Harridge. Joe McCarthy. Joe Medwick. Clark Shaughnessy.

Add distraught figures in scenes of gayety: The two White Sox representatives on the American league All-Stars, Orval Grove and Thurman Tucker. . . . Grove has neither won nor finished a game since June 24 and is the only Sox pitcher who has been featuring home run and triple tossing. . . . Tucker, for many weeks American league batting leader, last week made 28 trips to the plate without a base hit, which toppled his average from .375 to .327. . . . Manager Joe McCarthy will use Tucker as lead-off man, however, no matter whether Manager Billy Southworth starts a right or left handed pitcher. . . . Dixie Walker, until recently the National league batting leader, has gone hitless in his last 18 times at bat. . . . The Pittsburgh area has enough telegraphers to handle the flow of copy from the press box, if the game is played as scheduled tomorrow night. . . . If rain interferes and postponement to Wednesday afternoon is necessary, operators will have to be imported from cities as far away as Philadelphia. . . . Stewart Boggs, wire chief at Shibe park in Philadelphia, is standing by for a call.

Harry Grabiner, vice president of the White Sox, who seldom leaves his Chicago fireside, will make application tomorrow for unlimited night games. He actually wants only seven more than the Sox were originally allotted, which would give the club 22, including a war benefit engagement. Among the headliners of earlier All-Star games present in this year's squad is Augie Galan, who as a Cub knocked a homer to help the Nationals win their first victory at Boston in 1936. . . . The Pittsburgh club is going to toss a dinner tomorrow evening for 150 undernourished sports writers in town to cover the game. . . . As usual, there is a lot of crabbing about players left off the squads. . . . White Sox fans are howling as loudly as any one about the snubbing of Wally Moses. . . . Forbes field is only a few hundred yards from Pitt stadium, scene of some of the greatest football matches in history—those battles between Notre Dame and Pittsburgh of several seasons back. . . . Clark Shaughnessy, current gridiron leader at Pitt, fraternized with sports writers today in the lobbies of the Schenley and Webster Hall hotels where most of the players and authors were quartered. . . . Elmer Layden, commissioner of the National Football league, came over for the game and to discuss football business with Art Rooney, whose Steelers will run as an entry with the Chicago Cardinals in the 1944 league race.

Will Harridge, president of the American league, brought a group of friends to the midsummer spectacle that included Ralph Gutgsell, who has attended every All-Star game. . . . Among the notable absentees from the Harridge party was Tom Courtney, baseball's memory wizard. . . . Mr. Courtney, it is said, is spending his time diagramming plays calculated to outmaneuver another great sports fan, Dwight Green. . . . It wasn't long ago that American league supporters suggested that the best way to win the All-Star game was to use the Yankee lineup against the best the National leaguers could assemble. . . . This year McCarthy has little choice so far as his players are concerned. . . . Outside of Pitchers Hank Borowy and Joe Page, the only Yankee to be chosen was Rollie Hemsley, who is handicapped by an injured leg. . . . If they wished, the Nationals could further the idea of starting a team in toto by employing the Cardinals. . . . Six St. Louis players were picked for the squad.

CUBS WIN, 20-2, IN SOUTH BEND EXHIBITION GAME

South Bend, Ind., July 10 [Special].—The Chicago Cubs celebrated Ed Hanyzewski night in South Bend tonight by trouncing the Hoosier Beer baseball nine, 20 to 2, before 6,000 fans.

The Cubs collected 22 hits from three South Bend pitchers, including a home run by Jimmy Foxx with the bases filled, and another by Lou Novikoff with one teammate on base. Andy Pafko made five hits in his five times at bat and Roy Hughes had a perfect night at bat with three hits.

Before the game Hanyzewski, a South Bend resident, was presented with a war bond by the Pulaski post, No. 357, American Legion, sponsor of the junior team with which Ed first broke into baseball in 1937.

Rusty Garst in Quest of 3d Swim Medal

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Rusty Garst of Madison, Wis., is the first of the 1943 champions to enter this year's 100 yard free style swimming races, annually sponsored by the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc. Garst, who won the Class B title last year for boys 13 and 14 years of age, will compete in Class C.

All amateur swimmers are eligible to enter the trials which will be held July 22 and 23 at four pools and which will qualify 120 boys and girls for the finals in California park July 30. Champions, however, are not permitted to swim again in the same class in which they won their titles.

Garst, for example, was the Class A boys' champion in 1941 and then advanced to Class B. He was defeated in this division in 1942, but won the title last year. Now he is eligible to swim with the 15 and 16 year old group in Class C.

Competition Made Equal.

While superior swimmers naturally are expected to qualify for the 10 final events, the purpose of the Chicago Tribune races always has been to encourage novice competitors. This was the reason in dividing the contestants into five groups after the inaugural meet in 1930 had only two divisions. Thus, from Class A, for 11 and 12 year olds, to Class E, for those 19 years of age and over, the competition is physically fair.

To encourage youngsters to swim 100 yards regardless of whether they can qualify for the final races, THE TRIBUNE gives each contestant a souvenir badge. This award is followed by prizes for all qualifiers and gold, silver, and bronze medals for the boys and girls finishing first, second, and third, respectively, in each of the 10 championships on July 30.

Entries Due Monday.

Two team trophies are presented annually. Medinah club girls' team is defending champion this year, while the Great Lakes Naval Training center won the boys' team trophy in 1943. Great Lakes' individual champions were Jerry Kerschner in Class D and Wally Ris in Class E.

Entries for the four preliminary centers will be accepted until midnight next Monday, July 17. There is no entry fee. Contestants 16 years of age and over must register with the Central association of the A. A. U., but the registration fee, valid only for these 100 yard swimming races, will be paid by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

A.L. Votes to Allow More Night Games

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 10 (AP).—Night baseball won another victory today in the American league, which voted all clubs permission to play more games under lights, but deferred action on the number of contests pending action at tomorrow's joint meeting of the major leagues.

The National league also discussed the request of Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, for unlimited week night games but withheld announcement until tomorrow.

Indications were that all clubs so desiring would finish out their 1944 schedules under the lights, with the exception of Sundays and Labor day as in the case of Washington. Both Philadelphia clubs, the two St. Louis entries and the Chicago White Sox requested more night games.

Under present regulations, the limit is 14 with exceptions made for 21 each by the Cards and Browns and games every week day night in the nation's capital.

The anti-farm system plan suggested by Jack Zeller, general manager of the Detroit club, was discussed without action by both leagues. Under Zeller's proposal free agents could not be signed by a major league club unless the player had minor league experience and all player deals made between the majors and minors would be conducted thru baseball's draft system on an unlimited basis.

Fight Decisions

At Marigold Gardens—Gene Spencer and Al Gomes, drew [8]; Doll Rafferty and Robert Fowler, drew [6]; Gene Ward beat Sparky Reynolds [4]; Merle Roberts beat Fred Bailey [4]; Mike Edwards knocked out Billy Sullivan [1].

2 IN ARLINGTON FUTURITY CAST TO RACE TODAY

5 Colts Entered in Advance Guard.

BY MAURICE SHEVLIN.

Flood Town and Free For All, heralded as the stars in next Saturday's $25,000 added Arlington Futurity, will go thru a full dress rehearsal today in Washington Park during the five and one-half furlong Advance Guard purse. Upon their showing today will depend largely the number of opponents they will face in Saturday's big race.

Each will carry 122 pounds in today's race, in which only five colts have been entered, including Free For All's stablemate, Errard, from the John Marsch barn. He will carry 108 pounds. Others in the field will be C. C. Tanner's Best Effort, allotted 113 pounds, and W. W. Jones' Bull Play, 108.

Steps Half Mile in :49.

Flood Town, owned by Edward Lasker of New York, now an officer in the navy, breezed a half mile yesterday in :49 under the watchful eye of Trainer Max Hirsch. Jockey George [the Iceman] Woolf will ride Flood Town in both races.

Flood Town had a large group of admirers as he cooled out after his workout and one of them was the Calumet Farm trainer, Ben Jones, who said both Flood Town and Free For All had shown him all a Missourian needed to know and that the five Calumet futurity eligibles probably would stay in the barn next Saturday. Otto Grohs will be up on Marsch's Free For All today and Buddy Haas will ride Errard. Haas, by the way, is entirely recovered from the spill he suffered Saturday and accepted mounts yesterday.

Four Consecutive Victories.

Flood Town boasts a record of four consecutive victories at Belmont after finishing fourth in his first start at Jamaica. Free For All won his first out at Hawthorne by eight lengths and his second at Washington Park by five. Errard took his first two races, the first at Churchill Downs and the second at Hawthorne, then was beaten by Icangetit in his last out at Hawthorne.

Yesterday's program for the opening of the fourth week of the Arlington Park meeting, attracted a ladies' day crowd of 17,500.

Sun Jesting Upsets Favorite.

The mutuel handle totaled $991,114.

The $2,500 Tred Avon, the afternoon's sprint feature, went to J. S. Bradley's Sun Jesting, ridden by Kempton Knott, after a stretch battle with J. J. L. Powers' What Not and Walmac farm's Snack.

Sun Jesting scored by a length over Snack and What Not was half a length farther back. W. R. Knebelkamp's Just For Fun, the favorite, set the pace until the field of seven went into the stretch turn, then Sun Jesting took over as Just For Fun weakened and fell back to finish fifth. The winner paid $11.60, $5, and $3.80.

$13.40 Daily Double.

Again the daily double enthusiasts caught a short one when favorites took the first two races. The reward was $12.40. Mrs. R. C. Hodge's Subdeb, with Freddy Smith up, won the opener and paid $4.80. Austin and Young's Betel took the second at $5.60.

The Calumet Farm's Herald went to the post at 4 to 5 in the third race, but L. M. Severson's Hurl Hom Harl took the six furlong sprint by a length from Jake Lowenstein's Final Glory.

Hal Price Headley's Paddle won the first race of her career in the fifth, a six furlong sprint for 3 year olds. Mrs. Will Causey's Golden Cross was second and Leslie Combs' Abignonia was third. The winner had Freddy Smith in the saddle and paid $19.60.

Constant Aim Returns $15.60.

Constant Aim, which threw his rider his last time out, won the seventh race, a 2,000, event for 3 year olds and upward at a mile and a furlong. Steve Brooks was aboard and a $2 win ticket was worth $15.60. Chief Bud was second and Cirlo, the favorite, third.

Driscoll Tells Bears What to Do, but Not What He Did

[This is the last of a series on coaches of the Chicago Bears, who meet the College All-Stars Aug. 30 in Dyche stadium, Evanston.]

BY EDWARD PRELL.

There weren't any College All-Stars in John L. [Paddy] Driscoll's heyday as a heller in Northwestern's back field, else the quiet little Irishman would have a place high on the roll of All-Star heroes. Paddy's performance for Great Lakes in the Rose bowl game of 1919 was of such brilliance that Walter Camp acclaimed the Chicagoan as the greatest quarter back he ever had seen.

Paddy Driscoll.

In this year of 1944, Paddy is a sedate gentleman and his exercise is limited to golf. It may startle even the oldtimers who saw him as a slim, fleet youth to be reminded that it was 29 years ago when Driscoll started his spectacular college career. Those ensuing years have been busy, successful ones, but thru it all Paddy has retained his modesty. Even now it's a difficult job to get Paddy in a story telling mood concerning his feats.

Hit Peak as Pro.

As a member of the Bears' board of strategy he's contributed to the team's phenomenal success the past three seasons. Paddy knew how to do everything there was to be done in a back field and he also knows how to get others to do it. Paddy is quiet, almost to the point of being self-effacing. As a junior member of the Bears' coaching triumvirate, he has fitted in perfectly.

Paddy was one of the first of the modern triple threat backs. In addition, he was a terrific blocker for a 150 pound guy who was dwarfed in size by teammates and rivals on the gridiron. He was terrific as a Wildcat, but reached greater heights, first with the Chicago Cardinals, then with the Bears. He was a fine passer, a speedy runner, and one of the first to use the pivot. Once he saw an opening he fled thru it with the speed of a sprinter, with knees kicking nearly as high as his chest.

Played Infield for Cubs.

Baseball fans knew him as a fine infielder who was with the Cubs in 1917. Into the '30s he played semi-pro baseball in Chicago. He ended his football days with the Bears in 1930. He had first joined the pros in 1919 as a member of the area's pioneer play-for-pay eleven, Hammond, Ind. From 1924 to 1937 he was athletic director and coach of football and basketball at St. Mel's. In 1937 he became football coach at Marquette and resigned in 1940. Then he returned to the Bears. In between times he had served as back field coach for the Cardinals and scout for the Bears.

As head of the Bears' back field department, Paddy has one big headache coming up to find a replacement for Sid Luckman. With Sid in there, the department ran automatically. Paddy would like to turn back the calendar a few years and take the job himself. He's of the school which believes that everything will be all right. He sees tough times ahead for the Bears in the College All-Star game and in defense of their National league title, but he is a resourceful fellow who is sure that the task will be successfully met.

Had Two Big Moments.

His partners, Luke Johnsos and Hunk Anderson, were handy fellows in their football playing days, but their careers were not as spectacular as Paddy's. He will confess, under pressure, that he had two big afternoons when carrying the ball for Northwestern.

There was his first Big Ten game, Northwestern vs. Iowa in Iowa City, on Oct. 6, 1915. The Hawkeyes had won in 1914, 27 to 0. Northwestern lost in '15, too, but by the respectable score of 9 to 6. Early in the game, Paddy took a kickoff on his 10 yard line after Iowa had taken a 3 to 0 lead. At midfield, all of Paddy's pals were on their trousers, but he managed to wiggle to Iowa's 10 yard line. From there the Wildcats negotiated a touchdown.

Starred in Rose Bowl.

The next thrill came against the University of Chicago in 1916 when Northwestern beat the Maroons, 10 to 0, the first time in 15 years. The Wildcats recovered a fumble on the Maroons' 30 and Paddy finally went over. Chicago threatened this 7 to 0 lead into the fourth quarter. Then Northwestern started rolling again.

The Wildcats got down to the 43 yard line and then put it up to Paddy. His field goal just drifted over the bar to clinch the victory.

Paddy was responsible for 11 of the 17 points Great Lakes scored in its shutout victory over the Mare Island Marines in the 1919 Rose bowl. He pitched a pass to George Halas, kicked both points after touchdowns, and booted a field goal.

PAT HARDER OUT OF NAVY; PLANS TO JOIN MARINES

Marlin [Pat] Harder, University of Wisconsin star full back, is at his parents' home in Milwaukee after being honorably discharged from the navy air corps. Harder, who was in the marines before being transferred to the navy air corps, said yesterday he plans to reënlist in the marines.

Harder was the first player selected by the Chicago Cardinals in the National Football league draft last April. He was voted the most outstanding player in the College All-Stars' 27 to 7 victory last August over the Washington Redskins in Dyche stadium.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 10.—There still were some ifs and ands about the starting lineups in tomorrow night's 12th annual major league All-Star baseball game, but it was announced as a certainty that two Chicagoans, one on each team, will be in the starting lineups. Thurman Tucker, slumpful White Sox sophomore star, will lead off and play center field for the American team. Capt. Phil Cavarretta of the Cubs will play first and bat second for the Nationals.

The listed capacity of Forbes field, scene of tomorrow night's spectacle, is slightly more than 38,000 but it is said the odd layout of the park and construction of the three deck grandstand has made it possible to spring the total to 40,000. It is expected the show will realize $100,000 to be used in purchasing recreational equipment for service men.

It May Be Hughson.

Joe McCarthy, who virtually knocked himself out with masterminding before the game in Philadelphia, will not arrive on the scene until tomorrow morning, but this time obligingly sent along his probable starting lineup by Coach Art Fletcher.

Tonight there was no positive decision on the American starting pitcher, but the dope seemed to favor Tex Hughson, Boston Red Sox righthander, who has a record of 13 victories against three defeats.

Whatever the order, it seemed certain Hughson, Hank Borowy of the Yanks, and Hal Newhouser, temperamental but brilliant lefty of the Detroit Tigers, would form the trio on which the Americans would place their main reliance. Borowy has won 11 while losing four and Newhouser has won 13 while losing five.

This Is a Pitching Staff.

Other pitchers available to McCarthy are Dutch Leonard, foxy old knuckler of Washington, George Muncrief of St. Louis, noisy Buck Newsom, who held the White Sox to three hits his last time out; Dizzy Trout, who has won 10 for the Tigers, and two other fellows who repeatedly have had their ears badly lacerated since they were named on the squad—Orval Grove of the White Sox and Joe Page of the Yankees.

The National leaguers are expected to start Bucky Walters, the personable and highly skilled Cincy right hander and most victorious pitcher in the majors.

Walters Tough Under Lights.

Bucky has won 14 and lost three and he's especially tough under lights. With Max Lanier out because of a sore arm, it is expected the Americans are going to look exclusively at right handed stuff. If a lefty does show up, Pete Fox of the Red Sox probably will play right field instead of Stan Spence of the Senators and Detroit's Rudy York will be on first instead of George McQuinn, St. Louis Brownie.

The National league team worked out this afternoon in Forbes field. The American leaguers, some of whom have never seen the unusual plant, with its slanting walls and many other unique features, apparently felt they could wait till the game to size up the premises—preceded, perhaps, by an informal survey tomorrow afternoon.

Gomez Draws with Spencer at Marigold

Gene Spencer, South Chicago lightweight, turned in one of the best performances of his career in a fast eight round bout last night with Marine Corp. Alvin Gomez in Marigold Garden's outdoor arena, but all he received for his efforts was a draw decision.

A crowd of 1,243 paid a gross gate of $2,479.48 to see the fight card.

Doll Rafferty, Milwaukee 138 pounder, and Robert Fowler, Nashville, Tenn., boxed to a draw in a six round semi-windup.

DISMISS LABOR LAW CHARGE IN BOWLING CASE

Charges against Max Fagenholz, owner of the Marigold Arcade Bowling alleys at 828 Grace st., of violating state child labor laws were nolle prossed yesterday at the request of the attorney-general's office by Judge John R. McSweeney in License court over the protests of representatives of child welfare organizations, who had followed the case thru seven continuances since last fall.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Benjamin Schwartz, who asked that the charges be dropped, said the violations occurred seven months ago, and the attorney general's office is satisfied they no longer exist.

FILE FIRST SUIT FOR ALIENATION HERE SINCE 1935

Attorneys Defy Statute with Writ.

The first alienation of affections suit in Illinois since a 1935 statute made the filing of such suits a criminal offense was filed yesterday in Superior court.

Earl J. Walker and Sol R. Friedman, attorneys, representing Charles Zaremba, 50, of 4559 S. Washtenaw av., a tavern owner, submitted the bill in defiance of the law. Friedman filed a breach of promise suit, in disregard of the same statute, for another client last year, and was upheld by Judge Donald McKinlay in Superior court.

Law Held Unconstitutional.

Judge McKinlay held that the statute was unconstitutional, in that it denied wronged individuals a right of redress, and he ruled that Friedman could file the breach of promise suit. The 1935 legislation was directed against gold-diggers and blackmailers. It provided a penalty of 1 to 5 years' imprisonment for the filing of a breach of promise or an alienation of affections suit, or for the naming of a co-respondent. The Illinois Supreme court later ruled that the ban against naming co-respondents was not constitutional.

"Individuals who are denied the right of a court trial by the 1935 statute have no other recourse but to take the law into their own hands," Friedman said yesterday. "Since 1935 there has been an increase in shooting in triangle cases."

The suit in behalf of Zaremba was filed against Anthony Skurdialis, 43, of 4520 S. Francisco av., a real estate dealer, for $50,000 damages.

Divorce Suit Filed.

Zaremba charged that the affections of his wife, Paulina, 46, whom he married in 1923, were stolen by Skurdialis. Zaremba charged that an illicit love affair was conducted between his wife and Skurdialis in May and June. On June 30 she filed a bill for divorce in Superior court, charging cruelty.

Zaremba's attorneys said he will fill a cross bill for divorce charging misconduct, and will ask custody of their daughter, Agatha, 15.

GREEK LEADER ASSAILS NAZIS FOR MASSACRE

G. A. Kyriakopulos, 4027 Irving Park rd., supreme counselor for the Pan-American Federation of America, said yesterday that the mass slaying of the residents of Distomo, Greece, on June 10 would be "the beacon light for the new era of freedom and democracy of the world."

"The destruction of Distomo reveals that the Germans of today can be compared with the cannibals of South Africa," he said, "and that since the days of Attila, they have not changed."

All 1,000 residents of Distomo were massacred in reprisal for the killing of 30 German soldiers, a story from Izmir, Turkey, reported. Kyriagopulos said he visited the Greek village in 1898 before coming to this country from his home in Arcadia.

SAN FRANCISCO'S EX-ARCHBISHOP, 83, DIES IN ROME

ROME, July 10 (AP).—The Most Rev. Edward J. Hanna, 83, Catholic archbishop of San Francisco from 1915 to 1935, and well known for his work on behalf of immigrants and as a labor arbitrator, died today in Rome, where he had lived since his retirement.

In 1913, Bishop Hanna was appointed a member of a California state immigration and housing commission, playing a leading role in a program of reform in labor camps. In 1921 he served on an arbitration board settling labor disputes in the San Francisco building trades, and in 1934, upon President Roosevelt's appointment, headed a board bringing peace in a Pacific coast strike of marine workers.

While serving as professor of theology at St. Bernard's seminary at Rochester, N. Y., he took an active interest in immigrants particularly in Italians in that city, and this work was one factor in confirmation in 1912 of his appointment as auxiliary bishop of the California diocese. Five years earlier, his first nomination for the office had been rejected after charges of modernism were made against him, but these were disproved.

AIRPORT CHIEFS HEAR PLEA FOR COLLEGE COURSE

Dr. John H. Frederick, professor of transportation at the University of Texas, urged yesterday, at the annual convention of the American Association of Airport Executives, that a place be made in college curricula for courses in airport managements.

Such training will be especially welcomed, he said, by war veterans whose education will be underwritten by the government. They will want some form of quick vocational training, Dr. Frederick asserted, and airport management, including promotion, engineering, and accounting phases, can be adapted to their requirements.

The convention, in the Hotel Sherman, will conclude tomorrow. Managers of airports from virtually every section of the country are attending the meeting. They are attempting in informal forums to prepare for the needs of post-war aviation, and considering who should pay the airport bills—pilots and air lines, municipalities, or the federal government.

WAR DAMAGE INSURANCE.

Kindly advise whether the War Damage corporation is still issuing insurance policies. I was wondering whether I should keep my policy in force. What losses have been paid? L. K.

Answer: The corporation has announced that all its policies in force March 31 last have been automatically extended for 12 months from the respective dates of expiration, without payment of additional premium. No renewal application was required, but new or additional insurance may be applied for, at established rates.

The government agency was able to renew policies without charge because the premiums of nearly 245 million dollars collected previously had been much in excess of expenses and established claims for damages. Thru 1943 compensation for war damages in continental United States aggregated $4,372. Fifteen claims totaling $88,328 for losses within the United States and Alaska were pending.

In addition, 179 claims have been presented and are in process of adjustment for losses caused by an explosion in New York harbor last January.

Payments on account of war damages sustained prior to July 1, 1942, in Hawaii, Alaska, and elsewhere, made from funds other than premium receipts, had aggregated $256,715 to last Dec. 31. Claims and notices of prospective claims totaling about 68 million dollars also were pending on that date, for damages sustained in the Philippine area.

WDC insurance in force at the close of the government's 1943 fiscal year approximated 140 million dollars.

PREDICTS VAST PEACE MARKET FOR FURNITURE

A potential billion dollar post-war market awaits the upholstered furniture industry, Delmar Kroehler, president of Kroehler Manufacturing company, predicted yesterday at a home furnishings conference in Northwestern university's Thorne hall. The National Retail Furniture association sponsored the conference in conjunction with the summer furniture markets.

Kroehler's prediction was based on the increased marriage rate and accumulated savings of approximately 87 billion dollars. Most war time brides have not furnished homes, he said.

C. C. Lincoln, president of Virginia-Lincoln corporation, termed the use of plastic in post-war furniture construction impractical because the cost is prohibitive.

Investment Group Offers So. Shore Common Stock

COAL OUTPUT RALLIES.

Bituminous coal production recovered in the week ended July 1 after two consecutive weeks of decline, the solid fuels administration announced. Production of 12,050,000 tons, however, was still under the weekly average for the first half of the year, which was 12,302,000.

WORLD TO HOLD U. S. AT FAULT IF FUND FAILS

Revisions in Tariff Held Essential.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bretton Woods, N. H., July 10.—Implicit in all discussions at the world monetary and financial conference is recognition that the United States will be responsible if the plans adopted here fail to achieve their purpose.

American spokesmen freely concede that the stabilization fund and world bank cannot be successful without major alterations in the American tariff system. Otherwise, it is agreed, the United States will continue to have a large favorable balance of trade which will preclude the possibility of foreign nations making good on their commitments.

Tariff Position Weakened.

There are no conditions set up which will compel nations to establish stable internal currencies. This is regarded by critics of the proposed stabilization fund as an inherent weakness of the plan. On the other hand the stabilization fund is so designed that it may mobilize world opinion against any country that adheres to a tariff policy such as that traditionally followed by the United States.

The fund in effect proposes to set up pressure outside of the United States to break down what the other countries regard as objectionable tariff policies here.

This procedure was outlined in detail in a set of questions and answers prepared by United States treasury experts and circulated among conference delegates.

May Ask Currency Loan.

"The fund may propose to a member country whose currency is in scarce supply that it lend currency to the fund," said this document. "Such an additional supply would provide the member countries with the additional time needed to work out a more satisfactory balance in international payments with the country whose currency is scarce."

It is the United States, whose currency will be in the greatest demand and the first country whose currency will become scarce, it is agreed. The above explanation deals with the temporary method of meeting this problem. The more permanent solution was outlined as follows: "If the disequilibrium stems from an excess of exports over imports which is not likely to correct itself in a reasonable period of time, the fund might recommend measures for an expansion of imports and a reduction of artificial stimulants to exports."

Backed by World Opinion.

How these recommendations may be given force was outlined as follows: "The fund's recommendations will have behind them the enormous force of the world's opinion. Even tho the fund's recommendations carry with them no element of compulsion, it will be difficult for any country cognizant of its responsibility to disregard them."

The theory that much of the world's economic troubles of the last 25 years stem from America's trade policies was thus given official recognition by the American delegation. The delegates are in the position of promising temporary aid to other countries in the form of contributions to the fund and the world bank and permanent aid thru tariff reform. Should congress fail to make good on this, the United States would be in the position of having failed to live up to its responsibilities.

This contrasts with the position taken by Great Britain as expressed by Chairman Keynes of the British delegation. He underscored the responsibility imposed by the fund on creditor nations like the United States to maintain a proper balance in international transactions. He referred to this and other features of the fund as "substantial benefits" but went on to make clear that Great Britain will retain sole control over its own currency.

"We are determined that, in the future, the external value of sterling shall conform to its internal value, and not the other way round," he asserted.

Parley Gives Britain's Debt Back to British

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bretton Woods, N. H., July 10.—The allied nations monetary and financial conference today washed its hands of the troublesome problem of the large foreign debt incurred by Great Britain since the start of the war. The conference expressed sympathy for, but turned down a plea made by India that the resources of the fund be used to hasten release of the frozen sterling balances of which India holds about six billion dollars.

India is a creditor nation for the first time in 250 years, but funds owing to her consist of frozen sterling balances which Britain has made clear she cannot liquidate immediately after the war. India proposed that part of the world stabilization fund be used to solve this problem.

Can't Afford Involvement.

An official conference spokesman explained that the United States delegation believed that the fund could not afford to become involved in this problem. The American delegation supported the British view that it is strictly a British matter to be settled by direct negotiation between India and Britain.

A. D. Schroff, spokesman for the Indian delegation, said that he disagreed with the United States position that the question of frozen sterling balances was outside the province of the fund.

"If you are prepared to ignore a country of the size of India with 400 million population and with natural resources comparable to the resources of some of the big powers, we cannot be expected to make our full contribution to the resources of the fund," he said.

Must Use Other Sources.

India expects to take large quantities of British goods after the war, Schroff said, but added that it is vital to India that she be able to buy elsewhere. He questioned Britain's ability to supply all the capital goods India will need. British industry must meet domestic rehabilitation demands, he said.

Chairman Keynes of the British delegation in a statement released thru the press office said that the United Kingdom will be greatly impoverished when the war ends and that certain other allied nations will be enriched.

"We have no complaint to make, provided the resulting situation is accepted for what it is," he said. "The settlement of these debts [with India] must be a matter between those directly concerned. When we can see daylight, we shall take it up without delay to settle honorably what was honorably and generously given."

Decision Made Thru Vote.

The decision to rule out the India debt question was the first controversial question decided by a vote rather than arbitration.

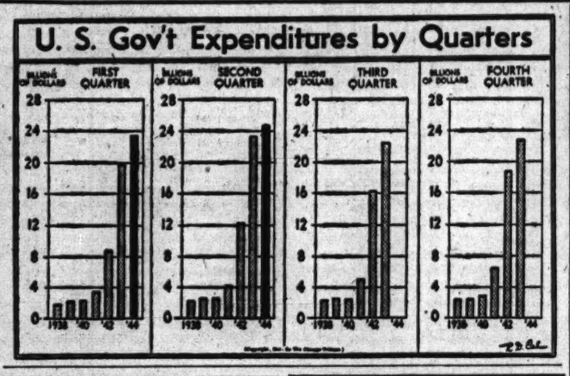

In rejecting India's plea a conference commission also decided that it would not take up the problem of balances owed by Germany to the central banks of occupied countries. These balances are estimated at 10 billion dollars and have arisen from imports by Germany from occupied countries. Principally affected are France, Belgium, and Holland.

WPB Eases Restrictions on Zinc Use in Printing

Washington, July 10 (AP).—The WPB today amended restrictions on zinc sheet for printing plates to permit the use of 100 per cent by weight of the amount of zinc used by the plate maker in the corresponding quarter of 1941. New York, July 10 (AP).—A membership on the New York Curb exchange sold for $13,000 today, an increase of $1,000 above the last transaction and a new high since 1938.

Stocks Climb, Altho Selling Stalls Leaders

New York, July 10 (AP).—Various favorites reached seven year peaks with gains of fractions to a point or more in today's stock market altho enough selling cropped up to stall many leaders.

War news and general business prospects, plus inflation psychology, inspired bidders to a certain extent altho Gen. Eisenhower's warning of long, hard fighting ahead, and reports near by reconversion plans may be halted by Washington, D. C., authorities, served to touch off bearishness here and there. Accounts also were lightened on the belief a technical reaction is likely.

The Associated Press 60 stock average was unchanged at 56.4, the peak level since Oct. 2, 1937, recorded Saturday.

RAILS LEAD BONDS UP.

New York, July 10 (AP).—The bond market advanced today on a light rally in medium priced rails and sustained demand for investment issues. The Associated Press 20 rail average reached a new high since 1937 at 90.4, and the 10 foreign dollar bond composite attained a new peak at 68.4. Other groups were steady.

EXPORTS SET RECORD HIGH IN MAY; IMPORTS REACH 15 YEAR PEAK

Washington, July 10 (AP).—United States exports of merchandise in May reached an all time high of 1 billion, 421 million dollars, the commerce department reported today.

The May total exceeded by 13 per cent the previous high of 1 billion 261 million set in July, 1943. It was 53 per cent over the 928 million recorded in June, 1919, the peak month prior to the war. Compared with April this year, the increase was 19 per cent. It was 31 per cent over May, 1943.

Export totals include lend-lease shipments, but exclude shipments to United States forces abroad.

General imports also reached record levels in May, at 386 million. This is the highest for any month since 1929 and exceeds the April, 1944, figure by 7 per cent, and May, 1943, by 37 per cent.

INCREASED WORK CLOTHES OUTPUT ORDERED BY WPB

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—In an effort to increase output of essential civilian work clothing, WPB today ordered work clothing manufacturers to produce each quarter at least 90 per cent of the garments they manufactured in the third quarter of 1942. The order is effective this month.

WPB said approximately 4,915,000 dozen garments were produced in that base period. However, production of civilian work garments under the new order will not equal a flat 90 per cent of that total because output of military clothing will be included in the manufacturers' total production quota, WPB said.

The order also requires manufacturers to resume production of any items of work clothing which may have been discontinued since the base period.

SHOE COMPANY'S PROFITS DIP ON INCREASED COST

Net earnings of International Shoe company decreased despite increased sales in the six months ended May 31, first half of the company's fiscal year, Frank C. Rand, board chairman, and Byron A. Gray, president, yesterday told stockholders in their semi-annual report. Reduced income was attributed to higher operating costs.

Sales totaled $76,814,804 compared with $73,166,418 in the corresponding 1942-'43 period. Net income totaled $3,106,250, equal to 92 cents a share, compared with $3,385,320, or $1.01 a share.

Oil Wells Will Be Drilled on Windsor Owned Ranch

CALGARY, Alta., July 10 (AP).—Drilling of one or more shallow oil wells soon will start on Edward Windsor's EP ranch near Pekisko, about 45 miles southwest of Calgary. The former king of England holds a special 99 year lease on the property dated from 1930. Several wells were drilled near the ranch some years ago, but no commercial producers have been developed.

BUMPER WHEAT CROP EXPECTED TO SET RECORD

Total Food Output Near 1942 Mark.

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—A forecast of a bumper wheat crop of 1 billion 128 million bushels and a large corn crop of 2 billion 980 million bushels topped a department of agriculture report today predicting 1944 crop production will be larger than in any year prior to the record year of 1942.

By far the largest in history, the indicated wheat crop is 119 million bushels above the previous record harvest of 1915 and exceeds last year's crop by 291 million bushels.

The prospective corn crop has been exceeded only four times—in 1906, 1920, 1942, and 1943. It is roughly 100 million bushels below last year and 150 million below the record crop of 1942, but exceeds the 1933-'42 average by about 600 million bushels.

Near Record Fruit Crops.

The department said good crops of oats and barley, a near record hay crop, near record output of fruits, vegetables, and soybeans are expected, but predicted crops of dry beans, dry peas, peanuts, and potatoes would be substantially smaller than were produced last year.

The report said the harvested acreage of the 52 principal crops is expected to be about 355 million acres, or about 2 per cent above the acreage last year and the largest since 1932.

The production of commercial or truck crops for the fresh market is expected to be 20 per cent larger than last year, while the indicated output of major deciduous fruits—apples, pears, grapes, cherries, plums, prunes, and apricots—is 18 per cent larger than last year's short crop.

WHEAT PRICES FIRM

Altho a record crop of wheat is being harvested, farmers held down their marketing yesterday which, coupled with a lack of hedging pressure, gave the market a relatively firm undertone. Prices held within a range of about 1 cent a bushel and closing sales on the Chicago Board of Trade were ⅛ cent lower to ⅛ cent higher.

Evening up for a department of agriculture forecast issued after the close tended to restrict speculative operations in all grains. Oats closed unchanged to ¼ cent higher. Rye gained ⅞ to 1⅛ cents and barley was ⅝ to ¾ cent higher.

Movement of wheat into Kansas City was placed under a permit system by the market committee there. Acute shortage of labor to unload wheat at elevators brought the action, exchange officials said.

Small Business Groups Term 'Aid' Measure New Shackles

Midwest members of the Conference of American Small Business Organizations are opposed to a bill in congress which would set up a new government agency with a billion dollar revolving fund to handle the problems of small businesses, Fred A. Virkus, La Grange, state senator and chairman of the conference, announced yesterday following a meeting.

Fred A. Virkus.

The bill was introduced by Sen. Murray [D., Mont.] and proposes to "stimulate and encourage small business enterprises." Altho the reports of committees appointed to study the nine sections of the bill will not be available for about 10 days, the sentiment of the meeting was that the proposal placed "shackles on free enterprise," Virkus said.

Oppose "Wet Nurse."

Asserting a survey had disclosed that "fear of economic dictatorship" was the source of the dissatisfaction and distress of the small business man, Virkus said the meeting voted against the creation of "another tax spending bureau for any purpose other than to aid the war effort," and opposed the "appointment of a government wet nurse," which it said the new agency would be.

Another section which was criticized severely would provide for the appointment of a "field consultant" in each of the country's 3,700 counties under a setup similar to the county farm agents. Such a proposal was voted down once before by the senate commerce committee, Virkus said.

Dislike Federal Financing.

Objectors to the measure also said they did not want government business financing which could be handled by private banking interests, and that it would be unhealthy to make government loans available to all who wish them because of the implication that the taxpayer and the government would be the loser if the business ventures failed.

Others said past performance of the Smaller War Plants corporation has not inspired confidence and that the agency contemplated is "potentially another OPA with rationing, directives, and questionnaires." The powers granted under the measure are wider and more discretionary than a "good administrator would want, or a poor administrator should have," they said.

Pork Output Rate Rapidly Leveling Off

The rate of increase in pork production above a year ago is falling rapidly, a report yesterday hog slaughtering under federal inspection disclosed. The department of agriculture reported that packers last month butchered 6,095,126 hogs, a gain of 7 per cent above a year ago.

Packers during May slaughtered 24 per cent more than a year earlier, and last January butchering exceeded the January, 1943, total by 44 per cent.

New Record Established.

The six months' volume set a new record by a big margin. In the first half of this year packers slaughtered 41,411,972 hogs, compared with 29,897,285 a year earlier, the previous record.

Butchering of 1,002,275 cattle compared with the June volume of 707,905 last year.

Beef production in the six months also set a new high, with packers slaughtering 6,171,190, compared with 4,982,667 a year earlier.

June Calf Total Rises.

The June calf total was 594,453, compared with 326,523 a year earlier. The sheep and lamb slaughter totaled 1,822,971 in June this year and 1,593,675 a year earlier.

Hog prices were higher yesterday in the Chicago stock yards with some types reaching $14 a hundred pounds the first time since April 12. Prices gained mostly 10 to 25 cents in lively trading with the average up 10 cents to $13.05, the highest price since April 25.

15 MILLIONS OF WFA FOOD SUPPLIES SOLD INTO CIVILIAN TRADE

More than 15 million dollars of food from government owned stocks was sold into civilian trade channels between May 1 and July 1, the war food administration said yesterday. Included were canned and dried fruits, canned vegetables, dairy products, eggs, beans, peas, rice, fish products and potatoes for starch, WFA said.

The food came from three sources. Some was released in small lots because of changes in war plans, location of stocks, type of package or similar reasons. Some was sold to keep inventory in good condition and prevent deterioration. Other stocks had been built up as a result of price support programs. Such purchases, usually made in periods of peak production, are being sold as production declines and the civilian market can absorb them, WFA said.

VAST INCREASE IS ORDERED IN SHELL OUTPUT

Heavy Ammunition Demands Rise.

Washington, D. C., July 10 (AP).—An immediate increase of several hundred per cent in the army's heavy artillery ammunition program to meet unprecedented demands from combat zones was announced today by the war department.

Brig. Gen. R. E. Hardy, chief of the ordnance department's ammunition division, said the cost of machine tools, presses, and furnaces alone involved in the expansion would reach approximately 100 million dollars.

Plan Wide Expansion.

Contracts have been placed with 56 companies to step up the production of 155 mm., 8-inch, and 240 mm. shells. Almost all ammunition loading plants of the ordnance departments will be expanded, and a similar expansion has been ordered in chemical and explosives plants.

As an example of the vast expenditure of heavy artillery ammunition, the department reported that the 5th army in May used 64,750,000 pounds against the Gustav line below Cassino. This was ammunition of 155 mm. and larger sizes, and did not include shells for smaller guns and howitzers, aerial bombs, machine gun, mortar or rifle ammunition.

"This program is so important to the continued success of the war that the war production board has granted the highest priority on equipment and material and the war man power commission has granted a similar priority on labor referrals," Gen. Hardy said.

Seeks Sufficient Labor.

"Sufficient labor must be secured to operate the equipment being installed at its highest rate of capacity in order to meet demands of troops."

The army previously had ordered the output of big guns stepped up, and the tank program also has been increased in recent months.

Metal companies listed by the war department as taking a major part in the increased heavy artillery ammunition program include:

Altorfer Brothers, East Peoria, Ill.; Pullman-Standard Car Manufacturing company, Butler, Pa.; W. A Couple of Quick Ones

One holds the gun on you . . . the other scoops up all the money in your cash register. In two minutes they're gone . . . and so is your money.

Before that happens, investigate Continental's complete "blanket" protection for retailers. It guards your shop or store against financial loss from robbery, burglary, fraud, employees' dishonesty . . . all the crime protection any retailer needs or wants . . . all in one contract . . . with just one premium.

Retailer's crime protection is but one of the complete range of insurance and bonding services offered you by this strong Chicago institution. Ask your own agent or broker for full details.

Has your Will kept pace with these changing times?

IT is a wise man who reviews his Will frequently. For the effectiveness of any Will may be seriously altered by changing circumstances. Today, under the extraordinary conditions of war, the changes may be even more acute.

Consider your Will, for instance. Has the executor you named been called into Service? Or has he, perhaps, moved to another city where he would not be available immediately should his services be needed? Or have the demands of war deprived him of the time your affairs may require?

And what about the estate itself? Has it remained constant or has there been some upward or downward shift in the value of the securities, business interest or other assets?

Since either or both of these circumstances together with increased taxes can vitally affect you and your family, it will pay you to review your Will at this time with your attorney.

Perhaps you may wish to consider the appointment of this bank as your executor or trustee. Officers of The Northern Trust Company will be pleased to place its 55 years of experience in the probating of Wills and in the administration of estates at the disposal of you and your attorney.

For additional want ads, borrow your neighbor's Tribune today!

• As an emergency measure due to newsprint restrictions, the Tribune temporarily can print in any one copy only half of each day's total volume of want ads. As a result, this copy of today's paper contains one set of want ads, while the next copy off the press after this one contains an entirely different set of want ads.

• The odds are that your neighbor's copy today will be the alternate to your copy. By referring to the letters "A" or "B" next to the page number, you can easily identify the alternate sections.

• Even tho this copy of the paper contains only one-half of the want ads published by the Tribune today, it still contains more want advertising than any other Chicago newspaper.
